Indians Play Best Game, Wallop Airport, 70-44

Last Jan. 14 Tecumseh High School lost their only Southeastern League basketball game of the year to Airport Community when the Indians went stale at the foul line. At that time each team made 21 field goals but the Indians clicked on only six of the 18 charity tosses to lose, 59-54.

Since that game they must have been practicing from the foul line. Friday night they added insurance to their league record by soundly trouncing the Jets, 70-44. And this time Tecumseh clicked on 20 free throws, missing only six.

Actually the free throw record need not have been that good, since the Indians blasted 25 field goals for 50 points. Had they not made one charity toss they still would have won by a score of 50-44.

After Ken Miller tied the score with a brace of tosses early in the game, following Ron Hatcher's production of two foul shots, the sophomore Indian ace hit on all 10 free throws attempted in the first quarter. He continued for two more in the second quarter before muffing number 13.

His free throw accuracy plus five field goals gave him scoring honors with 22. His running mate Marv Yoakum added 17 on eight field goals and a single charity toss and Earl Drummonds, freshman center, contributed 11 points to the Indian cause with three field goals and five charity tosses. Jerry Bartion, who comes up to Drummond's waist netted six points on a trio of goals.

In fact, nine of the 12 players used by Coach Lawson in the Indians' finest played game to date got in the scoring column. He emptied the bench in the last two minutes.

Ron Hatcher, the league's leading scorer, was high for the Airport Jets, claiming 16 points garnered on six field goals and four charity tosses. Breitner and Frankhouse contributed eight points each to the Jet cause.

It was Miller who gave the Indians a first quarter lead that was never pared. He had 10 free throws and two baskets for 14 points in the first period as the Indians took a 21-9 lead.

As the teams left the court at intermission the Indians owned a 33-23 edge.

The Jets fell apart in the third period and picked up only six points as the Indians played superb defensive ball. Meanwhile, the locals added 19 more points. Airport didn't hit a field goal until half of the period was gone, then they hit only two for the whole eight minutes.

Tecumseh edged the Jets in the final frame, 18-15.

The scoring pattern in the two halves was interesting. In the first half the Indians hit 15 free throws and nine field goals. In the second half this was almost reversed. They hit 16 field goals and only five free throws.

The Jets had almost identical scoring records for the two halves. They had nine field goals in the first half and five free throws and eight field goals in the second half and five free throws.

Off on their shooting a bit in the first half, the Indians connected on nine of 33 attempts from out court. But in the second half they hit on 16 of 33.

Airport had nine of 35 in the first half and 8 of 29 in the second half.

The win gave the Indians a five-one league record.

They close the season with Bedford there Friday night, the team that is in second place in the standings.

In the Jayvee game Tecumseh edged the Jets, 36-32 with John Elliott leading the attack with 14 points.

JCC Sponsors Hockey Night

The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a "Hockey Night" at the Toledo Sports Arena on Saturday night, Feb. 26, at 8:30 o'clock, club officials announced today.

The Jaycees will share in the proceeds of the Toledo-Johnstown game and will use the funds to help with their youth service program. This game is a regularly scheduled International Hockey League contest and could have a vital bearing on the playoff race for the first four teams.

The Jaycees will sell general admission tickets. Should any purchaser desire a reserved seat, this ticket and a small extra charge wil lenable the purchaser to obtain a seat he desires.

It is pointed out by Jaycee officials, however, that every seat in the Sports Arena is a choice seat, particularly since there are no posts to obstruct a spectator's view.

The Jaycees feel that through this project the purchaser gets full value for his or her money while the club will also benefit and be able to carry on many worthwhile projects for Tecumseh.

Deerfield Blasts Britton, 103-63

Minute Men of Deerfield blasted the Britton Tories in a Little Six League basketball game Friday night, 103-63. It was the fourth league loss for Britton as against five wins and kept Deerfield's chances to tie for the title alive.

The Minute Men, leading all the way, clicked on 44 field goals to swamp the Tories who managed 19.

Jim Iott was high scorer with 29 points on 14 field goals and a single foul shot.

Tom Bruce, Tory center, led the losers with 16. He still is the league's leading scorer. Al Barrett added 15 points to the Tories' total. Bruce made his points on four field goals and eight charity tosses while Barrett garnered his points on six field goals and three foul shots.

In the prelim the Minute Men Jayvees won 49-29.

RUGGED — Burly Jack Novak, defenseman with the Toledo Mercurys, will be in action when the Mercs play the Johnstown Jets in an International Hockey League game at the Toledo Sports Arena Saturday, Feb. 26, at 8:30 p.m. The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring this game to carry on their youth service work in Tecumseh.

Michigan State College home economists explain that rubbers, galoshes and raincoats should be kept in a cool, lark place when not in use. Remove oil, grease and tar immediately because rubber is harmed by heat, light, oil and grease.

Boysville Five Ties For Third

Scoring 33 of their team's 43 points, Joe and John Murray led the Fighting Knights of Boysville to third place in the League of the Lakes Basketball League Friday night as Boysville won over Pinckney, 43-26.

Joe hit 13 points on six field goals and a single foul shot while brother John chipped in 20 points on 10 field goals. Clark was high for the Pinckney team with 10.

Outscoring the Pinckney team 15-10 in the first quarter the Knights were never headed.

In the prelim the Boysville reserves beat Pinckney, 50-15.

Products Win Ties Rec. League

As a result of the Tecumseh Products win over the Manchester Merchants last Thursday night, the Tecumseh Men's Recreation League is tied up again with both the Merchants and the Dundee Texaco boasting seven won, two lost records.

There was no doubt about the victory the TP boys posted over the Merchants. It was a resounding 61-43 verdict. Stark led the winners with 14 points. But Walkowe of the Merchants took scoring honors with 17.

The Oilmen tied the Merchants in the standings with a 76-36 shellacking of the Manchester Independents.

K. Knabusch led the scoring for the winners with 22 points while Lentz was high for the losers with 10.

In the third game of the night Moore's Lumber Co. also ran up a big score clobbering the American Legion, 84-37.

Krepps took high scoring honors for the Lumbermen with 27 points while Betzoldt scored 12 for the losers.

In games tonight the two Manchester teams play at 7; Dundee plays the Legion at 8; and Moore's plays the Products at 9. These are the last of the regular games.

Brotherhood Week

Nation wide observance of Brotherhood Week, sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, is this week. President Dwight D. Eisenhower is honorary chairman of the observance. Ben Duffy, President, Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborne, Inc., is general chairman.

The 1955 theme is "One Nation Under God."

The purposes of Brotherhood Week, according to Dr. Everett R. Clinchy, president of the National Conference, are to give people an opportunity to re-dedicate themselves as individuals to the ideals of respect for people and human rights.

"We try to dramatize the practical things that people can do to promote an understanding and realization of those ideals. Brotherhood Week is essentially a campaign against the prejudices and bigotries that disfigure and distort religious, business, social and political relations."

An inventory of the nation's moral and spiritual resources for brotherhood is being undertaken by the National Conference as one of its main tasks during the current year.

The big task during Brotherhood Week, according to Dr. Clinchy, will be to urge people to do more than give the principles of brotherhood mere lip service.

"By getting to know the other fellow, the one who has a different creed, race or national origin than yours, by understanding his viewpoint, his ambitions and goals, you will find old prejudices disappear. You'll find that we are all one family made strong and great by the very differences that so many times divide us as individuals and groups. You'll learn to accept or reject a person strictly on his merits as a human being and not because he happens to be different from you."

"We hope that during Brotherhood Week people will get together with people they know, people they don't know, and with people they wish to know, in the informality of their own homes. By planning simple discussions about the meaning of brotherhood, and what it means in their own lives, they can contribute to the real spirit of Brotherhood Week."

Same Problems Are Here

The White House Conference on Education which meets in the Capitol next Nov. 28 through Dec. 1 will have on its agenda the same basic problems that concern Tecumseh Public School administrators.

The same problems also are being discussed on a statewide level in the 48 states. In Michigan the White House Conference program is under the direction of State Supt. of Instruction Clair L. Taylor.

The six areas on the discussion agenda at the White House Conference are:

1. What should our schools accomplish?

2. In what ways can we organize our school systems more efficiently and economically?

3. What are our school building needs?

4. How can we get enough good teachers — and keep them?

5. How can we finance our schools — build and operate them?

6. How can we obtain a continuing public interest in education?

Although the problems are complex, every teacher, administrator and thinking parent hopes that the conference comes up with practical and sane answers.

As soon as he entered our office, the young man asked, "How much would the payments be on an $8500 mortgage? I'm just checking."

"On a 20-year basis, about $56.10 per month, plus taxes and insurance," I replied.

"Hmm," the young fellow said,

"more reasonable than I thought. But just about exactly what my wife said. What do you have in the 2 bedroom class for around $10,000?"

"A nice home," I answered. "I'd like for you and your wife to see it."

"She's out of town," he answered. "But I'll look it over."

We did. Then the young man volunteered, "It's a dandy. But you understand I only have about 25% of the vote. My wife would have to approve it too."

A few days later, she did. The full vote was cast in favor of this attractive home.

Oh, Lord, I reckon I'm not much just by myself . . . I've failed to do a lotta things I oughta do, but Lord, when the trails are steep and passes high, help me to ride it straight the whole way through. And in the falling dusk when I get the final call, I do not care how many flowers they send . . . above all else the happiest trail would be for you to say to me . . . "Let's ride, my friend."

Mrs. Frederick Filer

Dearborn housewife says, "Hospital bills don't cost us borrowed money now!"

"It's the most wonderful feeling when you don't have to borrow money to pay hospital and doctor bills," says Mrs. Filer. "That's the way it is with us, now that we've got Blue Cross - Blue Shield. When I had to be in the hospital for forty-nine days . . . just the hospital bill was around $1,000! We were completely covered, under our Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract. In addition to that, Blue Shield paid $137 for medical services I needed. There weren't any forms to fill out, and we didn't have to wait for any payments. Everything happened automatically!"

What if this were your year to have a hospital bill? There's a 1 in 3 chance that it will be! Wouldn't you and your family be a lot better off if you had protection like the kind that saved over $1,100 for Mrs. Filer?

Join the over 3 million Michigan people who have Blue Cross - Blue Shield. Find out how you can get low-cost group coverage for hospital and doctor bills. A company with as few as 5 employes may qualify as a group. Today, call or write: Blue Cross - Blue Shield

MARTHA-MARY CIRCLE

The Christian Home was the theme of the inspiring program presented by Mrs. Andrew Woodward Monday evening at the Feb. meeting of the Martha-Mary Circle of the Methodist church. The group met in the church parlors because of illness in the home of the hostess, Mrs. Luther Wood.

Plans were made for a joint meeting of all the women's groups of the church to be held in April when Martha-Mary Circle will be the hostess organization.

A valentine exchange occasioned much entertainment and amusement as did the white elephant sale which followed. Proceeds from the latter will be used for altar flowers for a special occasion. Refreshments were served which were supplied by Mrs. Wood, though she was unable to attend.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

(This is the second chapter of the story about the earth works that were called the "Indian Dancing Ground." A slip of the typewriter last week named Norwalk, Ohio as the site of similar formations instead of Newark where they really belong. We hasten to make the correction).

Rumor, tradition and hearsay have given the dancing ground as many locations as the dozens of Indian villages supposed to have been located near Tecumseh. Many of the latter probably existed for Indian encampments were anything but permanent and, as they were fond of sports, there may also have been several open spaces which could have been called dancing grounds.

Fortunately we do not have to depend on hearsay to be sure of the one spot which both the Indians and the early whites considered so remarkable. We have the written work of men who saw it in all its primeval grandeur. They place it on the level plateau of ground on the north side of the Raisin river (not the race) a few rods east of what is now the Standish dam. Old timers will remember a slaughter house in that vicinity. There is little of interest there now but, with the river on one side and the high bluff (topped by Burt street or Milwaukee road) on the other, it is easy to understand its original choice.

What is not so easy to understand is why none of the early records make any mention of the place. It was close to the first homes and the trail the settlers had followed must have led directly to it. (Even the early roads were routed much farther north than the present one). Perhaps it was because they credited the formations to the Indians they knew and the memory of the Raisin river massacre was too vivid to permit anything but fear and hatred for the red man and all his works.

Four men, however, have written about the place. All waited fifty years to record their memories, but they are reliable historians. John J. Adam, who came during the first years of the town and who was a teacher, a lawyer and a member of the state legislature wrote in 1878 for the State Pioneer Society, as follows—"The principal memento of his (the Indian's) residence here that I have seen or heard of, was a plat of ground on the north bank of the River Raisin, in the northeast corner of that portion of the village of Tecumseh, known as Brownville. It was laid out in the from of a square and a circle, with an opening from one to the other where they joined, the trails all leading to and from the circle; and both parts having an embankment of about four feet in height, and having in the center of the circular part a pit five or six feet deep. By digging in the bottom of this pit nothing especial was found except some charred wood. When the white settlers first came there were some cedar posts in the outer embankment, and there were evidences of the place having been quite often used for meetings or gatherings of some sort."

"But the Indians seemed always reluctant to say anything about the object for which it was used; whether for war dances or worship, or some ceremonies of medicine men it would be difficult to tell or guess. It was generally spoken of by early settlers as the Indian Dancing Ground. Some thought it might be the burial place of some chief but this was all a matter of conjecture or surmise."

It is obvious that Mr. Adam did not look beyond the Indians of his day for the origin of the grounds but Dr. M. A. Patterson, the town's early physician, when he wrote of it in the "Tecumseh Chief," in 1868, says—"That the Indian Dancing Ground had a history of no ordinary interest was proven by the deeply worn thoroughfares, which connecting with all routes of travel, and concentrating here, reached out to the great inland seas on the north and west and to the waters of the Erie on the east and south. But its history is unknown, even to the old French inhabitants of the Territory, and the only beings who could shed any light upon it, if indeed they could, were shy, taciturn and reluctant in any way to allude to the subject. That they held it in deep reverence was quite manifest—but it was one of the mysteries of their religious worship, which they always seemed most reluctant to divulge to any white man."

The doctor's vivid description of the place will follow next week.

Catholics Observe Book Week

Catholic Book Week will be observed for the fifteenth year Feb. 20-26, 1955. His Eminence, Edward Cardinal Mooney, has been chosen as honorary chairman. The slogan is "Christian Books: Beacons in a Troubled World."

The Reverend Walter J. Ziemba, Librarian of St. Mary's College, Orchard Lake, Michigan, has been appointed as chairman of the Book Week Committee for the Michigan Area.

Together with members of the Michigan Chapter of the Catholic Library Association, Rev. Ziemba is bringing to the attention of the people of Michigan the best books of the year as selected by the Catholic Library Association.

The book list is arranged for the adult reader, for the young adult reader, and for children.

Copies of the book list are available from Catholic Library Association Headquarters, Maryknoll Seminary, Glen Ellyn, Illinois.

MUSICAL LIBRARY IS GIFT TO COMMUNITY

The extensive musical library of the late Mrs. R. S. Moore is to be a gift to the community. Mr. Moore is making arrangements to place it in the public library where it will be on loan. The Music Club has appointed a committee to help catalog the items but it will not be the property of the club.

Corn Allotments To Be Mailed

Mr. W. P. Hart advises that the county allotment is now being apportioned among the corn growing farms of the county and that notifications of individual farm allotments will be in the mail to farmers about Feb. 28. Those who feel that their allotments have not been properly calculated may file an appeal with their county committee within 15 days after the allotment notice was mailed.

The farm allotments, Chairman W. P. Hart explains, are based on the acreage planted to corn in 1951, 1952, and 1953, as adjusted for abnormal weather, and changes in the type of farm operations. Adjustments also may be made to bring the corn acreage into conformity with farms that are similarly operated and also are similar as to tillable acreage, crop rotation practices, type of soil and topography. After this a uniform adjustment percentage is applied to all farms in the county to bring the total within the alloted acreages for the county.

Farmers who stay within their farm acreage allotment will be eligible for price support on all the corn produced in 1955, provided the corn meets grade and moisture requirements, and provided the corn is stored in a bin or crib or in commercial storage approved by the county ASC committee.

Eligible corn may be put under Commodity Credit Corporation loan as in other years. Purchase agreements also will be available. The loan rate for 1955 will be announced at a later date but will not be less than 82½ percent nor more than 90 percent of parity. Farmers who stay within the corn and other acreage allotments established for their farm also are eligible for Agricultural Conservation practice payments.

The corn acreage allotment program, W. P. Hart explains, is th means provided by law for orderly stabilizing corn production in line with anticipated requirements and to assure cooperating producers that their corn will have a market value which is fair to producers and consumers alike. Allotments are required each year except under emergency conditions.

Lenawee County's corn acreage allotment for 1955 is 93,124 acres as compared with the 1954 allotment of 83,452 acres.

In making the announcement, W. P. Hart, Chairman of the Lenawee County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee points out that the increase over 1954 is due to an increase in the national allotment recently proclaimed by Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson.

The national corn acreage allotment for 1955 is 49,842,697 acres; in 1954 it was 46,995,504 acres.

One thing I like about show business is that people are judged on the basis of their ability, not because of their race, color or creed. And that's the way it should be in every walk of life.

It's highway robbery!

For sheer fun out on the road, Chevrolet's stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars!

Up to this year, maybe there were reasons for wanting one of the higher-priced cars. If you demanded something really special in the way of driving fun, you simply had to pay a premium to get it.

Not any more! The Motoramic Chevrolet has changed all that. Who could wish for more excitement than the new 162-h.p. "Turbo-Fire V8" delivers? (For those who do, 180-h.p. is optional at extra cost in all V8 models.) Chevrolet also offers the two highest powered sixes in its field.

Come in and see how the Motoramic Chevrolet is stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars!

Grade School News

Central—Grade Three
Mrs. Vallie

Since the last time we talked with you, we have had three new people come into our room. They are Wayne Jackson from Talladega, Alabama; Gordon Wagner from Addison, and Jean Brown from Houston, Texas. Now there are 36 of us.

One of our reading groups has been reading stories about states in our country and also about Mexico and Canada. Each time we started a story about a new state, one of the children from the class looked up the state in an encyclopedia and wrote about it. We've also colored each state that we've studied on a large map. Each one of us has had an individual map to do this with also.

The entire class drew big pictures about Abraham Lincoln's life. Another part of our study of his life was to have each child write a story of the things he remembered that we had read or heard about Mr. Lincoln.

We enjoyed our Valentine party very much. Our room was decorated with Valentine pictures we had made with Mrs. Westdyke and in our own room. We'd like to thank Mrs. Mackey and Mrs. Harrison for helping us with the party.

West Branch—Grade Three
Mrs. Laskey

We have been learning many interesting things about Washington and Lincoln.

In social studies we have just read about why we have changes in our seasons and the part the sun has in this change.

Mary Louise Kinse was champion speller this month for the room and Michael Higgins was second.

We have had a grand St. Valentines Day party. The girls brought Kool-Aid and the boys cookies besides the ice cream for all. Oh! Our Valentines Boxes were so pretty on our desks.

Twenty of us had a perfect score in spelling this Friday. We're improving all the time.

We are learning how to borrow from tens place in arithmetic. Some of us had a difficult time with it but most of us have learned it very well now.

Our potatoes took the longest time to sprout and grow in our seed experiment. Our champion bean plant is 13 inches high. We know now that plants need water, food, soil, sun, and air in the right amounts to grow their best.

Central—Grade Three
Mrs. Illeck

February is nearly half over. It is such an interesting month. We had a valentine party and we had such a lot of fun. We each had a white paper bag with a large red paper heart on the front. Our names were written on the hearts. The bags were stapled to the bulletin board. Each child was given his bag at our party. What anxiety! We all could open our valentines at the same time. Our refreshments were, ice cream, soda, and candy hearts.

We have had many children absent. Most of them have returned now.

We are borrowing in arithmetic. We are also carrying in addition. Our arithmetic is becoming more and more difficult.

We wish to express our gratitude to the many parents from our room who were present for our P.T.A. meeting. However, we do wish you all could have been present. Perhaps the next time.

Patterson—Grade Three
Miss Baker

All of our reading groups are in new books. We enjoy the stories very much and like to work in our work books. We drew pictures of the stories we liked best.

In arithmetic we are working on carrying. We are also learning to check our work.

Many of us told the class stories we made up for language. We are writing our stories and are going to put them in a booklet.

Twice a week we listen to story records we brought to school. We like to hear them again and again.

Our room was full of hearts for Valentines. We made mail box envelopes for our Valentines. For our party, we had cup cakes and pop.

Ruth Kempf, John Mensing, David Dustin, Sally Smock, Phyllis Brooks, and Peggy Morris had birthdays this month.

Patterson—Grade Four
Mrs. Colson

The girls in our room are making plans for entertaining the boys on Valentines Day. The boys planned the party in October, so they will be the guests for this party. Each child is making a decorated box to hold the Valentines he receives. We have some very nice ones, too.

Linda Selders brought a fine bird house which her father made. We are planning to put it in a tree outside our window. We certainly hope that a family of birds will move in this spring.

We have just left Egypt in our make believe trip around the world, and our next stop will be India. Some committees are busy making posters showing how people live in different parts of India. We have also drawn maps of that country. In our text book, Visits in Other Lands, we have read many interesting things about the people and the way they live. We are also reading a story about an elephant named Kari who lived in a jungle there.

In science class we have been studying about stars and planets. Most of us have found the Big and Little Dipper in the sky, and many of us have found the constellation of Orion. We are trying to learn to spell the names of all the known planets.

Central—Grade Four
Mrs. Whiting

We have a new pupil, Raymond Decker, which brings our count to 33 now, 21 boys and 12 girls!

We all had a good time at our Valentine party and everyone received lots of lovely valentines. Our valentine boxes were made by Suzanne Rose, Debby Holden, Patty Lawson, and Karen Robinette.

Bradley McCombs and Bruce King have birthdays this month.

We have had many absences the past few weeks, due to colds, but everyone is now back in school. We hope we can keep from catching more colds.

Suzanne Rose's mother was a visitors this month.

At our Citizenship Club meeting we elected Gail DeMass as our Citizen for the month of February.

We have nearly finished our science books and will soon start our Health books. We have been learning how proper foods guard against disease and have been making posters of good meals, in our spare time.

In reading class we are reading interesting stories of ourdoor life.

We are studying about the large cities of our country in Social Studies.

In geography we are learning about Pedro, a boy in our neighboring country of South America.

In arithmetic we have learned our multiplication tables through the 9's and are learning to divide by 9, with remainders.

In Language we are writing business letters. You can see we are very busy people!

Our teacher is reading Laura Ingall's book, "By the Shores of Silver Lake" to us. We have just finished "Magic Tales," a group of short stories, which we all enjoyed very much.

Central—Grade Four
Mrs. Bailey

We have been fourth graders for more than one-half year now and most of us are working very hard so we will be able to be good fifth graders next year.

We had a nice Valentines Day party. Each one of us received a number of Valentines that we enjoyed and we had good refreshments—pop and candied apples.

Only two of us have birthdays in February: Eugene White and Melvin Smith.

In geography we have just started reading about a little boy who lives in India. His name is Roshik and his sister's name is Moti. They seem like strange names to us. It is interesting to learn how different the seasons are over there. In this part of India there are three seasons—the cold season, the rainy season, and the hot season.

For the next few weeks we are going to study how six of the important cities in the United States grew and why they were located where they were. These cities are: New York, New Orleans, Seattle, Minneapolis, Pittsburgh, and Phoenix.

It seems improbable that we, or any nation or group of nations, will attain peace until each man, in his own mind and heart, treats all men as his brothers.

$2253.88 puts it in your driveway!

Local delivered price of the 2-door, 4-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 4B, illustrated. Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as: Heater & Defroster ... $81.70; Radio & Antenna ... $92.50.

CHANCES are, you'll be way over if you guess at the local delivered price of a 1955 Buick. Most people are.

And that's easy to understand when you look at a Buick. It's big, broad, roomy—powered for thrilling action. In prestige alone, it would seem to carry a high price tag.

But when you check into things, you discover this surprising fact: Buick is in the nation's top three when it comes to sales volume—and when it comes to low prices that make such huge popularity possible.

The price we show here is one proof of that. And an even bigger one is the soaring success of the 1955 Buick—hottest car in all Buick sales history.

So why miss out on Buick style and power and room and ride when you can have it all if you can afford any new car?

Why do yourself out of the fun and pride and deep satisfaction of bossing a big and brawny beauty like the one pictured here, when the dollars you pay for this Buick buy you so much more sheer automobile?

And why pay extra for things like direction signals, oil-bath air cleaner, full-flow oil filter, automatic lighting in the glove compartment—when such things, and more, are yours in every new Buick as standard equipment at no extra cost?

Drop in for a visit this week and start checking things.

We believe that when you look into this great car—when you see what you get for the low price you pay—and when you discover what happens when you nudge that gas pedal—you'll say it's gospel that Buick's the thrill and the buy of the year, hands down.

Thrill of the year is Buick

Dr. Clair Taylor Announces He'll Run Again

Dr. Clair L. Taylor today announced his candidacy for nomination and re-election as Superintendent of Public Instruction on the Republican ticket, Michigan's spring election will be held April 4.

Dr. Taylor has served in the Department of Public Instruction for 18 years, the last two as State Superintendent of Public Instruction. He has broad educational experience as a teacher, coach, superintnedent, county commissioner, and assistant superintendent for finance in the State Department of Public Instruction.

During Dr. Taylor's Service to the state, state aid to schools has increased from $40,000,000 to $200,000,000 annually. Teachers' salaries have increased an average of $400 during the past two years.

He said, "We have 500 citizens working on our curriculum program and it is outstanding in the nation. We face three big problems in Michigan education; teacher shortage, school buildings, and finance."

He reported that he is working with the legislature on school finance and teacher shortage. He has proposed a constitutional amendment which can play a substantial part in solving the building problem, and it now is being considered by the legislature.

CLAIR L. TAYLOR
Supt. of Public Instruction

Dr. Taylor said, "Michigan has a school system which stands second to none in the nation and I will fight actively and aggressively to maintain that leadership."

He declared that Michigan's great educational progress has been made and can be preserved through local control of the school system. He guarantees every effort to see that local citizens retain their educational rights.

Christian Science Services Listed

The vital need for proofs rather than mere professions of Christian power will be stressed in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" to be read at Christian Science services on Sunday.

Selections from the Bible include the following passage from the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5:16): "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (233:1-5): "Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them."

The Golden Text is from I John (4:9): "In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him."

Tips Offered To Get Best Out Of Linens

Bed linens need good care to give good wear.

To make sure your sheets and pillowcases serve you best, here are some suggestions from Cecilia Roach, instructor in the textiles, clothing and related arts department at Michigan State College.

Strong bleaches used in laundering sheets will weaken them. To prevent them from becoming too soiled, change them frequently. Mend the holes and tears before washing. Miss Roach suggests tearing torn sheets down the center lengthwise, seaming the salvaged edges together and hemming the raw edges.

Sheets should be washed in hot, softened water with plenty of soap. Make sure the soap is thoroughly rinsed out. Don't try to wash too many sheets at one time, cautions Miss Roach: the results won't be as good.

Miss Roach suggests hanging sheets a different way each time you pin them up to dry. This will distribute wear from the clothesline evenly over the sheet. She says sunshine is the best bleach to whiten sheets, so try to hang them on a sunny day. But do not let them whip in a strong wind or freeze stiff.

Avoid an iron that is too hot and never use it to iron creases into sheets. Fold them by hand and try folding them in different places. Most long tears in sheets, says Miss Roach, are crease breaks.

Britton Sponsors Building Tour

The Adult Farmer Class of Britton-Deerfield sponsored a building and equipment tour for its members and for all farmers of this area with Mr. Louis Hall, County Agricultural Agent Wednesday.

The tour covered:

1. A pole barn and self feeding crib at Eldon Reeck, chief livestock enterprise-swine, Britton.
2. Stantion type dairy barn and barn cleaner at Harold Rohrbackdairy farmer, Britton.
3. Beef feeding barn and farrowing pens at Vern Neidlinger, beef and swine, Macon.
4. Single hole filling corn crib and granary at W. A. Wehner, Deerfield.
5. Mechanical beef feeding barn for 180 steers at Dean Keller, Deerfield, and a discussion meeting at Britton vocational Agricultural Building, Britton.

If your sewing machine runs hard, it maybe a lack of oil, a thread caught in the band wheel bearing, or gummed oil in the bearing. If the oil is the trouble, clean the machine and oil it. If a thread is caught, dig it out with a pin.

Hay Harvest To Be Discussed

What's the best way to harvest hay to get the best quality?

Any methods that will cut the time the hay lays in the field after mowing will help quality according to Robert G. White, extension agricultural engineer at Michigan State College.

ROBERT WHITE

White will be one of the main speakers during the Winter Grass Institute program on March 1, 1955, 9:30 a.m., at the Adrian Armory, sponsored by the Agriculture Committee of the Adrian Chamber of Commerce.

Louis G. Hall, county agricultural agent and chairman of the chamber agriculture committee, points out that approximately 80 per cent of Michigan's 3,400,000 ton hay crop is field baled or chopped. About 60 per cent is baled and slightly more than 20 per cent goes through field forage harvesters. About half of that 20 per cent goes into grass silage.

Since the first cutting of hay is often damaged by rain, White suggests that one remedy is a hay crusher. If that machine is used just before the baler, the field curing time can be reduced by 40 per cent.

A forage harvester for the first cutting almost eliminates the weather hazard, according to White. A barn dryer is another remedy for beating the weather.

The agricultural engineer will discuss these items in detail when he speaks at 11:15 a.m., according to Mr. Hall.

The first six selections from the M.S.C. strawberry breeding program will fruit this coming June. Twenty-six growers are cooperating with the college in testing the selections.

The local chapter of the American Red Cross is one of over 3,700 chapters throughout the United States serving people in time of need.

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

IT IS GOOD TO NOTE that others make what is known in the newspaper business as typographical errors. A darb was seen last week at the Strand's marquee. The picture playing there was the "Young at Haert". This typo was the Strand's not ours. Glad to see that after the second day somebody wised and spelled heart the right way.

CAMERON RALSTON WHO held folks spellbound at the Rotary Ann dinner last week made the comment that too many Americans have an aversion to work. Abe Goldstein of Kansas City was not one of these folks. He must have loved his work. Abe began his career as a newsboy when he was seven years old and kept at it for 65 years — the rest of his life. He died last week at 72.

FRIDAY, SATURDAY and Sunday you can see what makes Tecumseh by attending the Veterans of Foreign War's merchants' and manufacturers' show in the United Products Workers' Union hall and at the same time you can again make a contribution to a community cause. The show is a benefit for the VFW's building fund. We'll see you there.

FOR KIDS ONLY: The American Hearing Aid Association reports "Ears do not have to be washed to remain healthy." Clean ears are only a matter of taste, (although you certainly don't taste with your ears) it says, and not a matter of good hearing.

THAT WAS A GRAND show put on by the Jaycees and maybe it will bring a renewed interest in minstrel capers and beloved barbershop quartet singing in the Tecumseh area.

SUNDAY PEACEFUL Evans Creek was a raging torrent that roared like a berserk mighty Mississippi. Chunks of ice six feet across clogged its whirling waters and its bank overflowed in the back yard for a good 10 yards. The hunks of ice coming down stream nicked the young poplars and flattened a baby tamarack and a young willow. The ice and water also may have damaged our beautiful perennial sweet peas, to say nothing of the incinnerator's loss. But the frail-looking Honey Locusts weathered this blast.

THE OLD TIMER SAYS: "If you want to leave your footprints in the sands of time, the best thing to wear is work shoes."

A MAN I KNOW who makes a business of catching mice says they prefer gumdrops to cheese. Must be the mice have no dentures.

YOU'VE PROBABLY HEARD this one before but it has a point that bears repeating time and time again. The little girl asked her daddy to read her a story but he was busy reading his own paper so he said "Isn't that a good story on television?" And she said "Yes, it is, but the television can't hold me on its lap."

RED WILSON, PERSONNEL director at the Products, called to "enlighten" this neophyte sports reporter on the athletic history of Tecumseh. Sharp-eyed Red read the sports page last week and reported that the district basketball tournament coming to town March 2, 3, 4 and 5 is not the first tournament ever held here. Far from it. The former high school basketball coach pointed out that Tecumseh was district champ here from 1930 to 1937 and Tecumseh from 1930 to 1940 was the center of the biggest and hottest semi-pro basketball tournament ever held in the state of Michigan. "Why Bob Moore and Chuck Butler used to bring pillows to the games and stay all night." The games, Red said, began at 4 in the afternoon and continued all night until 5 the next morning. Bill Perigo, U-M basketball coach, was one of the independent stars who played in this tourney.

HAVE YOU EVER tried writing for the slicks—the popular magazines? If you have you may have received checks or, like so many who try, rejection slips for your troubles. A friend of mine has received so many that he uses them for stationery. He says he ought to get something for his efforts. Maybe he hasn't been sending stuff in lately, though. We haven't heard from him for a long time.

THAT BETWEEN THE halves show of tumbling put on by Mrs. Sisson's tumblers at Tecumseh High School is a dandy. To show how much interest has been shown in the work of the tumblers you can count on one hand the number of folks who leave to go out for refreshments while the show is on. It's wonderful and we should have more of this type of activity.

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK—The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can well; and doing well whatever you do, without a thought of fame.—Longfellow

Drive a Ford and you'll buy a Ford

If you haven't stepped inside a 1955 Ford and tried new Trigger-Torque power you don't know how much fun driving can be

Of course, you've seen it . . . and heard about it. But when was the last time you actually got behind the wheel and drove a Ford?

If you haven't driven a Ford lately, you're in for a thrilling experience. Ask anyone who has!

For, this Ford is totally unlike any car you've ever taken for a spin . . . unless you've put a Ford Thunderbird through its paces. The Thunderbird, you know, inspired the styling in all 16 of Ford's new models this year.

Inside Ford's Luxury Lounge interior you'll find fresh new two-tone colors . . . rich new fabrics . . . totally new door paneling . . . and a sweeping new control panel.

And the way this '55 Ford behaves is something which only a Test Drive can describe. But here's a hint: Ford's new Trigger-Torque power responds to your wishes in as little as 7/100 of a second . . . and this power is yours in Ford's new 162-h.p. Y-block V-8, 182-h.p. Y-block Special V-8 or a new 120-h.p. I-block Six.

There are many, many more surprises in this completely new Ford. To get the full story, why not accept our invitation and take a Test Drive?

Come in for a Test Drive and you'll want to drive it home

Will You Be Able To Vote?

Will you be able to vote in the city election scheduled Monday, April 4? If you are not a registered voter you will not be able to help in the selection of five councilmen to run city affairs.

If you are not registered you still have until 8 p.m. next Monday, March 7. This is the final time and date for registration in the city spring election.

Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk, suggests that those not sure of being registered voters should check with her office. She suspects that there are quite a few would-be voters who think they are registered but they may not be.

She wants to know particularly about any change of address voters had since the last election so they will be registered in the correct precinct.

To date the city has 2901 registered voters.

This list may be increased if residents check with Mrs. Sallows. They may do so from 8 to 5 today and Friday and from 8 to 12 noon Saturday. And Monday the registration office will be open again all day.

Nine candidates are in the race for the five posts. They are Stephan R. Illeck, Blair O. Bashore, Edith B. Smith, LeRoy H. Titley, Arthur J. Schwartz, William M. Powell, Robert G. Fuller, Donald Purkey and John Hamilton.

The three with the highest number of votes will receive two-year terms and the two with the next highest number of votes will receive one-year terms.

LION

March came in like a lion so maybe it will go out like a lamb. In case you had not noticed, the new month was accompanied by thunder and lightning and a heavy downpour.

The rainfall measured more than a half inch.

It was a stormy beginning for the month but no property damage was reported in the Tecumseh area.

Local Scouts Mark Girl Scout Week

The Tecumseh Brownies and Girl Scouts will join thousands of others across the nation in observing Girl Scout Week beginning March 6 and ending March 13.

Duty to God comes first in the Girl Scout Promise and first in Girl Scout Week. Traditionally each girl attends the worship service in her own church. Leaders, assistant leaders, committee-women and officers of the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association will attend services Sunday, March 6, Scout Sunday.

All troops meeting on Monday will observe Homemaking Day in various ways in their troops. Those meeting on Tuesday will build their program around Citizenship Day.

Health and Safety Day will be emphasized in the program of the troops meeting on Wednesday. Thursday will be known as International Day by those meeting then.

Friday is Arts and Crafts Day and Saturday is not only Out-of-doors Day but is the real Girl Scout birthday as Girl Scouts were founded by Juliette Low 43 years ago in Savannah, Ga.

The closing feature will be the Brownies and Girl Scouts own Vesper Service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon, March 13 at 4 p. m. under the direction of the Senior Scouts. Parents, relatives, and friends are invited to attend this service. The Girl Scouts also extend an invitation to all Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts to be present and in uniform if they wish.

ROTARY PLANS FARMERS' NIGHT

The Tecumseh Rotary Club will entertain area farmers Tuesday night, March 22, at a dinner meeting in the First Methodist Church.

Speaker will be Prof. John Doneth of the Michigan State College department of agriculture economics.

Carnegie Students Entertain B and PW

Last minute changes resulted in an unscheduled program for the Business and Professional Woman's Club Monday evening. Because of the illness of the leaders, Mrs. George French took charge and presented Miss Linda Johnson who played "The Glow Worm" as a piano solo.

Mrs. French then introduced two enthusiastic recent graduates of the Dale Carnegie School of Public Speaking and Human Relations. Don Brazee and Doug Murdock then proceeded to give the 50 women present a capsule course of the Carnegie technics.

There were two guests at the meeting, Mrs. Carlos Jones and Mrs. Earl Pennington and six new members, Mrs. Ben Hammack, Mrs. Rose Crawford, Mrs. Christine Greenwald, Mrs. Doris Aebersold, Mrs. Zorah McWilliams and Mrs. Helen Morningstar were introduced.

Through the report of the corresponding secretary, it was announced that the club is eligible to sponsor a student at Interlochen Music Camp again this year; that the Drama Festival of the Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in Adrian March 25, and that the 50th anniversary of the County Federation will be held in Tecumseh April 20. It was voted to sponsor a student to be chosen by the band director and Mrs. Mel Partridge, Miss Ann Carson, Mrs. J. M. Artman and Miss Ethel Keyser volunteered to assist at the birthday luncheon of the Federation.

Mrs. Pennington, secretary of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, explained about Michigan Week May 15 to 21 and told of the assignment of the club to help plan the program for Hospitality Day, Tuesday, May 17.

STUDENT CONGRESS—Joan Pfaus, sophomore, right, and daughter of Mrs. Cora B. Pfaus of Tecumseh, a Michigan State College student congress representative, discusses an item for legislation with president, William Hurst, Fort Lauderdale, Florida senior and representative Holly Heinze of Howell, Mich.

M.S.C.'s All-College Student Government has three divisions corresponding to the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government.

The legislative body is student congress, executive authority falls to the president and the judicial branch has original jurisdiction over cases of students breaking college regulations.

Congress members are elected from campus districts to represent their living units. The president is elected annually. With the consent of congress, he picks a 16-member executive council to assist with administrative matters.

The aims of M.S.C. student government are: 1) to provide student representation in affairs pertaining to them 2) to promote activities benefiting students or the college 3) to assist student organizations and integrate their activities.

School Problems Discussed By PTA

The Feb. 28th meeting of the West Branch Parent-Teacher Association was well attended, 60 interested parents being present. Miss Steinoff's first grade room won the plant as a prize for having 27 parents on hand.

A period of warm-up programs conducted by Mrs. J. R. Thompson preceded the general discussion of school problems, which aroused much interest. It was voted unanimously to continue the building type meeting plan for future P.T.A. meetings. Mrs. Frank Laskey, second grade teacher, and Mrs. Allan Seager were named as representatives of the West Branch at the panel discussion night at the high school March 17.

Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, Mrs. Raymond Kempf, Keith Barron and Herald Koons were appointed as a committee to plan a money making project for some much needed improvements to the building.

This was to have been the last meeting of the year but due to the keen interest shown by the parents in promoting a successful P.-T.A. program, there will be another meeting this spring, the time and date to be announced later.

Committees for West Branch this year have been composed of two mothers and a teacher from each room consisting of: Miss Steinoff with Mrs. Richard Brighton and Mrs. Don Brazee; Miss LaPointe with Mrs. Edward Beal and Mrs. Wallace Rutherford and Mrs. Lasky with Mrs. Gerald Griffen and Mrs. Victor Peterson.

Refreshments were served for the group by Mrs. Brighton and Mrs. Brazee.

Col. Anderson Retires To Become Texas Realtor

A recent issue of the Denison Daily of Denison, Texas, contains an account of the retirement from the army of Col. John Hicks Anderson and his entrance into the business life of that city.

A former Tecumseh boy, Col. Anderson is the son of Mrs. Raynor K. Anderson and the late Mr. Anderson and still has many friends in his home town.

JOHN H. ANDERSON

He graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1930 and during his school days laid the foundation for future success as "printer's devil" on the Tecumseh HERALD.

He attended Shad's Preparatory School in Washington, D. C. before entering West Point where he graduated as a second lieutenant in 1934.

The Denison paper says:

Col. John H. Anderson, whose career as an Army Engineer included a stint here during construction of Denison Dam, retired from the service Feb. 1 and will join his father-in-law, F. H. Kohfeldt, in the Kohfeldt & Son realtor firm here April 1.

Col. and Mrs. Anderson and their two sons will move from Richmond, Va., to Denison to establish their home after a vacation in Florida.

Mrs. Anderson is the former Miss Dorothy Kohfeldt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kohfeldt, 1411 West Woodward. They were married here in 1939.

Col. Anderson graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology with a Master of Science degree in civil engineering in 1937, and from the Engineer School at Ft. Belvoir, Va., in June, 1939.

Col. Anderson's next assignment was the Denison District U. S. Engineer office, then under Lucious D. Clay. He served on the dam project as chief of the survey section, control division, and engineering division before being sent to Forth Worth as area engineer in charge of the bomber plant construction. Moving to other fields, Anderson helped organize the new Middle Atlantic Division of the Engineers. That was in 1942, and the next year found him as district engineer at Galveston.

A stretch of oversea service followed, starting when he was sent to Hawaii to supervise construction of the $38 million Tripler General Hospital. In Japan he had charge of constructing Ashiya Air Base on Kyushu, using Japanese engineers and contractors.

Returning to the States in 1947, Col. Anderson was assigned to the Chief of Engineers' Office in Washington, was later detailed to the General Staff in the Pentagon, and went to Chile in 1952 as Army adviser in the negotiation of a mutual defense assistance pact.

A highlight of later assignments was in connection with construction of Pepperrell AFB at St. John's, Newfoundland.

The Kohfeldt realty firm is one of Denison's oldest business establishments. It also operates in Texas City where extensive interests have been developed.

Col. and Mrs. Anderson's two sons are Tom, 11, and Steven, 6. The family are Episcopalians.

Col. Anderson's brother, also a graduate of West Point, is a brigadier general and the quartermaster for the U. S. Army in Europe.

J. M. Artman, manager of the Tecumseh secretary of state's branch office, reports that 3000 car and truck license plates were sold here during Jan. and Feb.

He said plate buyers were lined up for a block both Saturday and Monday but the line moved rapidly.

Some motorists from Adrian bought plates here and some buyers came from as far away as Detroit and other Wayne County cities.

Young Motorist Misses Serious Injury In Wreck

Herbert Beck, 23, of Tecumseh escaped serious injury early Monday morning when his car left the road north of town and rolled over.

Beck was traveling south near Allen road when he missed the curve.

Clinton state police said he was traveling at an excessive rate of speed for road conditions. His car left the road on the left side, skidded back on the road, then left the road on the right side and rolled over.

The car was a total loss.

Beck was taken to Herrick Memorial hospital with head lacerations.

He was given a summons for reckless driving.

Jaycees Net $400 On Minstrel Show

The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce realized a profit of $400 from its Minstrel Show held Feb. 18 and 19. Proceeds from the show go for fire department equipment.

Meeting last Thursday night the Jaycees also:

Voted to sponsor a Tecumseh boy at Boys' State; discussed the donkey basketball game with the chamber of commerce Monday, March 14; thanked the senior chamber for its giving the Jaycees an honorary membership; named Bob Williamson Michigan Week representative; discussed a membership drive and dance some time in April; and named Bill Davenport to see what has to be done to bring a drivers' license bureau to Tecumseh.

Two Cited For Service To Polio

Two Tecumseh area folks were honored by the Lanewee chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in Adrian Monday night.

Receiving five-year pins for service were Mrs. Truman Rentschler of Tecumseh and Elmer W. Eberhardt of Britton.

Tecumseh area contributions not previously reported included Clinton and Franklin Townships $3006.53; and Macon, $205.32.

Tecumseh and Raisin Township contributed $4,845.50.

NINE RECEIVE LIFE MEMBERSHIPS

There were 90 members and guests present at the special Life Member meeting of Tecumseh chapter No. 69 F. and A.M. last Friday night.

Those who received their life membership certificates at the ceremony in charge of Worthy Master Howard Wilson, Jr. were Fred Dickinson, Claire Gillespie, Fred Sheldon, John Smith, Harry Rosacrans of Toledo, Leon Rosacrans, Everett Exelby, Carl Murphy and E. Lavern Russell.

Four candidates received their Master Mason degrees the same evening. They were Richard Graff, Henry Young, Kenneth Church and Lloyd Mann.

Visitors included Dean Jones of Patterson, N. J. and others from Ypsilanti, Detroit, Jackson, Lansing, Onsted, Dundee and Clinton.

Supper was served to 56 members by the ladies of the O.E.S. before the meeting.

INFANT BURIED IN BROOKSIDE CEMETERY

Graveside services were held in Brookside cemetery at 1:30 Monday afternoon for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hayden, who died at birth Saturday morning at Herrick Memorial hospital.

The baby was taken to the Collins Funeral Home until Monday when services were conducted by the Rev. Edward Escalme.

Survivors are the parents; a brother, William Perry and grandparents, Mrs. Perry Hayden and Mr. and Mrs. David Dugan of Caldwell, N. J.

Visiting Nurses Enjoy Weekend

The ten nurses from the Wayne University College of Nursing, who were guests of the Auxiliary of Herrick Memorial hospital put in a busy weekend. Advanced students, representing eight foreign countries, they came to Tecumseh to observe the ways of a small American community.

Glimpses of Tecumseh family life were afforded them by their entertainment in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dillon, Mrs. Donald Wright, Mrs. Ruth Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fuller and Mrs. Hoyt Whelan.

They were further entertained at a luncheon at the Country Club by auxiliary members, at a tea at the hospital by the staff of the institution and at an informal evening gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilman. There they saw pictures taken in the South Pacific by Dr. A. J. Phelan and Miss Toyoko Kamiya charmed the group with a native Japanese dance.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL HAVE CALENDAR

The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce is starting a community calendar.

Any dates of future special events may be called to Mrs. Earl Pennington, secretary, at 259.

The chamber's board thought that by serving as a clearing house there might be less conflict of special events dates.

TRYING OUT A DISPLAY—Ronald Wimple and James Wimple, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Wimple, Route 1 Tecumseh, tried out the display of Meyers Aircraft. Jimmy had a fine time but Ronny cried after his daddy put him in the side car.

YOUNGEST VIEWERS—Probably the youngest viewers at the merchants' and manufacturers' show were Barbara Jean and Nancy Ann Hamilton, five-month-old daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton of Tecumseh. After viewing 30 displays, their parents sat down for a rest. That's big brother Robert Paul in the center. The twins didn't have too much to say but from the looks on their cute faces they, too, enjoyed the show.

3000 View M-M Show

A crowd estimated at 3000 attended the three-day merchants' and manufacturers' show sponsored by Post No. 4137 Veterans of Foreign Wars last week end.

Club officials said the attendance might have been greater had it not rained during the three days the show was on in the United Products Workers' Union hall.

Almost 1500 adult tickets were sold at the door and it was estimated that 1500 children attended the show to see the displays of the 30 merchants and manufacturers.

Carson House, commander of the VFW, said he and his committee heard a lot of fine comments on the show. Those that displayed wares this year, he added, want back again next year but they want more space.

The VFW does not yet know how much it realized from the show since a final accounting on expenses has not been made. Proceeds from the show will go for the organization's new home on north Evans street.

Winners of the organization's three major prizes at the show were Elmer House, Route 2, Tecumseh, $100; Garfield Smith, Clinton, $75; and Lucy Geringer, 507 Inner Drive, Tecumseh, $50.

The prizes are merchant certificates.

MINISTERS PLAN RELIGIOUS PROJECTS

A meeting of the Lenawee County Ministerial Association was held Monday forenoon at the Tecumseh Friends church, opening with a short devotional service conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Edward Escolme.

By dividing the group into three committees, the association was able to consider and make plans for several community religious projects. These included religious services for the migrant workers in the county, radio ministerial work and the annual service given by the association each year at the opening of the Lenawee County Fair.

A meeting of the Tecumseh Ministerial Association followed during which the program of the Good Friday Service to be held in St. Peter's Episcopal church was discussed.

Vin Brazee Remembers Village Lamp Lighter

Alvin Brazee, whose boyhood home was in Brownville, writes from his winter vacation land at St. Cloud, Florida:

"I was much interested in the recent article about Wally Gray, the lamp lighter. Of course, I realize there are some people living in Tecumseh who were born there some years ahead of me. Therefore, they would remember some things of which I have no recollection.

"Perhaps Wally Gray did have a bicycle which he used on his lamplighting circuit but I do not remember it. You will, I am sure agree with me, that often weather and roads would make it impossible for him to use a bicycle. I remember his two wheeled cart pulled by a sorrel pony. His job, Wally's I mean, was quite a task. Chimneys must be cleaned, lamps filled and wicks trimmed. This was all done in the morning, leaving only the lighting for the evening chore.

"As the lamplighter left his home at the corner of Union and Brown streets the first lamp east on his route was set on the line between the Caroline Hand and the Jacob Totten residences, now occupied by Glen Snedicor and by his three sisters.

"How fainy were those oil lamps on the street! They did not light up some of the dark and shadowy spots that I must travel by between our home and town. Next door to us lived Nat Doke and in front of his place was a long arbor-vitea hedge that extended across the entire front of his property with low branched blue spruces just inside. Next was the North Branch schoolhouse with its high board fence along the west boundary.

"Another bad spot was the dark approach on either side as one neared the bridge over Evans creek and perhaps the most dreaded of all was the path by the Episcopal church and the grove south of it, for in those far off days the branches on those evergreens extended nearly to the ground.

"If I happened to be traveling alone I used to cover that beat in record time."

The Brazees plan to start home about the middle of March.

Methodists Plan Lenten Services

Each Thursday evening during Lent is to be a special occasion at the Tecumseh Methodist church. The Rev. Horace James announces the following schedule.

March 3 will be Family Night with a potluck supper at 6:30 followed by a speech, "Religion in Brazil as seen by a Layman" by Jack Savage. March 10, a deputation team from Adrian College will present a service at 7:30 followed by fellowship at 8:30.

The same hours will be observed on March 17 with the Rev. Vaughn Whited of Clinton as speaker and there will be another Family Night March 24 with potluck supper at 6:30 sponsored by the Sunday school. A film, "In His Name" will be shown. The Rev. B. O. Bashore will speak March 31, and a fellowship hour will follow.

O.E.S. TO HONOR MRS. OWEN PARTRIDGE

Tecumseh Chapter No. 51 is holding a reception Monday, March 4 honoring Mrs. Owen Partridge, Grand committee woman of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Partridge is chairman of the Kind Heart committee of the Grand chapter.

There will be a dinner at 6 p.m. at the Baptist Youth House for members and friends. The reception line at the Masonic Temple will form at 7:30 and Grand officers will exemplify at 8 o'clock.

GIVES TO POLIO

The name of the Temple Dependable class of the Methodist Church was inadvertently omitted from those giving to polio in a story last week. The class gave $5 to polio.

Morey Sells Western Auto To Claron Rex

Mr. and Mrs. Claron Rex have bought the Western Auto Associate store here from Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morey.

The new owners took over Tuesday.

Formerly employed by a Toledo auto dealer, Mr. Rex is married. He and his wife whose name is Ruth have twin boys two years old. Their names are Thomas and David.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex plan to move to Tecumseh.

Later on when they have a chance to get better situated they will have a grand opening.

Mr. Morey, who had a severe heart attack several weeks ago, will stay in the store for awhile to help Mr. and Mrs. Rex get acquainted.

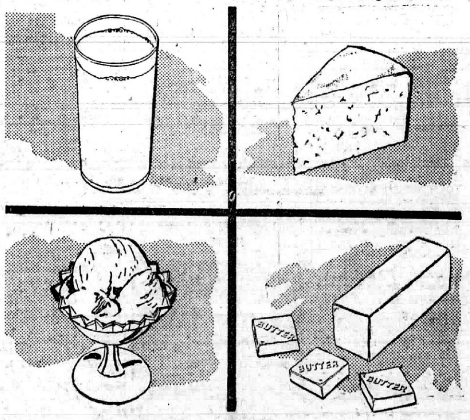
A Salute to the Dairy Industry which supplies the vital foods that keep us healthy and prosperous



We welcome this opportunity to pay deserved recognition to the great dairy industry which is of such vital importance in our community.

The dairy industry is the largest single source of farm income. Its economic importance to the nation and this community is tremendous and significant.

This we know—a strong, vigorous dairy industry, thanks to the importance of dairy foods, will lead to a healthier, happier nation . . . a sound, balanced farm economy . . . better food values on a smaller food budget for millions of consumers . . . and an increase in the nation's real wealth.

Indians Capture Southeastern Title

Free Throws Decide Bedford Game, 48-39

Hail the champions!

As a result of their 48-39 win over Bedford Friday night the Tecumseh High School Indians copped the Southeastern League basketball title. The win gave the Indians a 6-2 league record and Bedford had to settle for a tie with Monroe Catholic Central with 5-3 records.

After Marv Yoakum hit the first field goal for Tecumseh early in the first period and Ken Miller matched his production with another two points, Bedford came to life with Osenbaugh clicking for his team's first two points and Rollman dumping two long ones. Bedford continued the pressure to take a 17-12 lead at the end of the first quarter.

From that point on it was the Indians' game. Bedford, befuddled in the second period, clicked on only two field goals of 17 attempts while the Indians who could manage only 4 of 11 in the first quarter dumped six of 14 attempts in the second frame to take a 30-21 half time lead. The Indians had their best production in the second, collecting 18 points while holding the Kicking Mules to four.

The Indians might have had more points if the guards bringing the ball up court had noticed Miller, Drummonds and Yoakum breaking in the clear for excellent shots at the bucket. Several times this opportunity to score went fleeting when the guards dribbled the ball up court without seeing the breaking men.

The most beautiful Tecumseh score of the first half developed when Ken Miller and Val Spangler passed the ball all the way between them. Passing to each other and dribbling, they went through the Mules, with Spangler dumping the two points just before the buzzer sounded.

At the beginning of the third period Coach Vic Lawson had his Indians work the semi stall. This brought a resounding boo from partisan Bedford fans and some of the large number of Tecumseh followers present did not care for this type of play.

Actually the semi is not primarily a stalling game. As the ball is rotated sort of like a "ring around the roses" affair one of the players is supposed to break when an opponent is faked out of position while he tries to "steal" the ball. So it really is an offense, too.

But the Indians could not click offensively on this type of play. And the Mules were not able to "steal" the ball for a chance at the basket.

As a result the last two periods were slow with a lot of time eaten up as the Indians passed the ball among themselves.

The semi served its purpose, though. The Indians with a nine point lead going into the semi, still had their nine point lead at the end. Both teams garnered 18 points in the second half.

Tecumseh had eight shots in the third period, making good on only one while the Mules made half of their six shots. The Mules outscored the Indians eight to six in the third period.

In the final period Tecumseh produced five of seven shots while the Mules clicked on five of 11 shots. The Indians, collecting two charity tosses also, had a 12-10 margin in the last frame.

Accuracy from the free throw line was a major factor in the Indians' win. In fact they won by nine points. And they made nine points more from the charity line than the Mules did. Each team made 17 baskets.

It would be difficult to single out individual stars on either side. Coach Lawson used only seven players and Coach Howard Hale used only six.

Ken Miller, sophomore forward ace who completed play by taking second place in league scoring, took scoring honors with 18 points made on seven field goals and four free throws.

Earl Drummonds, easily the most improved player on the squad, was a standout Friday night. The lanky frosh center banged six field goals and three free throws to contribute a mighty 15 points. He was mighty on the boards, too.

Marv Yoakum, junior guard, hit for two field goals and three charity tosses to add seven points.

Val Spangler who played his best all-around game added a pair of field goals for four points and his fast and accurate passing to teammates set up several Indian points.

Hard-working guards Jim Bowser and Tom Neitling contributed to the championship with their fine floor play.

Leading scorers for the Mules were Boehme with 14, Osenbaugh with eight, Rollman with six and Hansen with five.

In the junior varsity game the Indians blew a 16-11 first quarter lead to lose 46-39. The Indian juniors still were leading 24-21 at the half but fell apart in the third to add only one point. Bruce McDowell was high scorer with 10 points.

As a result of their 47-32 win over Onsted Friday night, the Britton-Macon Tories clinched third place in the Little Six basketball league. They ended league play with a 6-4 record for a .600 percentage.

The Wildcats from the western part of the county held Tom Bruce, Britton star center, and league top scorer, to eight points but the slack was taken up by Barrett and Wood who had 14 and 16 points.

Leading all the way, the Tories grabbed a 10-7 first quarter advantage and led 27-21 at intermission. They were outscored 14-10 in the third but posted a 10-7 fourth quarter advantage. Onsted could have caused real trouble had they hit on six of their 13 free throws missed.

Hawkins led the Onsted cagers with 19 points.

Play-Off Set As Two Teams Tie In Rec. Play

A play-off in the Men's Recreation Basketball League will be scheduled by Coach Les Runk, director.

League play ended last Thursday night with Manchester Merchants and Dundee Texaco tied for the lead with 8-2 records.

The Merchants slipped past their neighbors the Manchester Independents, 33-28. Fennell led the winners with 12 points while Evilsizer topped the Independents with 9.

Dundee made the play-off necessary by crushing the American Legion, 70-24. Knabush led the winners with 19 points and Betzoldt paced the losers with 9.

The Tecumseh Products clinched third place with a 52-41 verdict over Moore Lumber Co. The Products was led by Baaske with 16 markers while R. Sweet led the Lumbermen with 14.

CUBS WIN AGAIN

Cubs usually hibernate during the winter months but not St. Elizabeth Cubs.

On the contrary they have had quite a season. Opponents have been Sacred Heart, Hudson; St. John, Ypsilanti; Boysville; St. Thomas, Ann Arbor; Assumption, Ohio; Tories, Britton; St. Alphonsus, Deerfield; and practice games with Tecumseh.

Games were played at home and away with teams mentioned. Sunday the Cubs won again. The first game was a 31-15 victory over Assumption, Ohio. The second game was a 30-27 score.

Indians To Play Dundee In Tourney

The Tecumseh High School Indians will face Dundee in the state district basketball tournament tonight (Thursday) in Tecumseh High gym. Game time is 9 p.m.

If the Indians, newly-crowned champs of the Southeastern League, can get past the Dundee squad they will play the winner of the Milan-Airport game scheduled for 7 p.m. tonight, for the championship Saturday night. The championship game will be at 9 p.m.

Dundee turned back the Indians in a regular non-league game during the season and they will prove a worthy foe for the Lawson men tonight.

Coach Lawson reports he plans no great changes for the tournament. This means he will probably go with Miller and Yoakum at the forwards, Drumonds at center and Neitling and Bowser at guards. Sure to see action, too, will be Spangler and Barton, front line replacements.

Class "C" teams which began play Wednesday night will play for the championship Saturday night at 7.

"JIM BO" IT SWIMS

INTRODUCING

JIM BO—the most sensational invention in the history of fishing—the artificial minnow that swims. No more live bait to buy. This is the lure sensation of the 20th century.

IT SWIMS—no springs, uses no fuel; it swims as long as you leave it in the water. Swims by unique process of balance and gravity. Fish any desired depth—in lake, stream, gulf, bay. Any fish that will strike a minnow will strike JIM BO. This is no gadget. Looks and swims like a live minnow.

This is the lure of all lures—beautiful silver leaf plastic. Buy one for your friends also. Satisfaction guaranteed. Send $1.00 only, for each lure. Send check or cash. We pay postage. Sold by mail only.

J. & R TACKLE CO. P.O. Box 741, Largo, Fla.

Highlights Of Game

Where the Indian supporters and cheerleaders sat was a sign "Hello, Tecumseh." But in another part of the gym was a bigger sign "Beat Tecumseh." This sign was torn down by Tecumseh players after the game.

* * *

Tecumseh rooters (and there were many) had orange and black streamer sticks they waved as they cheered. More chairs had to be put in the small gym to take care of the overflow crowd. Soon there was standing room only and Allan Seager was seen standing in the door for all of the game.

* * *

Coach Vic Lawson wasn't even excited. At one time he yelled: "Oove it Mout" when he was trying to tell his players to move it out. He really gave a couple of large towels a workout. He must have had a nervous sweat because he was constantly using the towels.

* * *

Coach Lawson admitted that the semi is not popular with basketball crowds but he also added "It sometimes wins games and I'm here to help win a game."

* * *

Jayvee Coach Doug Murdoch whose players blew an early 10-2 lead and dropped their game, said he should have ordered the junior Indians to stall for three and one-half quarters.

* * *

Coach Murdoch also commented that the Indian cheerleaders really deserve a hand. "They work as hard as the teams do."

Commenting on the Passing Scene

YOU HEAR A LOT ABOUT what the proposed state equalized tax formula will do for the Tecumseh Public Schools but not too much has been said about what the increase will bring in badly needed Tecumseh city services.

One would think that the proposed state equalized does not effect the city in any way. But nothing is further from the truth.

Tecumseh, a young city, has a long way to go in providing services that city residents expect. For example, the city needs a new city hall and fire barn; it needs more fire fighting equipment to fight fires in outlying areas that are now part of the city; it needs more water and sewer lines; it needs improved roads in the annexed areas; and it needs a sinking fund for the hospital. There always is a place to put more municipal money but these needs as we see them are the most pressing.

But this is not to say that the HERALD expects all of these to come to pass overnight. However, a few of them might result if the city had more tax money.

Let's take a look at one example recently given by City assessor John Saling. Trying to get the city assessments a little more in line with the county's average, he told councilmen he will try to raise the present city $8,073,400 assessed valuation to $11,000,000. If he is successful in doing this the city would have $165,000 in local taxes next year instead of $121,101 it received this year. This figuring is based on the current 15-mill city tax rate.

Nobody likes higher taxes and the assessor and councilmen know this. They believe that the total summer and winter tax millage rate of 45 mills is all Tecumseh can handle right now.

But if pressure is brought to bear from an outside source neither the assessor nor the council will be able successfully to cope with it. It might be better to begin the necessary work of searching out inequities in our own way.

If the assessor is successful in doing so, the city as wel as the public schools will benefit.

☆

NOW THAT SPRING IS on its way the creeks and pond around town offer untold adventure to children. They als offer untold danger.

We all know that the ponds are deep and treacherou and in the event of an accidental plunge a drowning c drownings very easily could result.

But how many realize the danger in Evans Creek? On day last week at least a dozen children were playing alon its bank in back of the Catholic School. One spot here is si feet deep.

It is hoped this serves as a note of precaution and th parents will warn their children of the dangers involved.

☆

THAT WAS QUITE A SHOW sponsored by the Veteran of Foreign Wars. More than 3000 persons saw the display of the 29 merchants and manufacturers. And if the weathe had cooperated this count probably would have been 500

The VFW and the merchants and manufacturers are t be congratulated for bringing this type of fine communit activity to Tecumseh.

☆

SATURDAY AND AGAIN Monday auto owners stood i line at the secretary of state's branch office here to buy thei car and truck license plates.

Even though it was raining, they stood there to get thei plates.

It is good to see that the local office needed here for s many years is patronized.

☆

CAR LICENSE PLATES reminds us that the ruckus ove whether Michigan State College shall be called a universit is raging again. It seems that those who are "agin" the ide also should be hopping mad because of the green and whit colors on this year's license plates. Do you think they wil boycott the Spartan plates? This would make as much sense as the name squabble.

Who is wise? He that learns from everyone. Who is powerful? He that governs his passions. Who is rich? He that is content.—Benjamin Franklin

"I had a try at selling our acreage home," Mr. Baker admitted. But the whole procedure was a mystery to me. I was uncertain. I was like looking in a well and trying to see the other end."

Mr. Baker continued, "Just to illustrate. People would ask me how I justified my price when their neighbor's place sold for less. Others would ask technical questions on financing. I didn't know how to proceed. I learned my lesson — the job of selling our acreage is now up to you."

If you want to sell your acreage, you can profit from Mr. Baker's mistakes.

It is a mistake to expect to do an expert's job if you are an amateur."

Moreover, it is a big mistake to even offer your property for sale unless you do know how to proceed. It can—and often does—result in poor results and legal trouble, or both.

Hey, Kids, Look Here

Artistically-inclined Michigan grade and high school students are competing for $3,175 in prize money offered in the American Automobile Association's 11th National Traffic Safety Poster Contest.

Students have until March 9 to submit entries, says Automobile Club of Michigan Safety and Traffic Director Ernest P. Davis.

Last year, 29 Michigan elementary, intermediate and high school pupils won prizes in the contest. State youngsters this year will illustrate the themes "Help Your Safety Patrol," "Be Extra Alert on Rainy Days" and "School's Open—Drive Carefully."

Winning posters will be distributed to newspapers and schools throughout Michigan to encourage school safety.

Students and art teachers can receive more details and assistance from their nearest Auto Club office.

Grade School News

Central — Grade Six
Mrs. Crawford

It's news this time that only six of our class escaped the various absence causing germs that are going around. Thelma Richardson had pneumonia but is now back with us. Illness also kept Julia Ward from saying good-bye to her classmates when she moved to Belding, Michigan.

We had quite a display of gadgets to illustrate what we learned about electricity. The boys made telegraph sets, door bells, and electro-magnets. Some were quite complicated and showed hard work and careful workmanship. A few girls contributed items, too.

There were over 900 valentines in our valentine box. The class voted that each person was to bring what he wanted for refreshments and much guessing and secret planning went on ahead of time. Sixth grade appetites seem to be pretty much alike we discovered when treat time arrived.

Folders containing some of our daily work papers will be sent home with our report cards. Many parents comment favorably the last time this was done. We are getting into the habit of doing our best all the time as we never know which papers will be included in the folders.

Central — Grade Six
Mrs. Runk

For the last four weeks we have been quite busy working on our social studies unit. We divided the pupils in our room into five groups to study the European countries: Scandinavia, Central Europe, Southeastern Europe, Mediterranean Lands, and the Netherlands. We are learning the essential facts and doing projects of each country. Carol Greiman and Karen Butler made a globe on which they located their countries, Gail Kimerer and Donald Linden made a model Hungarian house, complete to the thatched roof. Many charts and posters showing important facts have been made. Miss Marcelle Gilles-pie, our music teacher, has taught us songs from these countries, and we have listened to music from them. Mrs. Agnes Boss showed us slides of pictures she took in France, and Mrs. Illeck showed us articles she brought back from Europe. Parents are invited to stop in to see our exhibit in room 305.

On Mondays and Tuesdays, the girls and boys square dance at the Central gym under the direction of Miss Mickey Ialacci, and Lester Runk, our gym teachers. They are planning a square dance program for all fifth and sixth grades to give for their parents March 4, at 2:45 at the Central gym.

Douglas Hyde and Colleen Check have moved away and we miss them. Colleen has gone to Taylor Center, and Douglas to North Star.

Boys and girls have brought goldfish for our aquarium. We now have seven fish.

Cynthia Poley and Steven Naugle broke their left arms while playing, during the same week. Both are back in school again.

Central — Grade Five
Mrs. Uckele

We are studying Health this semester.

We have rearranged our room so that now we are sitting in groups. Each group has a special project in Social Studies.

For the last six weeks in Physical Education we have been learning to square dance.

Virginia Tolley is a new pupil in our room.

We all enjoyed our Valentine Party. Linda Starkey brought cup cakes for everyone in the room. These were in addition to our regular refreshments. Linda's mother made the cakes. Thank you Mrs. Starkey and Linda.

Gardeners Hear Of Flower Varieties

New varieties for the gardener was the topic of a very interesting and informative talk by Mrs. Neil Pearson Friday afternoon at the February meeting of the Garden Club. She described new seeds now available and listed new bulbs, especially iris. Mrs. Thomas O'Hara was hostess for the 25 club members and there were three guests. Mrs. Robert Bonner, Mrs. E. C. Dickin and Mrs. E. A. Gibbons.

Mrs. Harold Wilson conducted the business meeting when Mrs. Robert Blanks was received as a new member. It was voted to give $10 to the March of Dimes and the new year books were distributed. It was announced that tickets for the Detroit Flower Show are now available at Rosacrans store.

A springlike flower arrangement decorated the tea table which was presided over by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson. Mrs. O'Hara was assisted by her committee, Mrs. H. E. Kenrick, Mrs. Wesley Mast and Mrs. Waldo Mohr.

FARM BUERAU COUNSEL SPOKE LAST NIGHT

Lenawee County Farm Bureau Women held their regular monthly meeting at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 2 at the Michigan Milk Producers hall on E. Maumee St., Adrian. The meeting was preceded by a potluck supper at 7:30.

Stanley Powell, well known Michigan Farm Bureau legislative counsel was the speaker. Mr. Powell is a recognized authority on legislative procedures and his talk dealt with the proposed bills which are being acted upon at the present time in the Michigan state legislature.

Following his address, there was a question and answer period.

BOY SCOUTS MEET

The Boy Scouts of Macon held their first meeting Wednesday, March 2, in the former Mills schoolhouse located at the corner of Mills and Pennington roads. Any boy over the age of eleven is eligible to be a member of the Boy Scouts. Harold Gier is the Scout Master.

COMMUNITY CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow were hosts to the Macon Community Club recently when a Gay Nineties party was held. Following supper, there was a short business meeting at which it was decided to see about having the Macon community signs repaired and painted.

Mrs. Melvin Travis reported that she had remembered several shut-ins with gifts. Mrs. William Swick told about a sugar bowl that belonged to her mother and a pitcher, both being over 100 years old. Several related interesting memories of the nineties.

Charles Bigelow showed colored slides of their summer tourist resort and pictures taken around Macon. Mr. and Mrs. William Swick will entertain the group in March.

PLAN BANQUET

The Alice Jane Circle and the W.S.C.S. met Wednesday evening with Mrs. Emogene Morden. Final plans were completed for the Father and Son banquet. The Alice Jane Circle is taking orders for Easter baskets. Mrs. Luella Bigelow assisted by Mrs. Mary Hagen and Mrs. Ida Mehler were in charge of the program. Dessert luncheon was served at the close of the program.

HOMEMAKERS EXTENSION

Mrs. Charles Schroder entertained 15 members of the Macon Homemakers Extension Club. A salad luncheon was followed by a short business meeting.

Mrs. Carl Hawkins and Mrs. Charles Howell will assist with the district tea to be held March 8 at the Presbyterian church in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Howard Henry was honored at a pink and blue shower and presented with gifts from the group. Mrs. Pearl Tucker won the prize and Mrs. Lois Jordan the mystery package. Mrs. Jordan presented the lesson on "Line in Dress."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Gaines of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller are spending several days in Toronto, Canada. Mr. Miller underwent surgery Friday. The Miller children are staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller during their parents' absence.

Mrs. John Schroeder is a patient in Bixby hospital, Adrian.

Supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bock were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hank of Plymouth.

Mrs. Doris Dixon McLain and two sons of Detroit and her aunt Mrs. Anna Jones called in the Carl Thomas home. Mrs. McLain made her home with the Thomas family and attended the Ford school in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bock were Sunday afternoon and supper guests of Mrs. Edna Theuer in Garden City.

Vicki and Ricki Davis of Ridgeway are spending this week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bock while their parents are in Missouri.

Eldred Evans of Kansas City, Mo., is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson spent the weekend in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Furlong and daughter Susan, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey and family, Miss Mary Jo Hayes of Ypsilanti and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Moore and sons were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bruder.

Local Topics

Those from out-of-town who came for the funeral of Leon Johnson included Mr. and Mrs. Buel Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Brockway and daughter Susie, all of Toledo, Mrs. E. M. Conroy of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Still and daughter of Palmyra and Mrs. Robert Rossman of Adrian. The Rev. Bert Turner of Detroit, who has frequently conducted meetings at the Friends church assisted the Rev. Edward Escolme at the service.

Miss Carolyn Comfort of Wheaton College spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Comfort.

Corp. Daniel D. Dermyer, who recently returned from ten months in Korea, has been spending leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Dermyer. Corp. Dermyer, who has been in service for 15 months, is a member of the Engineering Aviation Btn.

There are more Navy personnel serving in destroyer-type vessels than in any other category.

St. Peter's Lenten Services Planned

St. Peter's Episcopal Church has planned the following program of the Lenten season:

Each Wednesday at noon there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion in the church followed by a luncheon in the Parish House.

Thursdays at 8 p.m. in the Parish House, laymen of the parish will present addresses in a series entitled "From a Layman's Point of View—How Does Religion Fit into the Following: Public Relations, Architecture, Law, Medicine, Music?" Following the addresses there will be a time for questions and discussion.

The service and luncheon on Wednesdays and the meetings on Thursdays are open to the public.

HOT NEWS

ABOUT THE HOT CAR

Buick production hits new highs to handle the orders pouring in!

Good thing the Buick factories stepped up production of the 1955 cars when they did—because customer orders are pouring in.

Seems just about everybody wants a 1955 Buick—the "hot" car this year that's getting hotter by the hour.

So hot, in fact, that it's topping the huge popularity which moved Buick into the "Big Three" of the nation's best sellers last year.

Know why? Plenty reasons.

Bold new styling, of course. And brilliant new V8 power. And room and comfort and luxury interiors—and an even finer, softer, steadier ride.

But the big reason is a new magic from the field of aviation—Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Twenty propeller-like blades inside this wondrous automatic drive do what the modern airplane propeller does—they switch their pitch.

One way, you get more miles per gallon in normal driving and cruising.

You switch the pitch to another angle just by pressing down on the gas pedal—and you get a new kind of instantaneous response for getaway or for safety-surge accelerating power.

It's an experience you've never had before in an earth-bound vehicle—and it's thrilling beyond words.

So you can see why we're selling Buicks at a record rate.

And you can see more of the reason why when you look into the low pricing schedule that makes Buick the buy of the year, hands down.

Buick Sales Are Soaring!

Proof? Buick is outselling all other cars in America except two of the best-known ones in the smaller-car field. And for two good reasons: (1) popular prices low enough for any new-car buyer to reach; and (2) a line of cars to fit any budget, from the low-priced SPECIAL, to the high-powered CENTURY, to the extra-spacious SUPER, to the custom-built ROADMASTER.

Come in and check things for yourself. Once you do—and press that gas pedal—we believe you won't be happy till you're bossing your very own Buick.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

COLLECT PENNIES FOR POLIO DRIVE

The Future Nurses Club of Tecumseh High School undertook a successful public service when they sponsored a penny drive for the March of Dimes.

The money was collected throughout the school each morning during the home room period and a record was kept of each day's progress. At the end of the week $76.81 had been contributed, which the group considers a fine showing for a school the size of Tecumseh.

The largest amount contributed was from the seventh grade.

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

(Chapter three of the Indian Dancing Ground.)

In its essentials, the description of the grounds given by Dr. M. A. Patterson is almost identical with that of his friend, Mr. Adam, but he adds depths and color to that outline picture. He wrote in 1868—

"Near the northern bank of the River Raisin, and on the ground recently covered with logs for the Globe saw-mill, is the spot marked out on Farmer's first map of Michigan as an Indian Dancing ground; not a trace of which now remains to point out that spot once so sacred to the Indian tribes and still so interesting to all those seeking to trace out aboriginal history. A friend informs us that he saw the ground before the axe, the spade or the plow had deprived it of its natural beauty or defaced its clearly defined boundaries.

"Less than one-fourth of an acre of ground, extending to the river's edge was enclosed with mathematical precision by a raised circle of earth. In the center of this circle was a semi-egg shaped excavation of nearly 10 feet in diameter and averaging about three feet in depth. Tall, massive oaks guarded the outer boundary of this mysterious enclosure and, supported by their lofty trunks, wild grapes ran from tree to tree, interlacing their tendrils and drooping in graceful festoons from the vast, overhanging branches.

"From this strangely attractive and grandly enclosed amphitheater proceeded four paths or Indian trails, so deeply worn as to convey the idea they had been trodden for untold centuries. The early surveyors of the territory discovered that these trails led, by direct courses, to the important localities known as the sites of Detroit, Chicago, Monroe and Maumee City."

It is to be regretted that Dr. Patterson's graphic description is second hand and it is somewhat surprising that he did not visit the place himself. But, while his was an active and inquiring mind, it was active in other fields in those years between 1827, when he came, and 1832, when the earthworks were destroyed. He was the lone physician for the isolated community; "fever 'n ague," the Michigan name for malaria, was rampant and his was a round-the-clock practice.

But if Dr. Patterson did not view it first hand, a slightly younger contemporary of his did. Benjamin Baxter, who as a lad of 16 came with his family to a farm north and east of the town, did not miss anything so fascinating. And it is quite characteristic of him that, writing 64 years later, he did not agree with the details of the doctor's account. Beside being a lawyer, a teacher, a Regent of the University and editor of the Herald, Baxter was also a rabid individualist, who seldom agreed with anyone. He wrote—

"We think the doctor must have misunderstood his informant about the circular form of the outer enclosure. We often visited it as a boy in 1831, looking upon it with awe and wonder, and the outer enclosure was not circular but a long parallelogram of raised earth as described and within was a large circle, forty or fifty feet in diameter and in the center of this circle the deep excavation described. What is by the doctor described as a dancing ground we have always heard called a 'council and dancing ground' and that it was used for both solemn council and solemn religious ceremonies we have no doubt."

Mr. Baxter then compared these formations with other "Mound Builder" earthworks he had visited and concluded—"the similarity of the forms indicates to me that it is quite possible the old Indian Council and Dancing grounds may have also antedated our modern Indians, which would be a very good reason why they knew and could tell nothing about them."

What happened to the Dancing Ground will be told next week.

Trip To Toledo Blade Is Planned By Monday Club

It was announced at the February meeting of the Monday Club held last week at the Pythian Hall, that the Lenawee County Federation of Women's Clubs had accepted the invitation of the Monday club to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the federation in Tecumseh, April 20. Mrs. Thomas O'Hara will announce later a committee to make the arrangements for this important club event.

Mrs. W. G. Waldron read a letter received from Mrs. Cole, county president, informing the club that they might send one student to the Interlochen music camp this summer. Mrs. Waldron was appointed to present a name to the club if a student is available. The adult education program at the University of Michigan was announced for May 11 and 12.

The resignation of Mrs. Hoyt Whelan from the club was reluctantly accepted.

The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett and began with a solo by Mrs. Dow Bilby, "The House I Live In." Mrs. Bilby was accompanied by Mrs. Waldron. Mrs. Hewlett then introduced Mrs. Vaughn Whited, who in turn presented the high school debating team, which is under her training.

Carl Hinkel and Gary Hizer took the affirmative and Judy Whiting and Ann Rebottaro the negative side of the question, "Resolved that the federal government should lower tariff barriers for those countries friendly to the United States." Carol Finnegan was time keeper for the speakers.

Plans are completed for the trip to the publishing offices of the Toledo Blade which will be the program of the club in March. Those desiring or having transportation should contact Mrs. Ted LaBounty or Mrs. O'Hara and meet at the O'Hara home at 12 noon March 7. The group will assemble at the Blade at 1:30.

Patriotic colors with a decorative scheme of cherries were used on the lace covered tea table and Mrs. Hewlett poured.

Mrs. Edward Harper was chairman of the hostess committee.

Michigan State College home economists give a few simple rules for handling salad greens: have greens and plate cold; have the greens clean, crisp, and dry; mix just prior to serving; coat each piece with dressing; have each piece large enough to identify.

CHURCH OBSERVES 106TH ANNIVERSARY

The 106th birthday anniversary of the Congregational Christian church was observed Sunday morning with a special service at 10:30 followed by a coffee hour in the church parlors.

The Rev. O. E. Priest read the first chapter of the "History of the Church" that he is rewriting. Many historic momentums were on display.

A birthday cake bearing 106 candles was cut by Mrs. G. L. Gripton.

The choir furnished special music and assisted with the serving. Altar flowers were in honor of G. L. Gripton's 84th birthday.

DAY OF PRAYER

World Day of Prayer was observed by the ladies of the Congregational Christian Church with a prayer service and breakfast at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. O. E. Priest Friday morning. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock the women's societies of the Britton and Ridgeway Methodist churches held a prayer service in the Britton church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cline and son Mark of Milan were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield and family.

Christian Science Services Listed

Man's God-given dominion over fear, disease, and discord will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man" will include the following from Psalms (8:4,6). "What is man that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? . . . Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be among those read (228.11-15). "The enslavement of man is not legitimate. It will cease when man enters into his heritage of freedom, his God given dominion over the material senses. Mortals will some day assert their freedom in the name of Almighty God."

The Golden Text is from Ecclesiastes (7:49): "Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright."

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

MRS. EARL PENNINGTON, secretary of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, reports that she never realized her job would include tracing down a bunch of chaps to ride donkeys. But that is what she is busy doing for the donkey basketball game scheduled Monday, March 14, between the chamber and the upstart junior chamber of commerce. Anyone want to place a bet?

IF ALL THE PIPES in the sprinkler system geared to help prevent fires at the Products were straightened out they would reach for 21 miles, says Ken Ross, fire chief at the factory.

THE NUTHATCH IS GETTING almost as snooty as the bluejay at the bird feeding station. He also eats alone. And by golly he must have a clock or he hears a noon whistle blow some where. Every day he starts to eat his lunch at 12 noon.

IT MIGHT BE A COINCIDENCE but Don Purkey reports that the day he turned in his nominating petition for council city workmen came out and gravelled the road in front of his place on Occidental Highway.

OUR LITTLE GALS REALLY murder the king's English and everybody else's too. Our eight-year-old saw a girl she knew at the minstrel show and she turned around and said: "Why she doesn't even realize me."

SEN. ELMER R. PORTER (R-Blissfield), now recuperating from injuries received in a traffic accident, is a farmer and proud of it. He tends a gigantic garden during the summer months and he is a gladioli farmer of talent. And last year he discovered a new kind of tomato with a shape something like a football which grows large and lush and contains less acid than others. He says it keeps him busy with a worth-while hobby.

CLARENCE WOOD, Route 2, dropped in to resubscribe to the paper. "You know," he said, "you have a good little paper. It has lots of news in it." His comments went directly to my heart. Comments from folks like Clarence who appreciate our efforts are always nice to hear.

MRS. HELEN LOWRY who does such an excellent job cleaning the HERALD offices told us a delightful story. She asked: "What did the old hen say when she saw the scrambled eggs? Of course we didn't know so she supplied this answer: "Why you crazy, mixed-up kids."

Council Wants To Know

Do People Want Outside Tax Survey?

City councilmen would like to know if the citizens of Tecumseh want an outside, independent source to re-assess the city.

This is what Mayor H. H. Hanna Monday night told a group of young men who raised questions on the local tax structure as it is related to the state equalized tax formula.

The men were Douglas Murdoch and Donald Brazee of the Tecumseh Public Schools, Robert Williamson, Theodore Glauser and Jack Osburn.

They also wanted to know if the nine candidates in the April 4 election were going to take a stand on the local tax structure as it relates to the state equalized.

Mayor Hanna said he did not think the tax question should be a political one. He pointed out that John Saling, city assessor, should be given independent action in his assessing of the city and that the council has no "political right" to tell the assessor how to assess or how much.

"Members of the council are not opposed to an outside source assessing the city, but we would like to know first if the people want this done."

The mayor added: "After the board of review meets maybe some of them will want it."

The board of review—Fred Dickinson, Sr., Al Hammond, and Ernie Campbell—meets next Monday to accept and possibly correct the tax roll.

Assessor Saling has an unofficial assessed valuation of "$9,000,000 plus" to give to the board. "I haven't run a tape on it yet," he said, "but it will be over $9,000,000."

Monday, March 28, aggrieved taxpayers will have the opportunity to discuss their individual tax assessments with the board.

The new assessed valuation is roughly a million more than the present assessed valuation of $8,073,400 and if unchanged by board of review action becomes the city's assessed valuation for 1955.

The new assessed figure is, however, far below what the state says it should be. The state tax commission claims Tecumseh's valuation should be $20,951,370. The new figure, if unchanged, is still about nine per cent below the county's ual tax assessments with the board.

Currently Tecumseh with 38.53 per cent has the lowest state equalized valuation of the county's four cities.

Mayor Pro-Tem R. H. Moore said he thought the Jaycees (all but Mr. Glauser attending the council meeting Monday are members of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce) might promote interest in the proposed survey by carrying it to the people. He said then it would be possible to have a straw vote on the people's wishes Monday, April 4, when voters will vote for state officers and for five councilmen and a justice of the peace.

Mr. Brazee thought "this will not allow us enough selling time."

Mr. Glauser agreed. "It took me quite a while to sell myself," he said. "Afterall, you may be asking folks to raise their own taxes and this will take some explaining."

Mr. Murdoch pointed out that by using the state equalized formula the present 13-mill school bond issue could be paid off in a year and a-half.

He pointed out that the city also would benefit from the use of the state equalized formula.

Mayor Pro-Tem Moore said councilmen would be glad to sit on any public panel further to discuss the tax problem and he said the city could get resource help from the Michigan Municipal League.

For a large part of the discussion only real estate was considered.

Mr. Osburn finally said "We'll have to sell this idea to everybody — not just home owners but to industry and business, too."

He thought a retail value on homes might help in determining equitable tax rates.

Mr. Glauser thought "Most will go along if they know they will not be paying more than their fair share of the taxes."

Ridgeway Twp. Supervisor Raynor J. Benedict Dies

Raynor J. Benedict, 73 years old, former mayor of Britton and supervisor from Ridgeway township for the last eight years, died Friday at Herrick Memorial hospital, where he had been a patient for four weeks. Mr. Benedict had been in failing health for the last three years.

He was born Aug. 29, 1881, on a farm in Tecumseh township and spent all of his life in Lenawee county. He attended Tecumseh high school and the Raisin Valley Seminary.

In 1906 he married Dora Exelby of Britton.

For 20 years he was engaged in farming and for two years he operated a restaurant in Britton.

He served a number of terms as Ridgeway township treasurer in addition to his other public offices.

Mr. Benedict was a member of the Congregational - Christian church in Britton and recently received his life membership in the Tecumseh Masonic lodge. He was chairman of the clerk's accounts committee of the board of supervisors.

Besides his widow, Dora, he is survived by two sons, Gerald and Charles, both of Britton and five grandchildren. His parents, Charles and Mary Boyce Benedict and a brother Leon preceded him in death.

The funeral was held Monday from the Niblack Funeral Home with the Rev. O. E. Priest officiating. Burial was in Brookside Cemetery, Tecumseh, with a Masonic service at the grave.

Pallbearers were Elmer Eberhardt, Carl Auten, Charles Patterson, Lawrence Hoagland, William Kuster and Russell Spaulding.

Britton Votes On Charter Next Monday

The Village of Britton will vote Monday on a proposed change in the village charter.

The amendments to be voted on concern the council's authorization to contract for the sale and delivery of water outside the village limits.

The amendment also states that the council will be authorized to prescribe the terms of the water sale.

Rotary Club Will Sponsor Hypnosis Program

A lecture and demonstration on hypnotism will be given Saturday night, March 19, at 7:30 in the Tecumseh High School gym, by James L. Walters, hypnotist and educator.

His program here is sponsored by the Tecumseh Rotary Club. Proceeds from the show will go for the club's youth activities program. Specifically, they will go for the glass bank boards the club bought for the new gym.

Mr. Walters, who comes highly recommended by educators throughout the country, will discuss how hypnosis is used in treating mental patients, and how it is used in alleviating pain in operations and in dentistry.

His program, called "The Artificial Sleep" also will provide a demonstration of how hypnosis works on people and how people may react under hypnosis.

Tickets for the program may be purchased from members of the Rotary Club, in the Elmer Eberhardt Insurance Agency or at the Tecumseh HERALD.

Two Fined On Traffic Charges

Two local men were sentenced in Justice John Lowe's court Monday.

Louis F. German was sentenced to pay a fine and costs of $33.60 or spend 15 days in jail.

German was charged with leaving the scene of a property damage accident Sunday in Adrian township.

Arrested by sheriff's officers, German is charged with hitting a car driven by Ellsworth L. Koebbe of near Tecumseh.

Dewey Turner, 20 years old, was sentenced to pay a fine and costs of $108.60, to spend ten days in jail and was placed on 60 days probation.

Turner was charged with reckless driving. He was arrested by sheriff's officers on M-34 in Dover township Saturday.

ROTARY DISTRICT CONFERENCE PLANNED

Members of the Tecumseh Rotary Club have been invited to attend the 223rd District Conference of Rotary at Windsor, Ontario, Sunday and Monday, March 20 and 21.

Reservation for the conference are being booked by Vern Manwaring of the local club.

BONUS

Application blanks for Michigan's Korean Bonus will soon be available at the local American Legion Post for the use of Korean veterans.

The state organization of the Legion has set up a program whereby veterans may obtain their applications at their nearest Post. Printing of the forms awaited the passage of an enabling act by the State Legislature and they are not yet ready.

Michigan has about 250,000 Korean veterans in 83 counties and as there are 518 Legion Posts in the state it will be convenient for the men to pick up their blanks from Legion Posts.

Local men who are eligible should get in touch with officers of Underwood-Orr Post No. 34.

Ray White Named Country Club Mgr.

Ray White, Jr. has been appointed manager of the Tecumseh Country Club. He began his duties March 6.

Mr. White is a graduate of the Michigan State College School of Business and Public Service, Division of Hotel, Restaurant and General Institutional Management.

He and Mrs. White, who is also a Michigan State graduate, are now in residence at the club.

Conservation League Notes National Wildlife Week

The Tecumseh Conservation League has scheduled Ralph Bailey, district game supervisor from Jackson, to speak at the league's meeting tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m.

The meeting will be held in Spaulding School, two miles north, one mile west and one-half mile north of Billington's Corners.

Mr. Bailey will discuss phases of conservation pertinent to the season and he will show a new deer film.

The local league currently has 100 members. They have bought 80 acres of ground near Spauding School. Members plan to build an archery course, rifle range and pistol range. The site also will have trap shooting facilities and a skeet field.

The Tecumseh Conservation League has joined the State Wildlife Federation and the National Wildlife Federation this week in focusing public attention on Conservation problems. This week has been designated National Wildlife Week.

League president Frank Lasky said special emphasis is being placed this year on the value of marshlands, swamps and other "wetlands" and the question of where drainage and destruction of such areas should stop.

FRANK GREGORY IS NEW POLICEMAN

Frank Gregory is a new member of the Tecumseh Police Department, succeeding Oliver Heberlein who resigned.

Mr. Gregory formerly was with the Sylvania, Ohio, Police Department and also served in the Lucas County, Ohio, Sheriff's Department. He has had six years of experience.

Mr. Gregory is married and he is the father of two children.

MAY BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT

David E. May, 46 years old, of Pontiac, a truck driver, was examined before Justice L. J. Van Deusen in Clinton Saturday on a charge of felonious assault.

His bond was set at $5,000 and he was bound over to circuit court.

May was arrested by Clinton post state police Jan. 29 after a young Tecumseh girl rushed into a restaurant and told troopers of having been threatened with a knife as she was walking home.

Damages Total $700 In Wreck

A car driven by Harlie O. Lamson of Tecumseh crashed into a sports car driven by Joseph E. Layton Tuesday morning about 11:45 at the corner of Pottawatamie and Evans.

The Layton car was traveling north on Evans.

Damages to the Lamson car were estimated at $200 and damages to the Layton car were estimated at $500.

Lamson was given a summons for failing to yield the right of way and another one for not wearing corrective glasses while driving.

GIVING AN ENCYCLOPEDIA—Russell Garno, Governor of District 4, National Exchange, and member of the Tecumseh Exchange Club, presented Boysville a set of Brittanica Junior last Thursday. Shown accepting the gift for the school library is Brother Dominic while students Charles Felek and Gerald Root inspect the new books. The presentation, made in cooperation with the publishing company, was part of the National Exchange's youth activities program. Also attending were Owen Partridge, president of the Tecumseh Exchange Club, and Brother Hilarion, Boysville director.

11 Tecumseh High School Students Win Scholastic Writing Awards

LECTURER — Robert Mills Donihi, international lawyer, lecturer and diplomat, spoke at a general assembly of Tecumseh High School Tuesday.

He was trial prosecutor for the Tojo case in Japan and he tried Nazi war criminals in Europe. He also served as legal and policy adviser in Military Government after World War II in Germany.

Discussing the pattern of Communist subversion, he also related several experiences.

Mr. Donihi, presently working on a book, is associated with the Houston Chronicle, Houston, Texas, as a feature writer and international news analyst.

His address here was sponsored by the student council.

SINGS IN OPERA

Martha Hayden, daughter of Mrs. Perry Hayden, will sing the part of Cherubino in Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro" at Taylor University, Upland, Indiana, Friday, March 11.

BAND BOOSTERS WILL HOLD BENEFIT

The annual Clinton Band Boosters' Club dinner and program will be held in the Clinton High School gym next Monday night, March 14, at 7 p.m.

After the ham dinner served country style, the band will present a concert and the chorus will sing.

Tecumseh High School made an exceptionally good showing this year in the Southeastern Michigan Scholastic Writing Awards, a project sponsored every year by The Detroit News and the Scholastic Magazine.

This is not a contest, but rather an effort to give recognition to students in grades seven through 12 who have done outstanding writing in regular classroom assignments. With interest in this project increasing each year, competition has become very keen. English teachers in Southeastern Michigan sent in nearly 7000 manuscripts for judging. Tecumseh High School won 11 awards, including five gold keys, which represent the highest award given.

These awards will be presented by The Detroit News at a special program in the Rackham Educational Memorial Building in Detroit April 27.

The following students received awards:

ROGER BUSCHE — twelfth grade—autobiographical sketch—"An Adventure"—gold key.

JANE SMITH — twelfth grade—autobiographical sketch — "Act of Adoption"—gold key.

PHILIP STUTESMAN—twelfth grade—essay—"Women" — commendation.

MARILYN BAKER — tenth grade — essay — "Relaxing with Nature"—honorable mention.

GERALDINE HIRSCH — tenth grade — sketch — "A Blizzard on the Pass"—commendation.

LYNNE VAN WINKLE—tenth grade—sketch—"Claudia's Christmas"—honorable mention.

NANCY DINSE — ninth grade — essay — "Growing Up" — gold key.

COREEN MARSH — ninth grade—essay—"Brothers" — commendation.

ESTHER STUTESMAN—ninth grade—essay—"Foreign Missionary"—commendation.

MARY SEAGER — seventh grade—two essays—"The Charge of the Light Brigade"and "The Spider"—gold key for each.

DONKEYS

Sports fans are promised a night of hilarious fun next Monday when teams from the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce and the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce tangle in a donkey basketball game in Central School gym.

The action will get underway at 8 p.m. And between quarters Ralph Godfrey, owner of the donkeys, will present a trick mule act and before the main event he will present his new "Hobby Donkey Derby" in which local persons will ride mechanical donkeys.

The show here is sponsored by the junior chamber of commerce to raise funds for its youth activities program.

Jaycees have tickets.

Weather Has Been Hard On Streets

Ed Nelson, city manager, told councilmen Monday night that the bottom has dropped out of every gravel road in the city.

He added that city workmen have hauled gravel every day for two weeks and he believes that "the roads are under control now."

Winter weather has been particularly hard on the streets and several of them have some fairly large holes.

The city, the manager said, has bought a "considerable amount" of patching to plug these holes.

He recommended that the council buy a heavier roller "to get better results on our streets resurfacing."

TITLEY RETURNS HOME FROM HOSPITAL

LeRoy H. Titley who has been confined to Herrick Memorial hospital with a heart condition returned home Monday.

He still must remain fairly inactive for awhile.

Topical Fluoride Treatments Planned for School Children

A plan of topical application of fluoride to children's teeth will be carried on in Tecumseh this summer.

The proposed program is being worked out jointly between the Tecumseh Public Schools, St. Elizabeth Parochial School and the Lenawee County Health Department. It will be supervised by the Michigan Department of Health Dentistry.

The program has been in force in the county for the past four years. Last summer about 1000 children were treated.

The cleaning of teeth and application of flouride will be done in four treatments. Nominal fees will be charged.

Treatment centers will be set up in Patterson School.

The children eligible for the treatments are those now enrolled as beginners, second, fifth and eighth graders.

Applications for the treatments must be returned to the schools by Friday, March 11.

Serving on the committee with Earl L. Greene of the public schools and Sister Ann Xavier of the parochial school are Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Hugh Andrews and Mrs. Joseph Dziachan.

MORRICE

Tecumseh will exchange mayors May 16 with Morrice, a tiny town of some 600 in Shiawassee County as a feature of Michigan Week.

Morrice is about 20 miles northeast of Lansing.

Britton will exchange mayors with Stanton, the county seat of Montcalm County. Stanton has a population of 1123.

Mrs. John Ruesink Services Friday

Mrs. John Ruesink of Franklin township died Tuesday at 7:15 p.m. Born May 8, 1878 in Blenheim, Ontario, Mrs. Ruesink was the former Bertha Claus, daughter of the late James and Louise Story Claus.

She was a member of the Tipton Community church, Ladies Aid Society and of the Franklin Garden Club.

Mrs. Ruesink is survived by one son, Ralph Ruesink of Tipton; two daughters, Mrs. LeRoy Titley of Tecumseh and Mrs. Lester Baker of Adrian; eight grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Beatrice Douglas of Chatham, Ontario and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband in April 1954.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the Collins Funeral Home. The Rev. Gordon Blossom of Tipton will officiate and burial will be in the Tipton cemetery.

Concert Of Sacred Music Is Sunday

Special observance of the Lenten season at the Baptist church will include a concert program of appropriate music Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Chancel Choir and the Crusaders, two choirs from the Ashland Ave. Baptist church in Toledo, composed of nearly 45 voices will present the program of sacred music.

They are directed by William S. Hazard, who several years ago was choir director of the Tecumseh church and who is well remembered here. Mr. Hazard has had much successful experience as a director and on several occasions has conducted the Toledo Civic Chorus.

The choir of the Tecumseh church will join in part of the program.

March 16 there will be a church family night in the Youth House with a planned potluck supper at 6:30 which will be followed by a talent show and Lenten fellowship.

A father and son banquet is being planned for March 28 with an outstanding speaker.

Sunday morning services during Lent are featuring sermons based on the Book of John.

BUYS ANGUS COWS

Lester Handy of Tecumseh, recently purchased two purebred Aberdeen-Angus cows from Hartrick & Travis of Hudson.

Worship Services Begin Girl Scout Week Observance

The Brownies and Girl Scouts of Tecumseh began the observance of National Girl Scout Week last Sunday by attending the worship services in their own churches.

Many of the ministers inspired the girls to become good citizens by devoting a few minutes to the importance of the Girl Scout program in relation to the church, community and nation.

During the week, each troop will emphasize the meaning of the special days in its meeting such as Home-Making Day, Citizenship, Health and Safety, International Friendship, Arts and Crafts, Out-of-doors and Girl Scouts' Birthday.

Several troops are serving birthday cake and sending birthday greetings to the Juliette Low birthplace in Savannah, Ga., which is being restored by the scouts across the nation in memory of their founder, who organized the first troop of scouts in the United States 43 years ago.

The window display in the Rosacrans store has been prepared by Troop 5 with Mrs. Victor Lawson as leader.

Girl Scout Week will close with a Brownies and Girl Scouts own Vesper service on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in the Tecumseh Presbyterian church. The service is being planned by the senior Scouts with all participating. All leaders, assistant leaders committeemen and women and officers of the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association have been asked to be present.

Brownies and Scouts will sit together during the service. Parents, relatives, and friends are invited to attend this service which is held but once a year. Boy Scouts and Cubs are also invited to be present and in uniform, if they wish.

WANT TO TRAVEL?

The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce has available without charge travel folders and materials from most of the states and some materials from other countries.

Those interested may contact Mrs. Earl Pennington, chamber secretary, at the chamber of commerce office.

RESOLUTION

Meeting of the Village Council of the Village of Britton, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, held on the 7th day of March 1955.

Present: Mayor Wallace, Councilmen Douglas Fairbanks, Charles Fairbanks, Lewis, Luegge, Brown and Lorenz.

Absent: None.

The following preamble and resolution was offered by Councilman Luegge and supported by Councilman Douglas Fairbanks.

WHEREAS, on the 20th day of December 1954 a proposal was introduced in this Council to amend the charter of the village in the manner recited hereafter, and

WHEREAS, Said proposed amendment was laid on the table for thirty days, and was published in the Tecumseh Herald; and

WHEREAS, Said amendment has been approved by the Governor, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by a two-thirds vote of its members-elect, that the Village Council of the Village of Britton does hereby, pursuant to the authority granted by Act 278 of 1909, as amended, propose the following amendments for submission to the voters of the Village of Britton for adoption or rejection:

(m) "The Council shall hereby be authorized to enter into any contract or contracts for the delivery and sale of water without the corporate limits of the Village and shall prescribe such terms and conditions in any such contract as shall be agreed upon."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That on the 14th day of March 1955 is hereby designated as the date for holding the election on this question, and that the Village Clerk do and perform all acts required by law relative to the giving of notice of such election and of the registration of electors therefor, and shall make all necessary arrangements for the registration of electors for said election and for the holding of said election, and that he cause to be printed blank paper ballots for the use of the electors at said election which shall be substantially in the following form:

INSTRUCTIONS: A cross (X) in the square ( ) before the word "Yes" is in favor of the proposed amendment to the Village Charter, and a cross (X) in the square ( ) before the word "No" is against the proposed amendment.

Before leaving the booth, fold the ballot so that the initials of the inspector may be seen on the outside.

Birthdays Honored

Mrs. William P. Snook marked the fourth birthday of her daughter Judith by entertaining 10 boys and girls Friday afternoon. They enjoyed refreshments which featured a pink decorated birthday cake and favors for each little guest. They were Mary and Michael Mudgett, Michael Jacobs, Bobby Neilson, Charles Gillies, Beth Frownfelder, Linda Lask, Paul Valendra, Jamie Danforth and Judith Ann.

Seeventeen boys from the first grade of Central school were guests of Douglas Gillies Monday when his mother Mrs. Ben Gillies entertained them from 5 to 7 p.m. and served a birthday supper. Decorations were in the theme of the wild west, with cowboys and Indians and the individual cakes were topped by cowboys. Prizes won in the games were awarded to Gary Maynard, Lee Hannibal, Larry Kiser and Billy Hadley. The guests brought Douglas many gifts. Douglas' five year old brother Charles entertained 15 of his little neighbors recently on the occasion of his fifth birthday.

Eight little playmates of Larry Koons of West Pottawatamie street helped him celebrate his seventh birthday last Saturday. The guests were Linda Brazee, Sharon Koons, Chucky Randolph, Timmie Dickinson, Glenn Barton, Ricky Brighton and Tommy and Dicky Koons. Games were the entertainment of the afternoon and first prize was won by Chucky Randolph, second by Linda Brazee and consolation by Ricky Brighton.

The house was decorated with streamers in gold and white and colorful balloons and refreshments were pink punch and potato chips served with a birthday cake in the form of a baby lamb, which was decorated with coconut and seven lighted candles.

Jimmie Newell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newell was nine years old Monday and his mother invited 18 of his friends for a 5:30 birthday supper. The table was decorated in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. There were favors for the guests and game prizes were won by Craig Rosacrans, Richard Cobb, Christine Solarski and Terry Haughn.

NURSES TO MEET

Thursday evening, March 10 Herrick Memorial hospital nurses will entertain the Lenawee District Nurses Association at a 6:30 dinner meeting at the Parish House of St. Peter's church. Speaker of the evening will be Dr. Bernhard Steinberg, laboratory director for Herrick Memorial hospital, whose home is in Toledo.

EASTERN STAR

Officers of Tecumseh Chapter, Order of Eastern Star will open the chapter Monday, March 14 at 2:30 p.m. Officers are to wear street clothes for opening.

Mrs. Emma Dibble Buried Saturday

Mrs. Emma Dibble, 74, of Tipton, died last Thursday morning at Herrick Memorial hospital, where she had been a patient since Monday.

She was born in Milan township, Monroe county, and had lived most of her life in the Britton and Ridgeway area.

Surviving are two sons, Marshall Dibble of Seattle, Wash., and Clayton Dibble of Cement City; one daughter, Mrs. LaVere Dibble of Tipton; two step-sons, Ralph Dibble of Tecumseh and Roy Dibble of Ann Arbor; one step-daughter, Mrs. Margaret Rogalski of Saginaw; one brother, Henry Loyd of Ridgeway and 17 grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, George Dibble and three children.

Funeral services were held in the Niblack Funeral Home in Britton Saturday at 2 p.m. with B. J. Beasley officiating. Burial was in the Ridgeway cemetery. The pallbearers were Charles Anspack, Babe Roby, William Kuster and Everett Exelby.

PRESBYTERIAN LEAGUE

A "Make It and Take It" bazaar formed the program for the March 1 meeting of the Presbyterian League at the home of Mrs. Cora Pfaus. It was in charge of Mrs. John Quigley. The president, Mrs. Robert Reis conducted the business meeting and devotions were led by Mrs. Irene Finegan. The hostess served refreshments after the bazaar with the help of Mrs. K. D. Hall, Mrs. Alice Price, Mrs. Ruth VanVleet and Mrs. Ernest Brandt.

STUDENT NURSES TRAIN AT HERRICK HOSPITAL

Following a program which has been established for several years, a group of young ladies from the College of Nursing of Wayne University in Detroit began their senior experience at Herrick Memorial hospital this week.

They are Miss Doris Duryee, Miss Judith Tracey, Miss Thelma Beattie, Miss Joyce Robinson and Miss Carol Stynes.

THE FORWARD LOOK

TOP CAR...TOP SIX of the low-price 3!
BIGGEST SIZE, SMOOTHEST PERFORMANCE, HIGHEST ECONOMY

Take a turn at the wheel behind Plymouth's new PowerFlow 117 engine—see why it's the smoothest, thriftiest 6 in the lowest-price field. Here's power for all driving needs, plus the super-smoothness of the PowerFlow's Chrome-Sealed Action. No other low-price car has it, and it's your guarantee of more years of gas-saving economy and trouble-free performance.

Taxicab operators, who depend on cars for a living, buy more PowerFlow 6's than all other makes combined . . . they say the PowerFlow 117 is the most economical, most efficient 6 ever built! Its L-head design means fewer working parts, less friction. Its automatic choke meters each drop of fuel. Its bypass cooling system gives you quick warm-up in cold weather; dozens of other exclusive features promise you much lower operating expense.

The PowerFlow 117 engine is one big reason why the big swing this year is to the forward-looking Plymouth. Another is the new 167-hp Hy-Fire engine, the most powerful standard V-8 in Plymouth's field. Plan to drive a big, beautiful Plymouth with either of these two great powerplants soon—how about today?

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

A FAT SAUCY ROBIN was prancing in the yard of Maurice Miller, 213 south Oneida, early Saturday morning. Well, it actually was not too early for a robin. For the record it was 9:51 a.m.

ANOTHER SURE SIGN OF SPRING was seen at 4:44 p.m. Thursday when a group of kids on roller skates rolled past the HERALD office.

STILL ANOTHER SIGN was seen when a fat muskrat was reported in various parts of the city. Supervisor W. G. Waldron breathlessly reported seeing the rat ambling toward the First Baptist Church. The supervisor thought maybe the rat was going to get baptized. The same furry creature was seen by another party up on Van Buren street and another reported seeing it coming out of Jim Beardsley's office (honest Injun') where if might have gotten some legal advice on property in Evans Creek or on one of the pond homes around here. And another party saw the muskrat shopping down town Friday afternoon. And everybody concerned swore that they actually did see one. Well . . . .

INCIDENTALLY, THERE'S A swell little fellow up on west Brown that is quite a trapper of muskrats. His name is Johnnnie Le Baron and he hopes one day to become a full-fledged hunter and trapper. Johnny already has gotten a number of the fur-bearing animals.

DID YOU KNOW THAT MUSKRATS are good to eat? During the rough days of the depression they furnished a number of dining tables with rich meat. We cooked them in a tomato sauce and they were delicious.

GRANDMOTHERS ARE THE PROUDEST creatures and one of the proudest in the business of being a grandmother is Mrs. Elmer Burleson in the Lad & Lassie Shop. Her daughter Donna dropped in with seven-week-old Lou Ann and grandma practically ate the baby alive. I have never seen such adoration. And Mrs. Lucy Lawton, owner of the store, ran a close second. It's no wonder, though, because Lou Ann is really a sweet little tike. When she came is she needed a triangular garment that is peculiar to babies' wardrobes. She came to the right place since the store has a complete baby department.

ANOTHER PAIR OF GRANDPARENTS are bursting with pride. And rightly so. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keller of the Freez-It Lockers have received word that their granddaughter Colleen Griffin, 14, of Lockport, N. Y., represented her school North Park at Valley Forge, Philadelphia. She went to the Freedom Foundations pilgrimage to receive the George Washington Honor Medal awarded to her school for its program of helping students acquire a knowledge of the American way of life. It was the third straight year that her school received the top award. Miss Griffin, daughter of the Kellers' daughter Violet, was given the honor of representing her school because of her many activities and because of her superior scholarship. She is president of the ninth grade council, the all-school council, plays in the band and orchestra, is a staffer on the school paper "The Pioneer" and last year received an American Legion award for her essay on history. This is indeed an honor and I know why the Kellers are bursting with pride.

MRS. HELEN FRENCH last week quietly observed her twentieth year in Tecumseh business. Many happy returns and many more!

MR. AND MRS. MARVIN BACON, who moved Sunday from Iron Creek Mill pond to a new home on Rogers Highway had an unexpected housewarming. Mr. Bacon had returned to Iron Creek after unloading the furniture when he was hurriedly summoned to rush Mrs. Bacon to Herrick Memorial hospital, where a 5 lb. 9 oz. son was born. Mrs. Bacon is the daughter of Mrs. Roy Cadmus and the Bacons have moved to the home of her grandmother, Mrs. George Finnegan.

Tax Expert To Give Help To Taxpayers

Wednesday, March 16, Douglas Kraner, representing the Michigan Department of Revenue, will be at the United Savings Bank between the hours of 9 a.m. o 3 p.m. for the purpose of assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their intangibles tax returns due not later than March 31.

Intangible personal property subject to the tax includes all mortgages, land contracts, bank accounts, cash, postal savings accounts, accounts and notes receivable, corporate stocks, corporate bonds and other similar types of property. However, all United States bonds, are exempt from the tax, and the tax on deposits in Michigan banks and building and loan associations, as well as stocks in Michigan banks, will be paid to the Department of Revenue directly by the banks or building and loan associations.

Under the present law as amended by the Legislature in 1945, all Corporate Stocks are 100 per cent taxable including Michigan Corporations.

In addition to assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their returns, Mr. Kraner will also be glad to advise any person concerning his liability, if any, under the Intangibles Tax Act.

MANNHEIM—BOYCE

Anna Madeline Boyce, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Boyce and niece of Mrs. B. J. Rector, former residents of Tecumseh, and Wallace Lowell Mannheim were united in marriage Sunday, Feb. 20, in San Francisco. Mr. Mannheim is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Mannheim, residents of San Francisco since 1880. The ceremony took place in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church at 4 p.m. and was performed by Dr. John H. Coyghton, pastor of the church, who used the Henry VanDyke service.

The best man and matron of honor were Judge and Mrs. Frederick B. Wood of Berkley, also former Tecumseh residents. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the East Room of the church for one hundred relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Mannheim are living at 1242 Polk St., San Francisco.

MRS. WOOD ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Luther Wood entertained the B.P.C.P.S.C. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Erwin Buss Wednesday evening, March 2. Co-hostesses were Mrs. George Green Sr. and Mrs. Malcolm Mathews.

Fifteen were present and the business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Cecile Smith. There were reports on the traveling basket, on the secret pals and on the quilt project of which Mrs. Green is chairman.

Roll call was answered by household hints and tables were arranged for games after the meeting. Prizes were won by Mrs. John Stephens, Mrs. Lewis Schultz, Mrs. Edna Staulter and Mrs. Matthews. The hostesses then served refreshments that were in keeping with the St. Patrick season from tables decorated in the same theme.

The April meeting will be with Mrs. Elizabeth Freer, assisted by Prudence Strawe and Mrs. John Stephens.

SUPT. McDOWELL SPEAKS TO WIT-WISDOM CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson opened their home Monday evening to the members of the Wit and Wisdom Club. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon.

A short business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. John Lott, during which Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw, chairman of arrangements for the spring banquet, announced that the annual event would be held in the Parish House of St. Peter's Church.

A nominating committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins, Mrs. Fred Rector and Miss Marjorie Wickwire will report at the April meeting.

Because of the illness of a member of the high school debating team, the scheduled program had to be cancelled and the leader, James McDowell told the club instead of the present conditions and problems of Tecumseh's school system. After outlining the needs that he considers inevitable due to future growth of the community and expansion of the population, he discussed the need for increased funds in relation to the proposed reassessment of property values in regard to taxation. A lively discussion period followed.

The hosts served refreshments in the theme of St. Patrick's Day.

Mrs. Hoyt Whelan will entertain the club April 4, which will be president's night.

Dundee Beats Indians In Tournament

O'Lone Stars For Vikings In 59-43 Win

Bowing out of the first class "B" state basektball tournament game held in the Tecumseh High School gym last Thursday, the Tecumseh High School Indians were given a lesson in the artistry of long shots as the Dundee Vikings knocked off the local five, 59-43.

The Vikings, led by the courageous L. O'Lone, who came back after suffering a recurrent leg injury, could not be stopped on their long shots in the second quarter during which time they dipped 11 of 17 attempted shots and garnered a brace of charity tosses for 24 points.

The Vikings did not have to resort to lay-up shots. They shot from anywhere. Particularly devastating were O'Lone and R. LaMonde. O'Lone hit eight field goals and LaMonde made six.

If the second period could be deleted from the game Tecumseh fared well; but the Indians still would not have won.

After Marv Yoakum dipped a long one at the beginning, Ken Miller hit for a brace of goals and Val Spangler hit one and Ken and Earl Drumonds added a pair of charity tosses while O'Lone sank a couple of long ones and LaMonde added a field goal with Busch's charity toss to give Tecumseh a 12-7 first quarter lead.

Then the roof caved in. Led by O'Lone with four baskets, the Vikings also were helped in their production by Dean with three, LaMonde with two and one each from Busch and Popelar. O'Lone and Popelar also added a free toss each to the 24-point total.

Meanwhile, the Indians shot 15 times but made only three baskets, all by Marv Yoakum. Drummonds added a charity toss and Tom Neitling dipped a pair to help the nine-point total.

The Indians outscored the Vikings in the third period 14-10. Yoakum hit two more field goals. Drummonds, who really got up on the boards, added a trio of goals and Jerry Barton hit one. Ken Miller, definitely off on his shooting, added a pair of free throws. Miller, the high-scoring forward who completed league play in the second place in the scoring race, couldn't hit after his first two baskets in the first quarter.

The Vikings in the third took 17 shots and hit on four. Popelar netted one, LaMonde had two and Wenzel, subbing for the injured O'Lone, hit a single. Dean added a brace of free throws.

O'Lone re-injured his knee (he had a bandage around his leg at the beginning of the game) when he collided with an Indian. The third quarter was half gone when he went to the sidelines to have the leg worked on. He was sorely missed by the Vikings.

Tecumseh picked up four points in this period and at the beginning of the final quarter they were shy six points with the Vikings leading, 41-35.

O'Lone came back in the final minute of the quarter and rallied his team with his leadership and shooting ability, both from the floor and from the free throw line.

In the final period the spunky little forward dipped two field goals—both long ones—and sank five of five free throws. Dean and LaMonde added one goal each and Dean also sank five of five charity tosses.

The Indians could do little in the final period. They had buckets by Yoakum, Dickinson, Drummonds and Spangler and that was it. They dropped 10 more points behind in the final frame and Dundee had the game.

This sports reporter has seen a lot of basketball played but he can't remember a finer, all-around player and a more courageous player than Viking O'Lone. There was no question that he would end up with scoring honors. He had eight field goals and six free throws for 22 points. Other Vikings who hit double figures were Dean with 15 and LaMonde with 12.

Rugged Marv Yoakum with seven field goals led the Indians with 14. Drummonds hit four field goals and three gift tosses for 11 and Miller had two buckets and four free throws for 8.

The loss ended Tecumseh's basketball play for the season.

Tories Knocked Out of Tourney By Deerfield

Britton-Macon Tories were knocked out of the class "D" state basketball tournament Friday night, losing to Deerfield, 81-62.

Deerfield, taking a 17-14 first quarter lead, was never headed. The Minute Men led 39-30 at intermission and 58-32 at the completion of the third period.

Tom Bruce, star Tory center who captured the scoring crown in regular play of the Little Six conference, put on a dazzling scoring exhibition by sinking seven field goals and 18 charity tosses for a total of 32 points.

His teammate Al Barrett had seven field goals and six free throws for 20 points.

Leading the Minute Men in scoring were Bob Diver with 22 points. Others who scored in double figures were Jim Iott with 19 and Leo Forche with 16.

Boysville Knocked Out of Tournament by Saline, 70-46

Boysville was knocked out of the state class "C" basketball tournament on the opening night, losing to Saline, 70-46.

The Fighting Knights were behind only four points at the end of the first period, but were down 15 points at intermission.

And they faded in the third period picking up six points while Saline garnered 20.

Boysville outscored the Washtenaw County team 14-9 in the final period but the damage already was done.

The Knights could not hold Si Woods, all Saline forward, who racked up 26 points on 10 field goals and six charity tosses.

Boysville's leading scorers Joe and John Murray were held to a total of 18 points between them. Joe got 15 on six field goals and three charity tosses and John three on one field goal and a free throw.

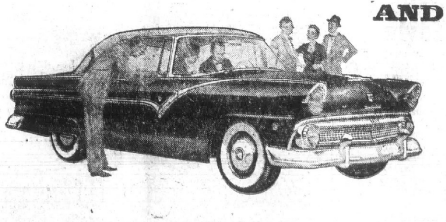
MORE PEOPLE BOUGHT FORD CARS IN 1954 than any other make!

Ford passenger-car sales to customers outnumbered those of any other make by thousands*

AND IT'S EASY TO SEE WHY!



Ford is the leader in styling

Motorists know that Ford has set the style trend in the industry for years. And now, with styling inspired by the fabulous Thunderbird, Ford is farther out front than ever!

Ford is the leader in V-8 power

Ford was first in its field (by 23 years) to provide the advantages of V-8 power. Since that time, Ford has built over 14,000,000 V-8 engines—more than all other makers combined! For 1955, Ford offers two new and mighty V-8's, as well as a most modern Six—all with the split-second response of Trigger-Torque power!

Ford is the leader in ride

Ford was first in its field to introduce Ball-Joint Front Suspension—the greatest advance in chassis design in 20 years. And, for '55, it's even better. Springs are set at an angle to smooth out even the tiniest bumps. It's the new Ford Angle-Poised Ride.

FORD IS THE LEADER IN ALL THE FEATURES THAT MAKE YOUR CAR WORTH MORE WHEN YOU BUY IT · WORTH MORE WHEN YOU SELL IT

Attitudes Are Important

Why is it that too many persons think only of winning when they begin to discuss athletics? Is this stress on the over emphasized importance of victory a product of our materialistic culture? And does it stem more from those who sit and watch or from those who do the actual participating?

These are but a few of the many questions that have plagued us since we have been covering Tecumseh athletics.

They stemmed partly from the fact that some of the persons stressing the importance of victory have commented that Tecumseh High School coaches are at fault when the team loses.

It is recalled that for two years Indian gridders did not win a single football game. During this time there were those detractors who said Tecumseh could never win a football game so long as the team had its present coach. Yet, during all this time, we are told, the spirit of the Indian gridders never slackened. They took it on the chin for two straight years, yet never gave up.

The same detractors poured forth venom on the basketball coach and team when this season began and Tecumseh lost to class "C" Clinton, yet the detractors were silenced somewhat when the Indians went on to win their league championship and to end the season with a .500 record.

Sure it's fun to win. No coach in the business today and none of the players play to lose. Athletics don't work this way; life isn't like this.

But when a team loses it should lose graciously and so should the supporters of the team. It's not difficult to support a team when it's flying high and winning game after game; but when it has a losing streak it needs support.

Tecumseh High School players have learned to lose graciously and they have learned to win fairly and cleanly.

Too many persons lose sight of the most important aspect of interscholastic athletics. This is to help a student develop his body in recreation and to learn to get along with people—both players on his own team and with players on opposing teams. Call this what you will—it is an important aspect of character building that can be and should be carried out in athletics.

This part of the game, too often overlooked by the spectator, is taught through the attitudes of the Tecumseh High School coaches.

Years ago Leo Durocher, New York Giants baseball manager, made the classic remark "Nice guys don't win ball games."

All knockers to the contrary, Tecumseh High School has proved that nice guys can win ball games, even championships. We salute the coaches and the players for their fine attitudes, efforts and for their championship.

Are You Home With TB?

Nearly 3,000 persons with active tuberculosis are "at home" in Michigan communities, not isolated in sanatoriums, the Michigan Department of Health reported today.

Another estimated 3,800 Michigan people have the infectious disease unknown to themselves and unknown to health authorities.

State Health Commissioner, Dr. Albert E. Heustis, said these records warn of gaps in Michigan TB detection and patient services programs.

"Many persons, innocently unaware of their condition, are spreading tuberculosis," the doctor said. "Cases should be found earlier and we need to help the victims to total recovery. Otherwise, tuberculosis will cling to its rank as our number one communicable disease problem."

As an example of what can happen when TB spreads unsuspected, Dr. Heustis cited a case recently reported by the Lenawee County Health Department, in which a woman unknowingly passed TB to eight children in four different families.

The woman had been helping to care for children in the four homes. When a child in one of the families was found to have active tuberculosis, the Lenawee County Health Department promptly began to arrange for examinations for everyone close to the youngster.

Check-ups disclosed that the woman—hired by the family to help with the children—had advanced active TB without knowing it. Examinations of family members in other homes where the woman worked have so far resulted in the hospitalization of seven more children—making the total of eight cases from the four homes.

"Our objective is to stop such chain reactions before they start," Dr. Heustis added. "Reports showing more than 6,000 persons at home with active TB indicate how much remains ahead of us in TB control."

Realty Views

"The price you suggest," Mr. Markham said, "is not enough. I asked for your opinion as to what my property would sell for, but I didn't expect you to say about $10,000. I really had my sights on $12,000."

"I appreciate your frankness," I said, "but you have a right to expect equal frankness from me. There is no use kidding you—$12,000 is simply more than your house is worth on today's market."

"Let's list it at $12,000. I might come down later," Mr. Markham replied.

"I can't do that," I said. "It wouldn't be fair to either one of us. An unsalable price won't result in a salable listing. If you do want to sell, the most you can expect is present day market value. Prospects wouldn't ever look at your house at the $12,000 figure. It would be too obviously out of line.

"Mr. Markham," I asked, "do you want to merely list your property or do you really want to sell it?"

"Sell it," he said, "and I see now what you mean. I knew $12,900 was really too high. Let's put a salable price on it and MOVE it."

The price is important. You may want too much or even too little. The essential thing is to be sure it is "right." May we help you set a "fair" figure?

Services Held For Leon N. Withee

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Collins Funeral Home for Leon Norton Withee who died early last week in his trailer home in the Ferris Trailer park.

Mr. Withee had been away over the weekend and his death was not discovered until Wednesday evening when neighbors missed seeing him about his home.

He was born in Northville, Jan. 13, 1891, the son of Fred H. and Alta R. Withee and since coming to Tecumseh had been employed at the Products Co. His wife, Lenore, died last Oct. 13. He is survived by a brother Kenneth Withee of Hollydale, Calif. and a sister, Mrs. Norene Kruger of Detroit.

Funeral and burial services were conducted by the Rev. Horace James and burial was in Brookside cemetery. Mr. Withee was a member of the Tecumseh Fraternal Order of Eagles and fellow members, John Preston, Erle Raymond, Don Morley, John Gier, Adam Lowry and Verdi Skinner were bearers.

State's Driver of Year

A Detroit truck driver whose heroism saved the lives of two women trapped in a blazing automobile bears the accolade of Michigan's Driver of the Year.

So named is Floyd J. Pemberton, 33, 9591 Columbia Street, Redford Township, who was awarded his title at the Michigan Trucking Association's annual banquet honoring 12 Michigan truck drivers selected monthly for safe driving and road courtesy.

FLOYD PEMBERTON

Pemberton, a husky ex-marine, was picked from the 12 after judges read the details of his heroic act, performed last Christmas Eve.

A driver for Commercial Carriers, Inc., Pemberton was rolling his truck and semi-trailer over Highway 42 near Mason, Ohio, when he witnessed a head-on collision between two automobiles. The driver of one vehicle was thrown out and killed instantly. The second car, carrying two women, plunged into a ditch and burst into flames.

Pemberton halted his truck within a few yards of the blazing car and jumped out, carrying flares and a fire extinguisher. He flagged an oncoming motorist and instructed him to set out the flares. He stopped a second car and sent the driver rushing for medical aid and the police.

Dashing to the burning automobile, he doused the flames with the extinguisher, then grabbed for the door opposite the driver "whose screams," he says, "still wake me at night."

He tore the jammed door open, removed the driver, and carried her across the road, placing her on the tosed-out front seat of the car that had struck her. "Then I discovered," he recalls, "that her left foot was nearly severed."

The former marine, calling on the first-aid practice he had learned in combat in the Pacific, whipped out his handkerchief and knotted a turniquet about the injured woman's leg. Then he rushed back to the still-smoking automobile to aid the second victim.

By this time, a car from the Sheriff's Department was on hand, summoned by Pemberton's messenger. Grabbing a first-aid kit, Pemberton applied a gauze bandage to a gaping wound in the woman's chest, holding it in place until an ambulance arrived.

Dousing of the fire saved the lives of both women, and at least one would have died without his first aid, doctors said later. Both victims, employees of the Ford Motor Company at Ypsilanti, Mich., and now canvalescing in Lexington, Ky., hastened to add their congratulations for Pemberton's selection.

In a phone call from Lexington to the Michigan Trucking Association, Miss Dorothy Powell, speaking for herself and the still-hospitalized Elaine Cooper, said, 'Anything that can be done for that wonderful man is not enough. Our prayers are always with him."

Both sent telegrams of congratulations to Pemberton.

Preston L. Huband, Commercial Carriers' Director of Safety and Personnel, added a footnote to the Pemberton story. "Floyd didn't mention this in his trip report. We'd have probably never known about it if one of our drivers hadn't commented a week or so later that 'we ought to do something about Floyd' — he'd come by shortly afterward and been Floyd in action."

Commercial Carriers did "do something about Floyd," they gave him a check for $500. Additionally, at the banquet last night, Pemberton received the nation's highest driver award for heroism, the American Trucking Associations' Pro Meritis Medal; a $50 check from the Michigan Trucking Association as Dec. Driver of the Month; a $25 U. S. Savings Bond and a certificate of merit from Markel Service, Inc., an international truck and bus insurer—only the twelfth such certificate awarded by the famous company in 15 years — and a trophy, pen and pencil set from Ford dealer, Al Long.

The Navy requisitioned its first airplane on May 8, 1911. It was constructed of wood, canvas and bamboo and capable of flying at least 45 miles an hour.

PAST MATRONS HEAR OF CROSWELL SHOOL

Mrs. Dwight Hodges entertained the Past Matrons of the Order of Eastern Star in her home on S. Union St. last Wednesday evening. A potluck supper preceded the business meeting which was conducted by Mrs. Charles Driffill, president.

A public card party was planned for sometime in April with Mrs. Hodges as general chairman.

Mrs. Edna Kimball Wilcox, a teacher in the Croswell School in Adrian, spoke to the group on her work in the school and told of its foundations and aims.

Guests were Mrs. E. C. Dickinson who was made an honorary member, and Mrs. Clare Rozelle, Worthy Matron of the O.E.S.

Grade School News

Kindergarten—Patterson
Mrs. Updike

We are getting very anxious for spring to come and two new murals taht we made really look like it will soon be here. One picture has green grass, flowers starting to grow, cars on the road, buses and airplanes. Deborah Warren made a nice building and wrote "bank" on it. Michael Duffin made a beautiful flag to put on the top.

We have a number game that we like to play. Many of us can find the right number when Mrs. Updike asks for it. If we want to make sure that we are right we count the bells, the cups, or the birds.

We can make our own color charts, too, and write, in manuscript, the name of the color we have made.

One morning we were invited into the big gymnasium to watch some bigger children square dance. We had such a good time and its fun to try the dances that we saw.

Our favorite song, right now, is "Davey Crockett." Roger Hoag let us borrow the record and we like to sing all the verses. We hope that all of our mothers and fathers will come to school in the evening of March 17th. We are going to decide what kind of P.T.A. meetings we want to have for next year.

Kindergarten—Brownville
Miss Bugbee

Since you last heard from us we have had several visitors. They were Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Marine, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Reese, Mrs. Pence, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Hendricks, Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Aylesworth, Mrs. Cooley, Mrs. Gurtzweiler, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Collingsworth, and Mr. Cunkle. We always enjoy having our parents come to visit us to see us both at work and play.

We are really enjoying our workbooks, and try to do our best work. This will help us to get ready for first grade. We are doing many things to remind us of it. Most of us can tie our shoes, know when our birthdays are, where we live, and our telephone numbers. We can follow lines, find likenesses and differences, tell which words rhyme, and know the numbers from 1 to 10. We are also practicing to use good manners and healthy habits.

During the month of February we found out about Ground Hog Day, Lincoln's and Washington's birthday, and Valentines Day. We had a very nice Valentine party which our room mothers planned for us. Each one of us decorated our own paper sack to take them home in.

This month we are thinking about the Dutch people, making tulips and kites, and hoping that "Spring" will soon be here. Leslie Pence brought us some pretty bird pictures for our room. We are going to learn to identify them. We can recognize the cardinal because we have had fun watching them eat at our bird feeding station. The squirrels have also taken advantage of this.

We were, both surprised and happy to have Rosa Torres back with us. She moved to Texas last fall but decided she liked Michigan better.

Shelia Beatty brought some Mexican money to show us. Leslie Pence brought us a hyacinth plant which we are watching grow.

Joe Weaver and Stephen Sowers are both with us after having their tonsils removed. Diane Lake is back after having the measles.

Bobby Brown, David Reese, Francis Moras, and Jill Cunkle treated us to refreshments on their birthdays. Rickey Horton and Mickey Hartung also had February birthdays.

Grade One—Patterson
Mrs. Buttolph

Since last month many changes have been made here in our first grade room. Nathan Thompson has left us. He moved to Adrian and is now attending school there. This week Roger Brown from Britton joined us. We hope he enjoys being back in Tecumseh again. Many of us knew him because he was with us in kindergarten.

If you should visit our room you might wonder if you were in Ireland or Holland. We have been studying about the Irish and Dutch people and the back of our room shows what we have learned about Ireland and in the front we have a large Dutch frieze.

We surely are very proud of the way we can read, write, and spell. Some of us have finished Fun with Dick and Jane and are now ready for the last book for first grade. Our New Friends. Of course most of us know our numbers up to 100 and now we are having fun adding groups of things up to 10. One class we like most of all is gym. Once a week we put on our gym shoes and go into the big gym and play games and do dances.

Last Friday, Calvin Rickard went to the hospital and had his tonsils out. We hope he can soon be back in school again.

EXTENSION CLUB

(Last Week's Items)

The Ridgeway Extension Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Forstner with 12 members present. Mrs. Ethel Stuart reported helping the club's secret friends with cards and plants. Plans were completed for the community evening to be held March 18 at 8 p.m. with Miss Mary Katherine Rogers as guest speaker. The district tea which is to be an event of March 8 was discussed. The lesson, "Line in Dress" was given by Mrs. Gail Hall and Mrs. Wynne Matteson. Mrs. Chet Godzina won the mystery gift. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

W. S. C. S. MEETS

The W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church met Thursday with Mrs. Jane Bird. Mrs. Alice Landis is co-hostess. Program leader was Mrs. Jean Woodall.

Mrs. Guy Hamilton is confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Strong of Melvindale were in Ridgeway Saturday after calling on her uncle, Albert Pocklington of Onsted in celebration of his birthday.

Frank Bartle of Flint was a guest Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. William Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Crutchfield of Manchester and Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Baker of Clayton were recent guests of Mrs. Hattie Wood.

John East has returned home from Herrick Memorial hospital after undergoing surgery.

Mrs. Marie Pocklington is visiting her sister in Union City.

Dale Beach of Tecumseh visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Beach Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart have moved to Tecumseh from the Southard apartments in Ridgeway.

BIRTHDAY HONORED

Mrs. Ben Gillies, mother of five year old Charles Gillies, entertained 15 of his little neighbors Wednesday in honor of his birthday. The group enjoyed games and the prizes received by the winners and refreshments were served from a table in green and yellow which featured cowboy decorations. Charles received many gifts from his guests.

CHRISTIAN BUILDERS

At the Feb. meeting of the Christian Builders held at the home of Mrs. Robert Roadarmel, it was decided that the March project of the group would be a hot casserole sale. Details will be announced later.

Mrs. Wayne Patton assisted Mrs. Roadarmel and Mrs. Gerald Foote conducted the devotions for the meeting. Mrs. Richard Fielder will entertain the class March 30. She will be assisted by Mrs. Harlan Dicks.

The Builders expressed satisfaction over the success of the teenage dance they sponsored Feb. 26 in the gymnasium of the Central school building. One hundred and fifty of the young people of the community attended. Door prizes were won by Mary Hooten and Kendra Ringman. The gym was decorated by the Builders Class with blue streamers and silver stars and refreshments of punch and fancy cookies were served. Music was provided by the Products orchestra and entertainment was free of charge.

Mr. William Marko

Hamtramck auto worker says, "A bill for $400 didn't worry us!"

"Most families would probably have to dig into their savings to pay a $400 hospital bill," says Mr. Marko, "But I had a bill that size, and our savings didn't suffer at all, because my family has Blue Cross-Blue Shield. Under our Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract, I got all the hospital services I needed . . . over $400 worth, and they didn't cost me anything. We've got Blue Shield for doctor bills, too, and that covered $165 for our doctor's services. All I had to do was show my Blue Cross-Blue Shield card at the hospital, and benefits were paid automatically. I've never seen anything like it!"

Blue Cross-Blue Shield plans have been more successful than any other in gearing benefits to actual, current hospital and doctor charges. How important this realistic kind of protection is . . . when your family stands a 1-in-3 chance of facing a hospital bill within a year!

Find out how your family can have low-cost group coverage. A company with as few as 5 employees may qualify as a group. Today call or write: Blue Cross-Blue Shield

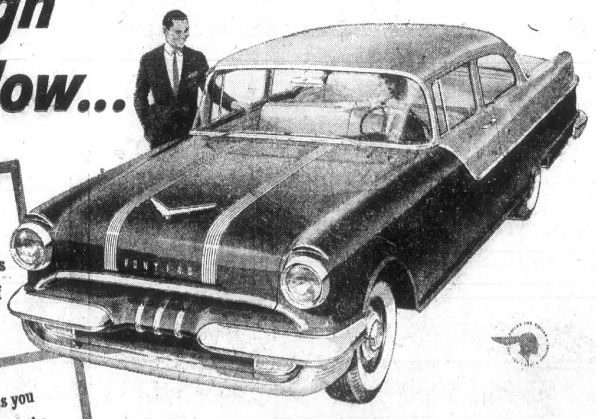
Look high and low...



1. You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars or stripped economy models of higher-priced makes!

2. Only Pontiac gives you luxury-car size plus the sensational Strato-Streak V-8!

Biggest car at its price (122" and 124" wheelbases) • Most powerful car at its price (180 horsepower) • Only car at any price with distinctive Vogue Two-Tone Styling and the riding and driving ease of the torsion-free, Shock-proof Chassis.

The most enthusiastic Pontiac owners are those who have taken this advice. They've looked the field over from top to bottom—and here's what they learned:

Pontiac is way up there with costly cars in wheelbase, roominess and riding ease. It's big and comfortable, yet handles with expensive sports car nimbleness. The exciting dash and compelling drive of the Strato-Streak V-8 produce the richest thrills in motoring. And Pontiac is America's most distinctive car in styling as in action.

Come in for the facts about this "all-time" value leader and our generous appraisal of your present car! Find out how little it takes to switch to modern motoring.

and you'll go Pontiac!

BIRTHDAY HONORED

Sixteen members of her Sunday school class of the Friends church pleasantly surprised Mrs. Nettie Gove last Thursday evening in celebration of her birthday anniversary. They brought refreshments of ice cream and cake and many lovely gifts for the honored guest. Friday, her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Gove, entertained at a birthday dinner for Mrs. Gove, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. Irving Gove, Mrs. Helena Brollier and Ernest Gove.

SARA REBECCA CIRCLE

Mrs. Raymond Seitz was hostess for the Feb. meeting of the Sara Rebecca Circle of the Methodist church Tuesday evening. The program leader was Mrs. James Stewart and Mrs. James Smith led the devotional period. Games and entertainment for the group were provided by Mrs. James Dick and refreshments were served by the hostess. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Taylor.

C of C Warns Beware of Foreign Jobs

Those with a yen to go to far places and make a fortune while doing it, are warned to be on the alert for advertisers who purport to have foreign jobs to offer but whose real interest lies in the sale of an alleged directory listing such jobs.

Mrs. Earl Pennington, secretary of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce said today that, according to information from the National Better Business Bureau, there has been increasing appearance of these "job-list" services, selling directories for a dollar or two, but masquerading as construction companies seeking skilled or semi-skilled workers for high paying jobs overseas.

"They attempt to place their ads in the "Help Wanted" columns," said Mrs. Pennington, "and the jobs sound marvelous. But construction workers who really know say that the salaries quoted are twice the actual rates paid and the number of jobs open is highly exaggerated. Furthermore, none of the jobs are open to laborers and unskilled workers. American companies overseas hire natives for such work."

As for the directories, in most cases investigated they have been found to be either obsolete, inaccurate, or only a restatement of information obtainable from the U. S. Government in a 15c pamphlet. The pamphlet is called "Federal Jobs Outside the Continental United States," and may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

There are instances Mrs. Pennington reported, where workers relying on directory information traveled long distances to find that the jobs they were applying for were listed without the company's consent, perhaps from newspaper advertisements clipped months before, and had been long since filled. To avoid being victimized by the foreign employment scheme, Mrs. Pennington advised local residents to investigate before investing in any proposition.

EAGLES ACTIVITIES

At a recent meeting of Chiefs Aerie No. 1563 F.O.E. it was decided to sponsor a boy, who will be picked from Tecumseh High School to attend the Wolverine Boys' State which will be held next June 18 to 25.

Last Sunday 35 members of the aerie and their wives attended the district meeting in Jackson. State and district trophies were awarded to the Tecumseh group for its attendance.

FAREWELL PARTY

A neighborhood party of about 30 gathered Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Gove on Matthews highway as a farewell for their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gove and son who are moving to a farm north of Clinton.

The group presented Mr. and Mrs. Gove with a double deck corner table and lamp. Refreshments were provided by the group and games were enjoyed under the supervision of Mrs. Vearl Osburn and Mrs. Russell Mitzner.

Non-Fat Milk Gives Needed Food Cheaper

Everyone needs his milk. A good way to get the right amount of milk nutrients in your diet is to use non-fat dry milk solids.

According to Michigan State College foods specialists, the two big advantages in using non-fat dry milk solids are these: First, the low cost enables more people to buy the essential food nutrients for less. And second, it reduces waste and gives more efficient use of the milk produced.

Dry milk may absorb moisture and become lumpy. To prevent this, keep it in a tightly closed container in a cool place. Warm temperatures tempt the development of off-flavors. Because of the low fat content, dry milk does not tend to become rancid fast, and should have good shelf life.

Dry milk solids usually do not have to be made into a fluid before using. Use the dry form by combining it with the other dry ingredients and adding the water as you would fluid milk. Some dishes require the fluid milk. When reconstituted, non-fat dry milk solids can be used exactly as fluid milk.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh
Uses His Head Saves His Feet

Nobody around here can remember when Pop Turner wasn't our town's postman. He must have been toting that big, heavy mail-sack since Pony Express days.

That's why it's sometimes a shock to see him these days pulling his mail bag around in a "caddy cart," a sort of light wagon that golfers use so they don't have to carry their clubs.

"Folks sometimes holler 'fore' at me and ask me how my game is," Pop reports, "but I'm not ashamed to learn something new. Just wish I'd thought about these golf gadgets years ago!"

From where I sit, it's good to see someone come up with a new wrinkle—keeps us from feeling too regimented. For instance, perhaps you've always felt that hot milk is the only thing to drink at bedtime. Then someday you meet a fellow who prefers a cold glass of beer. Well, that's his choice — and certainly he's entitled to it. We can't expect everyone to follow our old habits to the "letter."

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY
No wonder you see so many 1955 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" in total national sales.

Who says you can't have getaway and gas saving too?
(maybe you'd better try Variable Pitch Dynaflow*!)

As any automotive engineer will tell you, the goal in automatic transmissions has long been a design that would give top acceleration and top gas mileage—and still be absolutely smooth.

Well, it's easy to step up acceleration, or gas mileage—but tough to do both together—unless a lot of gearshifting takes place, which cuts down on smoothness.

So Buick engineers looked to aviation for the answer—and brother! what a wondrous new magic they came up with!

They took a leaf from the airplane's variable pitch propeller—which switches the pitch of its blades one way for quick take-off—and another way for better gas mileage aloft.

They brought the same principle to Dynaflow Drive*—to the twenty propeller-like blades in the Dynaflow "stator." They engineered these blades to swivel like the blades of the plane propeller—and with the same results.

In cruising and in all normal driving, the blades are angled for fuel economy—and you get a lot more miles from a tankful of gas.

But when you have to move instantly—when you need quick getaway, or a sudden burst of safety-surge power to get out of a tight spot on the highway—you just press down that gas pedal, and you're off in a split second.

You've never felt anything like it before—because there's never been anything like it before in an automobile.

It's action that's sheer thrill—action that's backed by the highest V8 horsepowers in Buick history—action that's sending Buick sales soaring to record-high levels.

Come in and try it, at the wheel of a Buick SPECIAL, CENTURY, SUPER or ROADMASTER. You have nothing to lose—and the most thrilling buy of the year to meet.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Thrill of the year is Buick

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

(Fourth and last of the series regarding the Dancing Ground.)

Traditions centered about a weed patch! Remnants of a long gone civilization linked to the present by an old map and by the memories of four men. Important in 1955? Probably not to the casual eye. And yet the same factors which influenced those at most unknown builders to choose this spot also decided the location of our town.

Today, the Raisin has little importance in our economy. In 1900 A.D. and again in 1824 it was vital. Here it was crossed by a travel route—hence a settlement, first of the vanished Hopewell Mound Builders of the wide mouth, who 300 years later followed in their path.

What activity centered about this spot during those intervening centuries we have no way of knowing. The U. of M. scientists say the modern Indian did not use the Hopewell formations here or elsewhere. They are emphatic about it and who are we to question! But we might timidly ask who kept those "clearly defined" and "deeply worn" paths of Mr. Adam and Dr. Patterson, clear and open?

Probably the difference between the scientific mind and ours is in the word "use." The archeologists say the Pottawatamies etc. knew no more about the significance of the place than we do. From the words of our early historians that would seem to be the case. But this does not mean the modern Indians did not frequent this spot, which they held in such evident reverence, or that they had not, probably to a limited extent, converted it to their own type of religious or political gatherings.

Mr. Dewey, whose Cambridge Junction family was on very friendly terms with the last of Pottawatamies, says concerning the egg shaped pit, "There, tradition of the old time was, the sacred herbs were placed and set on fire. From the fumes of this fire the pipe of peace or war was dedicated by ythe chiefs o fthe Indian nations."

None of those writers make any mention of the frequently told, but possibly apocryphic story that here Chief Tecumseh met the leaders of the tribes when he was organizing his last stand against the white man. Perhaps that is merely good showing material. But this would have been a logical meeting place. A roomy but secluded amphitheater with a religious significance and with land laving paths in four directions; it would have been a natural selection for anything so important. For the trails described were two of the main thoroughfares of Indian travel; the one that linked the Detroit-Sandusky region—the present cities of Monroe and Chicago by way of Cambridge Junction and US 112 "or the "Great Sauk Trail" and the Wabash to salt springs (or Saline), trail which also joined the Great Sauk on the way to Detroit. Two main roads and they met at the Dancing Ground.

We are further indebted to Mr. Dewey for a very exact location of the earthworks. He places them —"a short half mile from the corner of the road near Brownville where it turns east on the old Saline road." He also pinpoints the date of their destruction — "since 1832 the plow and the cultivator have leveled the historic work of the ancient mound builders."

That date, however, clearly indicates that no more farming operation was responsible for that destruction. In 1832 the water power system for the Globe Mill was begun. The first step was the construction of the Standish dam and a saw-mill near it. A mill race was dug for that saw-mill, east, beside the bluff. The amphitheater of the Hopewells was in the way, and — a victim of progress — it vanished without a trace. Perhaps its "tall massive oaks" were some of the "logs for the Globe saw-mill" mentioned by Dr. Patterson. Part of the mill race is still there but nothing remains of the vastly more interesting earthworks.

Neither is there any record of any weapons or utensils that might have been uncovered. Of course, if this had been only a temporary camp of the Hopewells there may have been few traces and probably what there were would have been ignored as merely evidences of the despised contemporary Indians. For many years there was another smaller circle east of the main site but that log is gone now.

Like that of the cliff dwellers of the southwest, only mystery surrounds the fate of the Hopewells. But first known civilization beside the Raisin.

PRESBYTERIAN MEETINGS

Mrs. George Walworth assisted by Mrs. Albert Williams, Mrs. Charles O'Neill and Mrs. Frederick Dickinson entertained the Westminster League last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Don Covell conducted devotions and only routine matters were taken up during the business meeting.

The guest speaker of the evening was Ferry Satterthwaite, who told of his interesting experiences in Europe as a recent guest of his brother, Joseph C. Satterthwaite, U.S. Minister to Tangier, Morocco.

Twenty members of the Golden Rule Circle of the Presbyterian church met that same evening at the home of Mrs. R. G. Anderson. Mrs. Victor Lawson had charge of devotions and no program was given, the evening being spent in discussing money making projects. Mrs. Ted Pihl, Miss Lucille Hawley and Mrs. Ronald Johnson and the hostess served refreshments. The next Golden Rule meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Dale Bowen.

AUXILIARY DONATES TO CANCER RESEARCH FUND

Mrs. Warren Filter, president of the V.F.W. Auxiliary, conducted the regular business meeting of that organization Wednesday, March 2, at the post rooms.

Ten dollars was voted for the cancer machine research fund and it was also voted to send $10 to the Crusade for Freedom.

It was announced that the group would go to Ypsilanti State hospital the evening of March 15 to entertain the veterans who are patients there. They are to reach the hospital at 7 p.m. and those who can go or who are willing to donate a pie or inexpensive gifts for the occasion are asked to contact Mrs. Filter.

It was also announced that the March 16 meeting, which is usually a social affair, will be held at the Post rooms and will be the annual nomination and election of officers for the coming year.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses of the evening, Mrs. Harold Meade, Mrs. Ted Sisson and Mrs. John Braden.

COMFORT EXTENSION

Leaders of the Comfort Extention group are pleased with the success of their "Get Acquainted" party held at the Centennial school last week Monday evening. Twenty-two were present of whom ten were guests.

Games were staged by members for the entertainment of the guests and when an invitation was issued for them to join the club, nearly all promised to do so.

The party was planned to give newcomers to the neighborhood an opportunity to know their neighbors. Mrs. Leonard Lewis, assisted by all club members.

Mrs. James Wagner will be hostess for the March 21 meeting at the Centennial school when the lesson will be on the making of curtains and draperies.

REBEKAH LODGE

Twenty-three members and two guests from Milan were present when Britton Rebekah Lodge met Wednesday evening. Noble Grand Anna O'Neil conducted the business. The charter was draped in memory of Cass Zoluff.

Vice Grand Betty Maynard gave a report of the Lenawee county Memorial Association stating they will hold their memorial service May 22 in Morenci. It was voted to contribute to the memorial fund and the Red Cross. A gift was presented to Past Noble Grand Pearl Smith from the officers that had served with her during 1954.

After the meeting the members and their guests went to the dairy bar for refreshments.

LENTEN TEA

The first of a series of Lenten teas was held in the Methodist church parlors Wednesday afternoon. Tea was served from a lace covered table centered with an arrangement of red and white carnations.

Bernice Leidel was in charge of the program, taking for her subject, "Ways Pertaining to Peace" taken from the study book "Plow Shares and Pruning Hooks" written by Ralph Sockman.

STAR CLASS

The Star Class of the Methodist church Sunday school met with 14 members present Thursday evening in the church parlors for a business and social meeting. Mrs. Mary McElroy resigned as president and Mrs. William McElroy and Mrs. Donna Hawkins were then elected co-presidents. Following a brief discussion refreshments were served by the hostesses Betty Bruce and Mrs. Vera Zarnow.

KIWANIS MEETS

The Britton Kiwanis club met Tuesday evening in the Britton Hotel with four members of the South Lyon Kiwanis club as guests. Supt. of Britton schools, Rudolph Koczman spoke to the group about the future needs of the school.

Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Frear were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dumback of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Carpenter and children and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Carpenter and daughter of Tecumseh.

At a meeting of the I.O.O.F. Thursday evening, the first degree in Odd Fellowship was conferred on six new members. On March 16, they will go to Onsted where they will receive the second degree.

Dinner guests Thursday of Mrs. John Kutzner and daughter Kathleen and B. J. Beasley in the Beasley home were Mrs. Kutzner's daughter, Mrs. Elton Goldi and her son Bob, who is on leave from the Navy. Bob will return to his ship at Los Vegas, Calif., next Thursday.

A belated birthday party honoring E. J. Beasley on his 71st birthday was held Wednesday at his home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beasley of Adrian, Mrs. Florence Shuriz and her great grandson S. Burlick of Saline and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Kanous of Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLoid Ramage and family of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rajem and family of Belleville were guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ramage.

The home of Charles Studnicka was struck by lightning during the storm the night of Feb. 28, splintering a window frame and disrupting telephone and electric service for a time.

Honoring the birthday anniversary of Pirl Ash, Sunday guests in the Ash home were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ash of Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Snyder of Palmyra and Mrs. Paul Tarris and daughter of Adrian.

There's even more to Chevrolet styling than meets the eye!

This is beauty with a bonus . . . for Chevrolet styling is designed to add safety and comfort while you drive, and to return greater value when you trade.

Truly modern lines are shaped by usefulness. You can see what we mean in the deep crystal curve of Chevrolet's Sweep-Sight windshield . . . a dramatic style note, certainly, but one that stems from the need for wider, safer vision. Or take high-set taillights—they add to the impressive length of line . . . but they are up there where they can be seen for safety's sake, and as convenient guides in parking. So, too, with the jutting peaks over the headlights.

The smart louvers across the hood aren't just decoration . . . they mark the intake for the High-Level ventilation system for cleaner, fresher air. And the whole shape of the body—its lowness, the dipped belt line—is merely a reflection of a lowered center of gravity, the added stability.

This is truly functional styling that serves you better every mile, and preserves its value against the distant day when you trade. This is Body by Fisher—another Chevrolet exclusive in the low-price field. Come in and let us demonstrate that this new Chevrolet is just as exciting to drive as to look at!

1 Visored headlights

2 Louvered High-Level air intake

3 Sweep-Sight windshield

4 Distinctive dip in belt line

5 Fender-high taillights

High School Honor Students Are Named

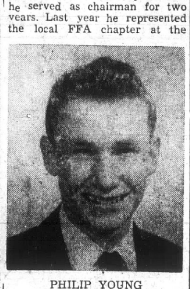
A list of honor students of the Tecumseh High School class of 1955 has been released by Neville Hart, principal.

Ruth Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiubur Boyce, 8607 Billmyer road, is valedictorian, and Philip Young, son of Mrs. Mabel Young, Route One, Tecumseh, is salutatorian.

Twenty four other honor students in the class of 78 which will receive diplomas June 2 also were announced by Mr. Hart.

Both class leaders have been active in extra-curricular activities.

RUTH BOYCE



PHILIP YOUNG

Miss Boyce was a member of the student council in her sophomore year, junior class secretary, editor of "Senior Echoes" this year, DAR good citizen this year, attended Girls' State last year and took part in "Our Town," senior class play. She also is active in the Presbyterian Church where she sings in the choir, is youth budget treasurer, and helps in the nursery department Sunday School.

She has a scholarship to Michigan State Normal College. She intends to become an elementary school teacher.

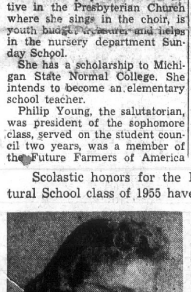
Philip Young, the salutatorian, was president of the sophomore class, served on the student council two years, was a member of the Future Farmers of America four years in which he served as vice-president during his sophomore year and as president during the past two years. He also was on the FFA parliamentary procedure team three years and he served as chairman for two years. Last year he represented the local FFA chapter at the Michigan FFA Convention in East Lansing.

Phil plans to stay on the family farm on Dinjus road where he has a partnership with his mother and two brothers.

The other 24 honor students, listed alphabetically, are Sandra Biederman, Dulcie Bowen, Ruth Brockway, Fred Buchheimer, Connie Clark, Shirley De Clercq, Robert Francoeur, Charlene Greene, Charles Hendershot, Ben Jackson, Elaine Kimerer, and Janet Lawhead.

Also on the honor list are Frances Le Baron, Barbara Oosterhout, Brenda Porter, Linda Sisson, Jane Smith, Phillip Stutesman, Phillip Surratt, Joyce Taylor, Theresa Verrier, J. J. Walper, Donna Williams and Diane Woodward.

Scolastic honors for the Britton-Macon Rural Agricultural School class of 1955 have been announced.



PEGGY POCKLINGTON

ANN RICICA

Miss Peggy Jo Pocklington, daughter of Mrs. Roy Hicks of Tecumseh, has been named valedictorian.

She has all "A's" except for one "B" in her entire high school career. Her average is 3.97.

She is organist at the Tecumseh Methodist Church.

She also has been awarded a scholarship to Michigan State Normal College for 1955-56 and plans to follow teaching.

Miss Ann Ricica has been named salutatorian.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ricica of Britton.

Ann has a 3.89 scholastic rating and has been awarded a scholarship to Michigan State Normal College for the 1955-56 year.

She plans to follow a teaching career.

MSC Alumni Seek University Status For School

Lenawee County alumni of Michigan State College are supporting changing the name of their school to "Michigan State University of Agriculture and Applied Science."

Meeting last Friday, they heard Robert Ries, president, make an appeal for the 400 alumni in the county to write Rep. Rollo G. Conlin and Sen. Elmer Porter asking support of the McCune Bill which would change the name of the East Lansing school.

Mr. Ries also will ask 17 alumni club area chairmen in the county to encourage alumni to write Rep. Conlin and Sen. Porter to support the name change bill.

ATTORNEY GENERAL WILL SPEAK HERE

Tecumseh Democrats are busy on plans for the appearance of Thomas M. Kavanagh, Michigan attorney general, in Tecumseh March 31.

The attorney general will speak here at the high school.

Grenval Spangler, in charge of the arrangements, reports that the committee also is trying to get state candidates on the Democrat ticket to speak at the meeting.

ALL PTA GROUPS WILL MEET TONIGHT

A panel discussion on PTA problems and on whether PTAs want to continue as separate PTAs representing individual schools in Tecumseh will be held in Central School tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m.

After Four-Day Search, They Found Ray Lee

They found the body of Ray Lee Sunday.

Missing since Wednesday, March 9, the four-year-old boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lee of 4405 Blood road, Tecumseh, was found by a three-man searching party near the Comfort road bridge, about one mile down the River Raisin from the Lees' home.

The boy left his five-room home to go to an outside toilet and when he had not returned in 15 minutes Mrs. Lee began searching for him. The search turned into a four-day and night vigil by Tecumseh Police, Clinton State Police, Lenawee County Sheriff officers, Civil Air Patrol members, firemen, Boy Scouts and Explorers and volunteers.

Mr. Lee was called from his work at the Tecumseh Products after Mrs. Lee had checked with neighbors to see if they had seen Ray.

Later in the day Kenneth Stange of Adrian and William Phipps of Onsted donned "frog men" equipment and searched the river bottom.

Chief George Kilbourn and Frank Gregory, patrolman, first answered the call of the missing boy.

Chief Kilbourn found one of the boy's boots near the river.

Chief Kilbourn assumed that the boy was playing with two of his puppies when he was accidentally knocked off the seven-foot bank between his house and the toilet and into the water.

The water was about four feet deep near the shore but dropped off into a 14-foot hole six feet from shore.

Sheriff deputies began dragging the river a few hours after the boy was reported missing. Wednesday afternoon the city dam, Universal Button Co. dam and the Consumers Power substation dam were closed. The water level dropped more than two feet and the "frog men" went back into the stream.

Volunteers used a motor boat to search for the boy and others walked the shore line for nearly a mile hoping to find him. Some boats later went as far as four miles down stream searching for the boy.

At dark chicken wire fences were stretched across the river in three places to catch the body if it were dislodged by the current. Officers watched the fences all night.

All during the search crowds of spectators lined the banks of the river. Many of them volunteered their services to search for the missing boy.

Thursday Special Deputy Robert Savage of Ogden made a thorough search of the river near the Lee home, probing holes. Other officers covered the river with grappling hooks.

Thursday night a blood hound was brought into the search by Deputy Roscoe Mercer of Morenci.

Some officers Friday went as far south as Comfort bridge near where the boy later was found. They searched the river and side channels, probing holes and under logs. Saturday and Saturday night the search continued.

Two hundred and fifty volunteers early Sunday started another thorough search. Dams in town were closed and a crew sandbagged the river at the Blood road bridge, 200 feet upstream from the Lee home.

Tecumseh Patrolmen Skinner and Purkey thought of sandbagging the river.

Tecumseh Police, Sheriff deputies, State Police, firemen from a number of southeastern Michigan departments, members of the Co. B Michigan National Guard at Adrian and volunteers organized patrols in the water and on the banks of the river. Civil Air Patrols flew over the area. By 11 a.m. the water level was down about four feet.

The Civil Air Patrol, on both a state and local level, took an active part in the search operations. Tecumseh provided three planes and a mobile radio unit. Tecumseh men who gave their time were Capt. Elmer Burleson, Warrant Officer Milton Appel and Lts. A. Roe, Earl Roe, Blanch Roe, A. Wirick and Herbert Cleveland.

Ann Arbor sent a plane and two mobile units and Major Lohr of that city helped.

Lt. Warren Sutton of Jackson acted as communications officer and was one of the three men who discovered the body. Jackson also furnished three mobile units.

Capt. J. Coller, Warrant Officer P. Smith, Marion Smith and Henry Jenkins from Adrian took part and brought two mobile units and a base unit.

Police officers received word of the finding of the body from the Jackson mobile unit.

Ray was found in two feet of water. Officers estimated that the water would have been six or seven feet deep if the dam had not been closed and the river sandbagged.

His body was found by Kenneth Miller of Tecumseh, Walter Escott of Clinton and Lt. Warren Sutton, commander of the Jackson Civil Air Patrol.

They were walking along the shore of the river when they saw one of the boy's hands above the water. Roots of a large tree growing on the bank had lodged the body.

When she was told the body had been found, Mrs. Lee collapsed. She was admitted to Herrick Memorial hospital. She was discharged Monday.

Ray Francis Lee was three years and 11 months old at the time of his death which apparent-

Help Appreciated

Police Chief George Kilbourn whose department first took the call of the missing Lee boy expressed appreciation to the Sheriff's Department, State Police, CAP, National Guard, state firemen, auxiliary Tecumseh police and firemen, Boy Scouts, "frog men" and other volunteers who aided in the search for Ray Lee.

"Without this help the body might not have been recovered when it was," he said.

He also thanked Meyer's Aircraft for two boats and a motor and Hayden Mill, Tecumseh Products, Bruce Foundry, Driggs Dairy and area farmers for the use of bags for the sandbagging of the river.

He also expressed appreciation for the fine cooperation from owners of the dams on the River Raisin who permitted closing the dams.

"My department sincerely appreciates all the help rendered," he said.

Girl Scouts, Brownies Hold Vesper Service

A dignified and an impressive Brownies' and Girl Scouts Own Vesper Service, arranged and sponsored by senior Scouts was held in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday afternoon, 150 girls participating. Many parents, relatives and friends were present to witness the following service:

Organ prelude, Mrs. Kennard Wise; processional of Brownies and Girl Scouts; flag ceremony, Troop No. 1; pledge of allegiance; prayer, Lt. S. Rucker, minister; hymn, "This is My Father's World"; litany, prepared by Brownies and Girl Scouts; vocal solo, "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind", Mrs. Lyle Grigg; candle-lighting ceremony, "The Girl Scouts Laws", Troop No. 5, assisted by Troop No. 5 and Troop No. 9 as a choir; tribute to Juliette Lowe, Jackie Rucker; one minute of silence; hymn of Scouting, Girl Scouts; benediction; retiring of colors; recessional; and postlude.

The Reverend L. S. Rucker has had the honor of conducting the Sunrise Easter Service in the foothills near Coalinga, California, for five consecutive years when thousands attended. His daughter, Jackie, is president of the senior Scouts.

The vesper service concluded the observance of Girl Scout Week in Tecumseh which was in accordance with the national program.

Seventy-five Brownies, plus their leaders and assistant leaders enjoyed a wiener roast in the Scout Cabin Saturday as guests of the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association.

Games were played in Elliott Park under the direction of the senior Scouts, Jackie Rucker, Barbara Crowell, Norma Jewell and Joyce Wilbar.

HELPS EVACUATION

Wash Out Stops Cars At Park

A broken water main washed out Brown street at Outer Drive Tuesday afternoon, blocking the entrance to Herrick Park.

Motorists could not even get in or out of the Park for a period of 20 minutes while city employees filled in a gapping hole in Brown street.

Cause of the break is unknown.

Tuesday night flares were set out at the washout to warn motorists of the bad road condition.

Four Arraigned By Justice French

Four men were arraigned before Justice Robert L. French during the past week on various charges.

Lewis Carswell, 19 years old, of Tecumseh, paid a $50 fine and $8.60 costs after pleading guilty to reckless driving.

Carswell was arrested by Tecumseh police Sunday night.

George E. Cubberly, 43, and Al Howard, 52, both of Matthews Highway, Tecumseh township, pleaded guilty to drunkenness.

They were arrested by Tecumseh police Friday afternoon.

Howard was sentenced to seven days in jail and was ordered to pay a $25 fine and $8.30 costs or stay in jail for 30 days. Cubberly was ordered to pay a $15 fine and $8.60 costs or spend 30 days in jail.

Lowell R. Maynard, 42, of Tecumseh, pleaded not guilty to driving under the influence of liquor.

Maynard, who was arrested by Tecumseh police Friday, was released on $150 bond to await trial March 24.

Pleads Not Guilty In Liquor Case

In circuit court Monday Maynard Mulvaney, manager of the Chieftain Hotel, pleaded not guilty to selling liquor to a minor.

He was arrested Jan. 7 when Tecumseh Police caught an 18-year-old boy coming from the store with a bottle of whisky.

Sentenced to 30 days and a $100 fine in justice court, he appealed the case.

Trial date has been set for March 22.

Three Youths Are Injured In Wreck

Two Tecumseh youths and an Iron Lake youth were seriously injured early Saturday morning when the car in which they were riding left the road and plunged down a steep embankment.

The accident happened at U. S. 112 and Person Highway a mile and one half east of Cambridge Junction.

Those injured included the driver Dwight Rankin, 19, of Iron Lake; James Fielder, 20, of 217 Maiden Lane, Tecumseh; and Larry Watson, 20, of 217 Pearl street, Tecumseh.

Rankin suffered head, neck and internal injuries. Fielder had a broken leg and severe cuts.

And Watson had severe cuts.

The men were taken to Herrick Memorial hospital for treatment and Rankin and Fielder were transferred to University of Michigan hospital in Ann Arbor.

Police officers said the car, traveling south on Person Highway, did not stop for the highway but went across and plunged down the embankment on the south side. The car, they said, bounced twice, going more than 60 feet into the air each time.

Rankin was thrown out and the car landed on him. Officers with the help of truck drivers lifted the car to remove the youth.

The new car was demolished.

Rotary Club's Hypnosis Program Set for Saturday

A program proclaimed by educators as the greatest combinaton of education and comedy on the American stage will be presented Saturday night, March 19, when Mr. James L. Walters, hypnotist and educator, discusses his "artificial sleep."

The lecture and demonstration on "The Wonders of Hypnotism" will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Tecumseh High School gym.

Using local persons as subjects, Mr. Walters will show how the four great wonders of the subconscious mind are performed and he will show how subjects react under hypnosis.

He also will explain how hypnosis is used in mental hospitals and how it is used by some dentists and doctors to alleviate pain.

Mr. Walters, highly recommended by educators throughout the country, is sponsored here by the Tecumseh Rotary Club. Part of proceeds from the show will go for the purchase of the bank boards in the gym that the Rotary Club has underwritten.

CLASS "A"

A singular honor came to Tecumseh High School Wednesday night when the Michigan Athletic Association selected the local gym for part of the quarter finals of the state basketball tournament.

Only three other towns — Grand Rapids, Pontiac and Mt. Pleasant — have class "A" quarter finals.

Neville Hart, tournament manager, explained that the game normally would have been played in Adrian College gym.

"State officials must certainly think highly of our facilities to give us this important game," he added.

The game was between Fordson of Dearborn and Jackson. The HERALD went to press too early Wednesday to publish results.

Search For Dairy Queen Starts Here

The Lenawee County Dairy Council, comprised of producers, consumers and distributors, is taking part in a state-wide contest to select a dairy queen who will represent the dairy industry during dairy month in June.

Mrs. Ina Fatchett of Blissfield is chairman of the county dairy queen contest search. County winners will be selected by April 15.

Applications for entrance into the contest must be sent to Miss Josephine Brigham at the Lenawee County Court House by April 1. Information on the entry blank must include name, age, address, farm background and sponsoring group.

This project is to be conducted among 4-H clubs, Future Homemakers, Junior Farm Bureau, Juvenile Grangers and other girls from 17 to 20 years of age having a farm background.

The competition is to be held on a county-wide basis with the county winners to compete in district selections. District winners will be honored at a luncheon in Lansing where the final choice — Queen of Dairying — will be made by a board of judges.

The Queen of Dairying should be available to travel to various sections of Michigan during the year following her coronation, appearing before various clubs and meetings. All expenses will be borne by the Dairy Month committee. Any girl chosen Queen of Dairying will not be eligible for competition in subsequent years. Girls who are married or plan marriage within six months following the selection are not eligible.

The counties here listed will make up the districts as indicated:

Ann Arbor District — Lenawee, Monroe, Wayne, Washtenaw, Macomb, Oakland and Livingston.

The basis for the selection of County and District Princesses and the Queen of Dairying will be as follows: (A) appearance 30 points; (B) personality, poise and tact 20 points; (C) ability to speak before audience and on radio 25 points; (D) farm background 25 points.

General Phone Re-elects All Its Officers

Directors of General Telephone Company of Michigan at their organization meeting today returned all officers of the company to the offices they held last year.

Re-elected were L. H. Meyer, president; K. W. Benckert, vice-president; Robert J. White, secretary and treasurer; W. A. McCullour, controller, and Richard J. Perry, assistant secretary and assistant treasurer.

Directors who were elected at the firm's annual meeting last Thursday are R. W. Herrick of Tecumseh, Louis E. Legg of Coldwater; C. N. Sessions and O. A. Seyferth of Muskegon, Mr. Meyer, Mr. Benckert and Mr. White.

Edward L. Richmond, M.S.C. voice instructor, will direct the Michigan State College Men's Glee Club in its guest appearance here at Tecumseh High School, Wednesday, March 23 at 2 p. m.

Among his experiences, Mr. Richmond formerly sang professionally with several of the top vocal groups and as a soloist with fine symphonies.

PLEAD GUILTY

Two persons pleaded guilty in arraignments before Justice L. J. VanDeusen Saturday.

Louis F. Wallenmaier, 54 years old, of Northville, pleaded guilty to driving under the influence of liquor and paid a $75 fine and $6.30 costs.

Clarabell Pulsipher, 25, of Route 3, Milan, pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct. She paid a $15 fine and $6.30 costs.

The two were arrested by Clinton state police Friday night on M-50 in Franklin township.

SCHOOL MEETING CALLED MARCH 28

The district school board announces that a special school meeting will be held at 8 p. m., March 28, at Colvin School, district No. 5, Raisin, to consider crowded school conditions.

Counts — Superintendent of Schools Milton C. Porter and the Tecumseh Board of Education have been invited to also discuss annexation.

RETURN FROM AFRICA

Mr. and Mrs. Jens Touborg returned Monday evening from a month's hunting safari in Kenya, East Africa. Mr. Touborg had a successful expedition, obtaining specimens of lion, elephant, rhinoceros, cape buffalo and a variety of antelope and gazelle.

DRIVER ARRESTED FOR WRONG PLATE

William Walker, 20, of 229 N. Pearl, Tecumseh, is in Lenawee County jail waiting arraignment on driving with an improper plate on his car.

He was arrested by Tecumseh Police Saturday night.

Chief George Kilbourn expects to have a warrant on the charge today.

Junior Musicians Present Program For Music Club

It was junior night at Tecumseh Music Club Tuesday evening. Mrs. Perry Hayden was hostess and 12 members of the Fiddlesticks Club entertained their senior with a well rounded program of instrumental and vocal selections.

There were choral readings by the club, a cornet solo by Nancy Day accompanied by her sister Betty and a clarinet solo by Gerald Kruse. Piano selections were played by Sharon Fielder, Inez Boltz, Susan and Betty Day, Isabel McCombs and Sharon Muhn. A group, which included Tommy North and Gary Abner and which is a part of the Junior school band, played instrumental selections, Betty Day sang a solo and there was a vocal duet by Sally Hunt and Janet Harris.

A resume of the year's work of the Fiddlesticks members was given by Nancy Day which showed in graphic manner the serious work which had been done by this group of young musicians. They have been led and inspired by Mrs. Murray Day.

A comedy shadow skit by the entire group closed a most interesting program.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Arthur Schwartz, announcement was made of the coming concerts in Adrian and Ann Arbor and offers of transportation for the junior members were made for the one in Ann Arbor, March 27.

A report was made of the progress in preparing Mrs. R. S. Moore's music collection for cataloging and it was announced that the club chorus was to sing at the anniversary celebration of the Lenawee Federation of Women's clubs.

Mrs. Schwartz appointed Miss Edith Ingersoll, Mrs. William Hayden and Mrs. Duaine Service as a nominating committee to report at the next meeting.

Mrs. William DePuy and Mrs. Ted Glauser were guests of the club.

Mrs. Hayden was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Service and Mrs. Joe Rice.

CUB SCOUT PACK 4 PLANS MINSTREL SHOW

At the Monday evening meeting of the committee for Cub Scout Pack 4, plans were made for a minstrel show which is to be the program for the regular pack meeting next Monday at the Youth House. Candy, pop and popcorn will be on sale during the show. As the committee has not been able as yet to schedule a time for practice, the Cubs will be notified later when they are to meet for that purpose.

It was announced at the meeting that both Cubmaster and Mrs. Rheinhart Radant have been forced to resign their Cub posts because of ill health. Mrs. Charles Irelan will replace Mrs. Radant as den mother and assistant Cubmaster Walter Hizer will become master but the position of assistant is still vacant and it is hoped an interested father will volunteer.

All boys who are eligible to become Cubs this fall are invited to come with their parents to the Monday night meeing.

LEAD G.O.P. RACE IN APRIL

Talk of the Town

The Rev. and Mrs. Edward Escolme attended the banquet and concert of the Clinton high school band Monday evening as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wilson. Five members of Mrs. Escolme's Sunday school class are also members of the band.

Perley Gee of Toledo was brought to Herrick Memorial hospital last weekend for medical treatment. He is a cousin of Miss Mabel Lockwood and also of Mrs. John Kopka.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw received a phone call the last of the week from their son, Capt. Robert Laidlaw in San Francisco. The Laidlaw family, who are on the way home from Japan, had nearly reached land when David, the older son came down with the measles and at the last report, he was still isolated in the ship's hospital. Capt. Laidlaw expects to back in Tecumseh about the first of April.

Mrs. Robert Bonner and Mrs. Carles Jones were in East Lansing, Tuesday to attend a regional meeting of hospital auxiliaries which was held in Kellogg Center on the Michigan State campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Waring and family of Detroit were guests Sunday of his mother, Mrs. Mertie Waring and his brother Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beebe of Ypsilanti spent the weekend with Mrs. Beebe's mother, Mrs. Lillian Hoagland.

Guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. James Danforth were Mr. Danforth's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Morrison of Ypsilanti.

Miss Margaret Lowry spent Sunday and Monday of this week in Bloomfield Village as a guest of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lowry.

Mr. and Mrs. Yale H. Kerby received word last week of the birth of a son to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kenneth Dawson of Yuba City, Calif. Mr. Dawson will be remembered here as a former village engineer. The baby has been named Dan Leland.

Hawaiian Student Will Be Guest Of Methodist Women

Mrs. Robert Bonner presided over the business meeting of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service held in the church social room last Wednesday evening. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Willis Porter.

It was voted to dispense with the April 13 meeting of the organization and all members were urged to attend instead the meeting of the Mary-Martha Circle to be held April 11. At that time Miss Lavina Hayashida, a student from Hawaii at Adrian College, will be a guest of the ladies and will present the evening's program. Miss Hayashida was present at a meeting of the Tecumseh Monday Club recently and was much enjoyed.

A letter was read from Agnes Stahle, president of the Detroit conference, reminding the group of the spring conference meeting at Northville, May 20. She also gave such excellent reasons for the society to raise its mission pledge that it was voted to do so.

Plans were announced for a White Breakfast to be given by the society at 9:30 a.m. March 31 at the church when Mrs. Luther Butt of the teaching staff of Albion college will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Butt is the widow of a former district superintendent and is well remembered here. The breakfast will be open to the public.

The program topic, which was under the direction of Mrs. Porter, was "The Young Woman Goes to the City" and it was emphasized that the training received in the church and through Christian teaching in the home was the best protection possible.

The society then enjoyed refreshments served by Mrs. Maynard Lucas, Mrs. ElRay Finnegan and Mrs. Roma Waters.

Wolverine State Rich in Native Legend States Wayne U. Folklore Specialist

Dr. Bruno Nettl of the Wayne University music staff prepares to give Ruth Nigl, Wayne student from Standish, instructions in the handling of a mandolin, popular folk instrument. Dr. Nettl is assisting Professor Thelma James (seated), head of the University's folklore project, in the recording of folk music for the archives.

The State of Michigan, particularly the Upper Peninsula, is full of native legend and folklore, according to Thelma James, professor of English at Wayne University and head of the University's folklore project.

The project has as its aim the collection and archiving of the folklore (including folk music and crafts) of the ethnic groups of Michigan with special emphasis on Metropolitan Detroit.

"There is a great amount of material right here in our own state which we do not have recorded," Professor James said. "This year we are going to be primarily concerned with getting the folk music tape-recorded and the folk tales on file here at Wayne."

Dr. Bruno Nettl of the Wayne music department will assist Professor James with the recording.

Between 60 and 70 nationality groups are represented in Michigan, most numerous of which are the Poles with the Finnish predominate in Northern Michigan. This state is a good illustration of the fact that America has grown from the Europeans, Professor James pointed out. Old World lore moved into Michigan with each fresh immigrant settlement, and each colony contributed its own coloring to the folklore of the state.

Although widely scattered, the groups tended to colonize and today the Dutch are found on the west shore around Holland, Muskegon, Zeeland, Kalamazoo, Vriesland, and Grand Haven, the Cornish in Northern Michigan mining areas, and the German settlements around Saginaw, Frankenmuth, and Detroit.

All nationalities have common ground in folklore, Professor James said. A good example is the Cinderella Tales. Five hundred have been collected to date, some in ballad form. Over 400 Barbara Allen ballads are available. In addition, 600 wart cures are on file in 19 languages, more than 5,000 proverbs have been recorded, and many children's games. It is even difficult to say any one nation invented the game of hide and seek or stick ball.

"But there is no form of history which reveals more of the social background and the culture of a people than do its traditional songs transmitted from generation to generation by the lip to ear method," she added. "In Michigan it is the lumber camps and other work groups which have contributed much in preserving and distributing all manner of folk music throughout the state."

Professor James added that the University receives requests for information from people all over the world and, in addition, receives many contributions.

"We hope that those who know tales, songs, ballads, legends, and weather lore will send them to the Wayne University folklore archives," she said.

PYTHIAN SISTERS

At the regular meeting of the Josephine H. Hall Temple of the Pythian Sisters last Wednesday evening, it was voted to hold a rummage sale at the hall March 24, 25 and 26. Chairman of the event will be Mrs. Luther Wood.

Members were reminded of the meeting of the Minnie Mix Club in Ann Arbor, March 18. Mrs. Harry Schuch reported on the dinner served to the Business and Professional Woman's Club and plans were made for the next one in April.

It was voted to purchase the usual flags and markers for Memorial Day and it was suggested that the membership remember the 83rd birthday of Bert Aten, March 20.

Lunch was served after the meeting by Mrs. Roscoe Ferris, Mrs. Lewis Schultz, Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, Mrs. Edna Staulter and Miss Nellie Wilson.

GOOD CHEER CLASS

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Finch were hosts to the Good Cheer class last Friday evening and Mr. Finch provided a most interesting program. He spoke on Michigan history, including many local incidents which brought forth added comments from his audience and caused a spirited discussion.

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett, Mrs. Ernest VanVleet and Miss Mary Snedicor were appointed a committee to purchase the Bibles which the class has made a practice of presenting to all high school seniors who are members of the Baptist church.

Mrs. Bashore used the topic "Building With the Timber Given Us" for the devotional period and the evening was closed with refreshments served by the hosts.

100 Voice Chorus Heard By Baptists

William Hazzard, music director of the Ashland Ave. Baptist church of Toledo, brought four choirs from that church to the local Baptist church Sunday evening for a program of sacred music.

The adult or Chancel choir, the Crusaders of high school age and the Chapel and boys groups of juvenile singers together with the Tecumseh Baptist choir formed a chorus of nearly 100 voices. Vested in different but blending colors, the singing made an impressive spectacle.

There were numbers given by each individual choir, combinations of two or more and selections rendered by the entire chorus. Except for a few acapello numbers all were accompanied by the Toledo organist, Arthur Kuetze.

Mr. Hazzard, who gave a concert of his choir here several years ago, left Tecumseh in 1946 and has been the Ashland Ave. director for the past six or seven years.

The concert was a project of the local choir and they were hosts to the 74 singers from Toledo for refreshments later in the evening. The event was part of the Lenten program of the church.

Other church activities of the season include a class of instruction for those contemplating church membership from 7 to 8 o'clock each Sunday evening. A Bible study class will meet the same evening from 8 to 9. This group, which is considering the Book of Luke, has met for the past ten weeks on Wednesday evening.

Plans are maturing for the father and son banquet, scheduled for Monday evening, March 28. Mrs. Floyd Barrett will be general chairman of the committee for the swiss steak dinner to be served in the Youth House at 6:30. Tickets may be obtained by calling the parsonage. The speaker of the evening will be announced later.

MARY-MARTHA CIRCLE

Mrs. Walter Hizer entertained the Methodist Mary-Martha Circle at her home in Herrick Park Monday evening. After a routine business meeting, devotions were given by Mrs. Hizer. The Rev. Horace James then presented the advantages of a plan to reorganize the various circles of the church and the matter was discussed by the group. The hostess served refreshments following the program.

PETITE SALON MEETS

Mrs. Albert Bagshaw served dessert to the members of Petite Salon No. 127, 8 and 40 at her home Monday evening. She was assisted by Mrs. Percy Bowen.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Edward Brooket in the absence of the president, Mrs. H. H. Hammel. Tables were then arranged for both bridge and canasta of which bridge prizes were awarded to Mrs. Louis Schneider, Mrs. Ray Sluyter and Mrs. Lucille DeRyke and those for canasta to Mrs. Harold Foote, Mrs. Harold Randolph, Mrs. Marvin Watkins and Mrs. Fred Marsh.

In April the group will meet with Mrs. Harold Foote in Adrian.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Sunday evening services this week at the Friends church will be in charge of Dalton Van Valkenburg and will feature the work of the organization of the Gideons. The guest speaker will be Selus Nearoth of Blissfield, who like Mr. VanValkenburg is a member of the Lenawee county camp of the Gideons.

JRC'S DONATE BOOKS TO LIBRARY

Peter Platt, left, Kalamazoo High School student and chairman of the Midwestern Area Council of Junior Red Cross members, looks over the recent donation of new books to the Beecher School Library in Flint, with Dianne Maynard, student at Flint Central High School and president of the Genesee County Junior Red Cross High School Council; Mrs. M. F. Saxton, chairman of the Genesee County Chapter Junior Red Cross; and T. J. Buell, superintendent of the Beecher School. The library was destroyed by the tornado which leveled much of the Flint residential and business areas in May 1953, and the books for it were purchased with a $5,000 grant from the American Red Cross Children's Fund. The fund consists of the voluntary contributions of its millions of young members.

Michigan Groups Join Tribute To Fishing Industry

An industry that existed more than 200 years before Michigan achieved statehood will be honored throughout the state next week.

Recognition will be given the fishing industry which began here in 1634 and has contributed importantly to Michigan's economic growth and development.

In proclaiming the week of March 20-26 as Michigan Fish Week, Gov. G. Mennen Williams said the industry's commercial and sport fishermen have been "a tremendous influence in creating the water wonderland that glorifies the State of Michigan."

Cooperating with an industry committee in the first program of its kind in this state will be A & P Food Stores, pioneer in bringing fresh water and ocean fish to consumers.

The food chain, which started distributing lake smelt throughout Michigan and the central states in 1934, will feature available varieties during Michigan Fish Week.

The company annually purchases a substantial portion of the estimated $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 worth of herring, smelt, whitefish, pickerel, perch and other fish commercially caught in Michigan waters.

Nearly 5,000 commercial fishermen work in Michigan. In their operations, they ply state waters with 661 vessels and 2,001 boats.

Michigan has 3,095 miles of fishing streams and 96,819 acres of lakes which are enjoyed as well by an estimated 275,000 sport fishermen.

PLEDGES SRS

Thomas C. Naser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Naser, 307 N. Union street, who is enrolled as a freshman at Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo, has been pledged to the Sigma-Rho-Sigma Society, one of the three men's societies on campus.

White Pine Trees Are Offered By Michigan State

The white pine, Michigan's official tree, is being made available for planting to schools, churches and civic groups in the state as a gift from Michigan State College during its 1955 Centennial year.

Such groups have the opportunity to obtain one of the trees from M.S.C. for planting on Arbor Day, April 29, or some other occasion. Michigan State selected the white pine 18 months ago for special plantings this year, the College's 100th anniversary.

The legislature and the governor recently named the white pine as the official state tree.

More than 1,500 groups and organizations from all parts of Michigan already have requested one of the trees, said Dr. Paul A. Herbert, director of conservation at M.S.C. The young trees average about 18 inches in height and are accompanied by a small plastic marker.

According to Dr. Herbert, the trees are to be planted on public sites such as parks, school grounds and court house squares.

"The white pine will grow on more soil types than any other Michigan tree," Dr. Herbert said. "As a result, it has been used in reforestration projects and for ornamental use in every part of Michigan," he added.

Several organizations have planned programs to commemorate Arbor Day this year, and many groups are emphasizing conservation projects in general during 1955, according to Dr. Herbert.

Druggist Sees More Health Aid

"This year will bring even better help to live a healthier and longer life," said Ralph Hodges of Hodges Drug.

"There is no doubt that more important discoveries will be made. Before insulin was introduced in 1923 we had only two drugs that were positive in their action, quinine and sulphur. All others could not always be depended on to accomplish a desired effect. Since insulin we now have sulfa compounds, natural and synthetic hormones, antibiotics, and many man-made chemicals, all of which give results that have been the hopeful dream of physicians through the ages.

"Although millions of dollars are often spent perfecting a single new drug, the cost of medicine per capita is now about 10 per cent less than it used to be. Prescriptions may cost five or ten dollars, but they can, and often do prevent operations, and they give relief so much quicker that you stay in bed less, and your physician makes fewer visits.

"For example, mastoid operations have practically been eliminated because an early diagnosis, and about $15 worth of antibiotics quickly brings relief. The dream of every physician is to have medicines that will cure any sickness. Now that radio-active isotopes are being made freely available for research, scientists are beginning to learn exactly how every drug works in every part of your body.

"Your physician," Mr. Hodges said, "can now do so much more for you, than in the past, that it is folly not to consult him at the first sign of any illness."

Birthday Parties

Mrs. Don Brazee entertained a group of small girls Saturday afternoon for the pleasure of her daughter Linda who was celebrating her 7th birthday. Games were the order of the afternoon and there was a birthday cake and other good things from a pink and white decorated table. Linda received lovely gifts from her friends who were Kathy Mitchell, Sharon Beemer, Marsha Curth, Jana Barron, Gloria Green, Donna Glascock, Connie Robinett and Teresa Mann.

Keith Kruse was 10 years old Saturday and his mother Mrs. Stapley Kruse gave a birthday party in his honor. Prizes for the games played went to Stephen Lasky, Lynn Norris, Dennis Linden and Sandra Petrovich. The birthday cake was in the form of a drum and an additional military air was added by the guests' favors of paper hats, which they made themselves.

The American Legion Cuts Cake to Celebrate 36th Birthday

The top Legionnaire in the country, National Commander Seaborn P. Collins, Jr., of Las Cruces, New Mexico, wields the knife to cut the Michigan Legion's birthday cake in observance of their 36th anniversary Thursday, March 17. Throughout the state this week more than 100,000 Legionnaires and their auxiliary members in 518 posts scattered over the Lower and Upper Peninsulas, are observing similar ceremonies. Above, awaiting their slice from the commander are, from left: Mrs. Gladys Taylor, Brooklyn, State President of the Legion's Auxiliary; State Commander Kent T. Lundgren of Menominee, and past State Commander J. Addington Wagner, Battle Creek, Michigan Legion's candidate for national Commander in 1955.

Cinerama Offers Special Prices To Groups

The three-eyed magic of Cinerama has brought the world to more than 55,000 youngsters of Michigan during the recent run of "This Is Cinerama" at the Music Hall Theatre according to figures released this week by Frank Upton, Cinerama Midwest Division Manager.

Members of public and parochial schools, boy and girl scouts, YMCA and YWCA members, and youngsters belonging to 4-H Clubs have seen more than 50 special Saturday morning performances at special rates.

The groups, some from as far north as Bay City and south from Lima, Ohio have come to the Music Hall Theatre in school buses, aboard public carriers and in privately owned automobiles to line up outside the Music Hall Theatre. Once inside, a whole new movie dimension opens for young eyes.

The program is supervised by Cinerama's special service department along with officers of the Detroit Police Department, aiding the Music Hall Theatre staff. The program is supported by clergy of all faiths, boards of education of many counties, the PTA and other youth leaders.

Because of the success of these special 10:30 Saturday morning performances in the past, Music Hall has announced a resumption of these showings to start March 12.

School groups and youth leaders can make arrangements for their members to attend at the special price the Saturday morning showings of the new second presentation "Cinerama Holiday" by calling or writing the Music Hall Theatre.

MRS. JOHN RUESINK BURIED IN TIPTON

Funeral services for Mrs. John Ruesink, who died March 8, were held Friday afternoon at the Collins Funeral Home, conducted by the Rev. Gordon Blossom of the Tipton Community church. Burial was in the Tipton cemetery with Richard Volmer, Raymond Platt, William Speaker, Richard Carter, Howard Evans and Eugene Fisher as bearers. Relatives and friends attended from Detroit, Chatham, Ont., Monroe, Wakeman and Genoa, Ohio, and Jackson, Adrian, Blissfield and Clayton.

CADETS VACATION

All of Howe Military School's 230 cadets left campus this week for their spring vacation. Although the vacation officially began March 11, many boys won early leaves for good scholarship and conduct records.

All cadets will return to the Howe campus March 21 and classes will resume the next day.

The vacationing cadets include: John Alan Purcell, 316 W. Pottawatamie and Ross Frederick C. Hadley, 618 N. Maumee of Tecumseh.

Drive the low-price Plymouth soon—see why it

LEADS "ALL 3" IN VALUE!

TOP TWO ENGINES
Plymouth's PowerFlow 117 engine is the smoothest, thriftiest six in the lowest-price field, with exclusive Chrome-Sealed Action that adds years to its smooth, whisper-quiet operation. And Plymouth's new 167-hp Hy-Fire is the most powerful standard V-8 in the low-price 3. Both engines thrive on regular, NOT premium, fuel.

NEWEST STYLING
Of all 3 low-price cars, only Plymouth's styling is completely and honestly new. Its fleet, forward-looking lines mean this Plymouth will look "new" years from now, and have a higher trade-in value. And, of all 3, only Plymouth gives you a swept-back windshield design, with far more visibility than in other cars in the low-price 3.

LARGEST SIZE
Biggest, longest, lowest car of the low-price 3, Plymouth is actually larger than some high-price cars! To you this means more roominess, more comfort inside, and the smooth, steady ride only a big car can give. Plymouth is priced for every pocketbook; 22 models in three great lines—the Belvedere, the Savoy, the Plaza.

SMOOTHEST RIDE
Only a big car, like Plymouth, can give you a truly "big car" ride. This Plymouth's frame is longer, stronger; rear springs are wider; exclusive Oriflow shock absorbers have still more cushioning action. When you look at all 3 this year, you'll see why the big swing is to Plymouth! Come in today for your demonstration.

Extension Tea Attended By 100

An event of interest to many women in this section of the county was the Northeast Extension tea last Tuesday in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church. It was a social gathering of the members of the various home economics extension groups in the northeast quarter of Lenawee, and about 100 women were present.

Mrs. Hugh Mitchell of Holloway and Mrs. John Quigley, who is a member of the group near Tecumseh, known as the North east club were hostesses for the occasion. Mrs. Mitchell welcomed the members and guests and they were entertained by a program which included several musical numbers. The Birdsall Homemakers presented a dramatic skit Miss Judy Rohrback gave a tap dance and song and Mrs. Albert Smith and Mrs. Chet Godzina a dinlogue entitled "Mellow Drama."

Miss Josephine Brighenti, county home demonstration agent addressed the audience briefly. She mentioned the newly organized group in Holloway known as the "Round the Block" club and said that another was being projected in Tecumseh proper.

Group singing closed the program after which tea, coffee and cakes were served from tables whose decorations were in keeping with St. Patrick's Day.

Dundee Champ of League; Moore's Wins Tournament

The R. S. Moore & Son Company won the Men's Recreation League basketball round robin tournament last week. The Lumbermen are tournament champions but the Dundee Texaco team won the league title after a play-off with the Manchester Merchants.

The Lumbermen went through the five other teams in the league to cop the tournament title Friday night.

This is the result of tournament games:

The Lumbermen first knocked off the Manchester Merchants, 50 to 39. Stebor and Dunsmore had 12 points each for Moore's with Walkowe netting 15 for the losers.

In the semi-finals Moore's clipped the Manchester Independents, 47-39. Bob Moore led the winners with 14. Evilizer was high for the losers with 12.

In the finals Friday Moore's edged the Products, 43-36 with Dunsmore leading the champions with 17. Costigan was high for the Products with 11.

As a result of the win each Lumberman received a medal.

In other tournament games the Manchester Independents knocked the American Legion from play with a 43-27 win. Evilizer led the winners with 13. Several Legionaires netted five points each.

The Products clipped Dundee Texaco, 36-33. Schmidt led the winners with 12. Three Oilers had eight points each.

In the regular season play Dundee Texaco and the Manchester Merchants were tied with 8-2 records.

Dundee won the play-off game and the league title by crushing the Merchants, 75-38. Knabusch dumped 19 points for the champs and Fielder led the losers with 11.

The Oilers won a handsome trophy for winning the league title.

Every manager of the six-team league said he would like to see the league continue next year.

The league is sponsored by the Tecumseh Recreation Department.

1,000 FFA Boys At MSC This Month

About 1,000 young men—members of the Michigan Association of Future Farmers of America—will hold their annual convention at Michigan State College next week, March 24-26.

The three-day meeting includes leadership contests among regional winners in the FFA organization, the naming of award winners, banquets and inspirational speeches.

The Michigan boys will compete for honors in public speaking, parliamentary procedure, an open forum and in demonstrations.

Dr. H. P. Sweany of M.S.C.'s vocational education department said 210 youths will be awarded the State Farmer degree at the last day of the annual session. The Star Farmer—top FFA boy in the state—also will be named.

Other highlights include the annual banquet which this year will honor past winners of the American Farmer degree and the Star State Farmer award on the evening of the 23rd. A. W. Tenney, Washington, D. C., national executive FFA secretary, will speak at a delegate banquet on Friday evening. Eleven agricultural leaders will receive honorary State Farmer degrees.

James Boyne of Marlette is president of the Michigan association. David Boyne, James' brother, is past president of the National FFA organization.

Cubs Win Final Game

The St. Elizabeth Cubs climaxed the 1954-1955 basketball season with a thriller. The caging was done at Boysville with St. Alphonsus of Deerfield as opponent. The Cubs won 36-35.

With the excellent coaching of Jack Osburn the Cubs fought determined to be victorious. During the last four seconds Bob Wilkins scored the winning point. Big Bob was high point man contributing 19 points. Dave Weakly added 7, Jerry McCrate 6, Bob Davila 3, and Jerry Breitenwischer 1.

Britton FFA News

The Britton FFA chapter opened in regular form in a joint meeting with Tecumseh chapter at Britton. There were 38 members from Britton and 14 members from Tecumseh chapter.

The items of business for the evening were reports from the supervised farming committee, recreation committee and the earnings and savings committee.

The recreation committee reported on how the roller skating parties were making out. The next skating party is March 23 at the Adrian Skatarena. The supervised farming committee reported starting to hand feed fortified feed to the FFA steers.

The freshman and sophomore ag class is taking on a broiler project for class reference. They are to get 200 White Rock cockerels on Thursday and plan to keep them nine to 12 weeks.

The refreshment committee had donuts and milk after the meeting. Then we went to the school gym for a game of volley ball.

During World War II, Michigan produced one-eighth of all American war materials. Both in tonnage and dollar value, Michigan out-produced all other states during the period.

Attention Is Called To National Wildlife Week

Local civic and conservation organizations will be asked to take part in National Wildlife Week activities, scheduled March 20-26, according to an announcement by Frank Lasky, president of the Tecumseh Conservation League.

National Wildlife Week is a nationwide educational campaign, he said, sponsored annually by the National Wildlife Federation and its state and local affiliates. Purpose is to focus public attention on problems of natural resource management and the pressing need for better conservation practices.

The special theme for the 1955 observance will be "Save America's Wetlands," Mr. Lasky said. "Wetlands," he explained, is a general term meaning marshes, swamps, sloughs, bayous, lakes and similar natural water areas. Such areas, he pointed out, produce all the wild ducks and geese of America, most of the furbearers, and other valuable wildlife resources.

Reason for stressing wetlands preservation, he said, is that since America was settled by White Man, more than 90 million acres of original marshland and swamp have been destroyed by drainage, water pollution, and man-induced drought. Less than 30 million acres remain that are fit for waterfowl habitat, according to federal authorities.

"Our purpose," Mr. Lasky stated, "is to correct the erroneous idea, held by many people, that every marsh or swamp is a nuisance spot that ought to be drained. Some drainage has been necessary and desirable, but continued, indiscriminate drainage will only hasten the process of turning America into a sterile desert!"

Mr. Lasky said he hoped all service clubs and other civic groups would schedule talks and programs on conservation subjects during National Wildlife Week.

Michigan boasts nearly 30 per cent of the nation's total salt production. Its output of 4 million tons of salt annually is almost twice that of any other state. Production centers near Detroit and Saginaw.

Boat, Hooks Needed

The most recent tragedy of the Lee boy brings to mind a statement made by Chief George Kilbourn two weeks ago. At that time the police chief pointed out the need for a life-boat, motor, grappling hooks and a dragline that would be part of the equipment on the civil defense truck.

"Tecumseh has a lot of water in it and we need this equipment in the event of drownings," the chief said.

Presently Tecumseh police have to radio the Lenawee County Sheriff's Department for assistance when grappling hooks and a dragline are needed. Last summer when a woman and her son drowned in a local pond this had to be done and again last week when the Lee boy fell into the River Raisin the sheriff's equipment had to be brought in.

The Lee tragedy again shows that the police badly need this equipment. Funds for it would be a good project for the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce. What about it, Jaycees?

Let Them Know

The council would like to know if its constituents — meaning local taxpayers — want an outside tax survey made on city assessments. Councilmen feel that they do not want to make this decision alone without an "advisory vote" of the people.

So let's let them know. The HERALD is on record favoring this survey. We feel that this is the best way to insure that every home owner, business man and industrialist will be paying his fair share of the tax load and no more.

There are others we have talked with who also favor the outside survey of assessed valuation in the city. But there are others who are opposed. The council says it is not opposed but it has not put its stamp of approval on the proposed survey either. Councilmen wonder if the city can afford the cost (about $10,000). We wonder if the city can afford not to have it done.

The council wants the people to make the decision. This is big of the council; but the council in the final analysis will have to make the appropriation for the survey.

One school of "thought" opposed to the survey reports it will be done by a "bunch of college boys." This is pure bunk. The tax assessment survey crews are experienced ment that have the best references. They use a yardstick that will apply scientifically to every piece of property, to every home and to every personal inventory of business and industry.

Another report opposing the survey says it will "Up my taxes." Possibly, but not necessarily. In some cases the survey and card file might show that some taxes will be reduced.

Still another opponent says "I don't like having outsiders messing around in here." Perhaps this opponent would like to have the state step in and arbitrarily set the city assessment at $20 million plus with no recourse to change the high assessment for three years.

The outside survey merely serves as a guide post. City assessor John Saling will still be assesor and he can do with the survey material what he wants. No local control is lost by having the survey made. Adrian and Clinton have had the surveys made. If you're still in doubt about the survey check with officials of these two communities. They will tell it is well worth the time and funds expended.

We favor the survey basically for this reason: it will give the assessor a scientific and fair card file to make his assessments on, leaving out "personalities" and it will give Tecumseh a new start in the right direction of reassessing without having the state step in and tell us how to do it. There has been enough state socializing already.

But the council wants to know how you feel about it; so here is a handy blank for you to use:

I favor an outside tax survey of city assessments. ( )

I don't favor an outside tax survey of city assessments. ( )

Name .....

Address .....

Send the blank to the council, % The City of Tecumseh. Councilmen will be glad to hear from you.

"Can you come out to list a house right away?" a man's voice asked on the phone. "We are here to settle an estate and want to sell in a hurry."

Before long I was inspecting a large home in salable condition. "A friend recommended your firm to me," the man said, "and we are expecting real service."

"Yes," his wife added, "speed is essential. We would like to sell this week if possible since we're due back in Minneapolis."

The price was fair. That only left one question — the terms.

"Do you need all cash?" I asked.

"No, we really don't need the money. We would sell it for $1500 down to a reliable party," the man replied.

Returning to the office we phoned a couple of prospects who could make sizable monthly payments. Both of them looked at it that day. They liked it.

The next morning one asked to see it again—and bought it!

The house was SOLD in 36 hours!

The owners were overwhelmed —but very pleased. (So were the buyers.) They all agree they received "real service."

We need more 3 and 4 bedroom homes to sell. May we sell yours for you?

If he would make his record true:
To think without confusion clearly;
To love his fellowmen sincerely;
To act from honest motives purely;
To trust in God and Heaven securely."

MAKES HONOR ROLL

According to an announcement by Prof. Molly Parrish, registrar of Alma College, 138 students made the honor roll for the fall semester's work.

Statistics for the four classes are as follows: seniors, 36; juniors, 37; sophomores, 30; and freshmen, 35.

To qualify for the honor roll a student must maintain a "B" average in all his course work during the semester.

Marie Boyce, Rt. No. 2, Tecumseh, made the honor roll.

MAKES DEAN'S LIST

Thomas C. Rohweder, of 607 E. Logan street made the dean's list for outstanding scholastic work during the past semester at Adelbert College of Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio.

In order to qualify for the dean's list, Thomas earned a "B" average or better for college studies during the winter semester.

Adelbert College is the men's undergraduate division at Western Reserve University.

The Silver Lining

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

FOR ALL THE IRISH friends of the Lining and in memory of some of my ancestors who had they still been living, would have observed today as St. Patrick's Day — the day, legend tells us, honors St. Patrick who drove all the snakes out of Ireland — the following poem is submitted:

O Paddy dear and did ye hear
The news that's all around?
The shamrock never greener was
On good old Ireland's ground!
St. Patrick's Day we all will keep
His color's widely seen.
For there's no law at all ag'in
The Wearin' of the Green!

VERN MANWARING TELLS me he ain't as young as he used to be. Then he adds "Maybe I never was." Vern played ball with the kids Sunday and Monday he was seriously thinking of ordering a wheel chair.

HARRY ABBOTT NOW of Dearborn has seen a lot of changes in Tecumseh. Moving to a farm with his family north of Billington's Corners when he was seven, Harry had lived in the Tecumseh area 68 years before leaving for Dearborn five years ago. Dropping in to renew his subscription, Harry said he doesn't know many folks here any more. "Why I remember Tecumseh as a sleepy little town of about 2100 and now look at it," he added. Harry was one of the first to work at the Products. He worked there as an inspector until he was more than 70 years old. On March 27 he will be 80 years old.

ANOTHER SIGN OF SPRING is all the salesmen who call on us. Thought it was strange — then I noted that my wife had been clipping garden ideas from magazines and asking for literature. She was carried away and didn't realize that by sending for the literature on the care and training of flowers and plants that she was rapidly becoming what is known in sales parlance as a "lead."

IT REALLY WON'T be long before you can start seeding your lawn. The Michigan Department of agriculture estimates that 93,000,000 pounds of seed will be tossed to the winds this spring and summer. (Of course it is hoped some of this will take root.) Ten per cent of this national consumption or about 93,000 pounds — will be sown in Michigan. This ain't hay. And if you had to buy all this it wouldn't be hay, either.

KENT NAUGLE, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Naugle of south Adrian street, did not need any robins to tell him it was spring last week. But he counted 14 wild geese going over. They were headed south east, which was wrong way for a goose in the spring but, as it was 5:30 p. m., Kent figured they were looking for open water to spend the night.

A TECUMSEH HOMEMAKER says that the words "In God We Trust" are placed on pennies for the benefit of those who use them for fuses.

THE LITTLE TECUMSEH lad was late and the teacher asked him the reason for his tardiness. He replied breathlessly: "I ran so fast, teacher, that I didn't have time to think of one."

NEWSCASTERS ALSO MAKE "Typographical errors." Monday one of the finest—William Sheehan of WJR—said "Here's a few years to add words to your life."

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "When all is said and done too many people keep on saying and not doing."

DID YOU KNOW THAT CATS like catnip and cows like cowslips but skunks won't go near skunk cabbage?

Odor is not the problem. Skunk cabbage smells like any other plant until it is crushed or bruised. Then it gives out a sharp, acrid scent that would make any polecat feel at home.

Skunks, and most other animals except man, avoid eating skunk cabbage because it is mildly poisonous in the raw state, according to Dr. Marion T. Hall, botanist at Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills.

A relative of jack-in-the-pulpit, skunk cabbage has other distinctions besides its smell. It is popularly called "the first flower of spring," and has a built-in furnace hot enough to melt winter snow.

This early emergence led greens-hungry Indians to seek a means of adding the plant to their diet. They found that boiling the tender leaves and whitish leafstalks three times, pouring off the water each time, removed both the poison and the offensive odor.

Today many fine herb gourments still like this succulent vegetable seasoned with butter, salt and pepper, and eaten like spinach.

A STRIKE OF SHIP EMPLOYEES was a boon to Mr. and Mrs. Don Martin. The Martins with hundreds of others were put off the ship in New York harbor when the "sailors" went out on strike. Those put off, including the Martins, were bound for Bermuda. The boon developed when the Martins and the rest in the all-expense trip to Bermuda, sponsored by the Crosley Corp., were flown to Bermuda for their week's vacation. The ship cruise would have taken two days. The flying machine made it in three and one-half hours. So the Martins and the rest had an unscheduled sight-seeing trip around New York City and an added day in Bermuda. The whole trip, won by Don in a sales contest, was called "wonderful" by the Martins. And it cost them only 45 cents for two phone calls.

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK — Never lose an opportunity of seeing everything that is beautiful; for beauty is God's handwriting — a wayside sacrament. Welcome it in every fair face, in every fair sky, in every fair flower, and thank God for it as a cup of blessing.

It Won't Be Long Until Spring!

Spring is here — almost.

It arrives officially at 4:36 a. m. Monday, March 21, according to Associate Prof. Hazel M. Losh of the University of Michigan's astronomy department.

This marks the time when the Sun is crossing the equator on its way north, and darkness and daylight will be of equal length on that day, she points out.

Our daylight hours will steadily increase from then until the Summer Solstice in June when the Sun reaches its northernmost point.

The brief appearance of Mercury in the sky will highlight the month's planetary configurations. Mercury is usually hard to spot because it is so close to the Sun Professor Losh explains, but for a few mornings around March 10 the planet will be visible on a line from Venus toward the east point of the horizon, rising about an hour before the Sun.

Jupiter will continue as one of the brightest objects and can be located high in the sky at dark near and to the south of Pollux and Castor in Gemini. On March 3 and 31 the Moon will pass about two degrees below Jupiter.

Saturn will rise around midnight in the southeast in the constellation of Libra, the Scales, and should be easy to identify because there are no other bright objects in the vicinity, Professor Losh declares.

Libra is a four-sided figure and not a very bright constellation. Saturn will be found about halfway between the white star Spica, in the constellation Virgo, rising two hours earlier, and the red Antares in Scorpius, coming over the horizon an hour or so after the planet.

"Saturn's unique ring system makes it one of the most striking objects to be viewed," says Professor Losh, and the rings can be distinguished even with a small telescope, she adds.

One of the chief star groups in the spring sky is the giant Bear Driver, Bootes. This constellation is easily recognized from its kite like outline and the bright star Arcturus in the tail of the kite. During spring evenings this star shines brilliantly above the northeastern horizon being the first of the stars to break through the twilight.

For identification, Professor Losh points out, a prolonged line through the three stars in the handle of the Big Dipper curves down thirty degrees to this star orange in color and ranking fourth in brightness of the stars visible form this latitude.

It is a vast sun, thirty-six light years distant and one hundred times as bright as our own Sun.

Corona Borealis, or the Northern Crown, rises in the northeast below Bootes and is arranged in a semicircle resembling a giant tiara or the letter "C" backwards. It is composed of seven fairly bright stars set at about equal distances apart.

The 1955 auto license plates in Michigan bear the green and white school colors of Michigan State College.

Goodwill Issues Emergency Call

An emergency call for usable repairable discards was made today by Goodwill Industries, Michigan's largest employer of handicapped people.

Without the support of householders who are the backbone of the effort, Goodwill Industries cannot help the handicapped to help themselves, cannot give jobs and cannot exist.

"The collection of discards during February was dangerously low. If we hope to keep our people steadily employed," said Harold H. McKinnon, Executive Secretary, "we must have a rapid influx of materials."

"Goodwill Industries is very optimistic about the future picture for 1955 and has hopes of hiring more handicapped people from its waiting list," McKinnon said. "We know that the decline in the flow of material is seasonal, but we feel the public should realize our present needs."

McKinnon asked housewives who would normally begin house cleaning a month from now to get an early start. This would be a lifeline for Goodwill Industries and would pro-rate the work of spring housecleaning over a long period of time giving the housewife a break during April and May.

He pointed out that in the past 24 years Detroit Goodwill had rehabilitated over 20,000 people whose handicaps included amputations, polio, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, arrested TB and old age.

The Detroit Goodwill Industries, unlike others in the country, is completely self-supporting and receives no financial help from an outside agency. The workers' salaries are paid from profits made in an open competitive market. Goodwill has been able to do this because the Detroit area has been so thoughtful in sending usable discards. It has kept the Goodwill employees off charity rolls either public or private and has rebuilt many lives.

In Buying Fish Know What To Look, Ask For

What do you look for when you are buying fish for Lenten meals?

Anita Dean, of the institution administration staff at Michigan State College, has a few suggestions on the purchase of fish.

A fish must be fresh or frozen. When fresh, the gills are red, the scales cling to the fish, the eyes are bright and bulging and the flesh is elastic. The flesh should be firm enough so when touched with your fingers, it will leave no impression. All fish, Mrs. Dean says, have a characteristic fresh fish odor, but there should be no foreign odor.

Buy fish fresh or frozen; dressed or drawn; whole split or in pieces as fillets or steaks. A dressed fish is one with scales, fins, head, tail an dentrails removed. A drawn fish has head, tail and entrails removed. Fish steaks only removed.

When purchasing a fish to bake whole, request the fish dealer, suggests Mrs. Dean, to "run the fins." This means removing all the fine fish bones within the flesh. You can also have the blood line removed when buying whole fish. You can also do this yourself by scraping it out under running water. Do this before storing it, since this is the main source of "fish off-odors."

Frozen fish and shell fish come cleaned and trimmed, ready for use. Follow cooking directions on the package.

Mrs. Dean feels the importance of garnishing fish with something colorful and crisp is not to be overlooked. To make the dish more appetizing and to give it eye-appeal, she suggests lemon or lime slices, parsley, paprika, watercress, hard cooked egg slices, wedges or grated yolks, beets cooked whole or sliced, green pepper sticks or rings, pickles and radishes.

Are you a "Do-It-Yourself" Driver?
Or would you rather be waited on hand and foot?

Apply the brakes like this . . . or have power make it easier?

Improved brakes and new swing-type pedals make stopping a cinch. And Chevrolet's exclusive Anti-Dive control gives you "heads up" stops!

Chevrolet Power Brakes* are better than ever this year—let you stop by a simple pivot of your foot from accelerator to swing type brake pedal.

Rather shift for yourself . . . or let Powerglide do it?

Shifting's smooth and easy with Chevrolet's new and finer Synchro-Mesh transmission. A flick of your wrist is all it takes to shift gears.

Powerglide, too, is better than ever this year. Even smoother and sturdier. It's the most popular automatic transmission* in Chevrolet's field!

Rather roll your own . . . or just push a button?

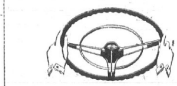
Chevrolet gives you separate crank controls both for windows and ventipanes. It's one of many extra conveniences in Chevrolet's Body by Fisher.

Your fingertip adjusts all four windows with automatic window and seat controls.* Are available on all Bel Air and "Two-Ten" models.

Position the seat yourself . . . or let electricity do it?

Chevrolet's big, beautifully upholstered front seat moves up and forward or down and back into your most comfortable driving position.

No worry about your battery in a new Chevrolet. It's the only car in its field with the reserve power of a 12-volt electrical system!



Want standard steering . . . or extra-easy Power Steering?

Try this easy new Chevrolet steering. Only Chevrolet and some higher-priced cars use a ball bearing system to cut friction to a minimum.

There's nothing quite so easy as Power Steering, of course. Good news: Chevrolet's new linkage-type Power Steering* carries a reduced price!

Automatically—

Chevrolet's stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars!

What's a high-priced car got that Chevrolet hasn't? Not automatic power features. Not style—just look below. Not performance—just try out Chevrolet's new V8 or one of the new 6's. Not ride—perhaps the thing that will surprise you most is Chevrolet's fine, solid feel on the road. Come put it to the test. See how Chevrolet's stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars in every way!

*Optional at extra cost.

Radio-TV Set For Prep Students, Teachers

Michigan high school students and teachers will gather on Michigan State campus March 21 for a one-day radio-TV conference.

The event for the students will be the first annual one of its kind while for the teachers it will be the 10th annual radio and television conference. The department of speech at Michigan State is sponsoring the meeting.

Gordon Webber, assistant director of television copy for the New York firm of Benton and Bowles, heads the list of speakers. Webber, who is a native of Linden, Mich., is the author of the recent best-seller, "Years of Eden."

He will speak at 1 p.m. at the conference on "Creative and Commercial Writing."

Radio and television officials from various stations in Michigan and members of the radio and television teaching staff at Michigan State will participate in the program.

Special events have been planned for the students, including personal interviews and performances before the cameras of WKAR-TV, the Michigan State television station.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

In the record we read that Jesus often got up a great while before day and went out to pray, and that sometimes he spent the whole night in prayer. Why so early, why so long?

Surely the answer is, because he enjoyed God and because he needed God. From the moment of birth he was surrounded by the spirit of worship, and had partaken of prayer with his mother's milk. As a child he had wandered across the hills, becoming saturated with the beauty of God's earth and feeding his soul upon its glories.

No certainty was so sure as the presence of God, and to converse with his Father was as natural as breathing. Through the years Jesus came to know the love of God as no man before had ever experienced it. God was more real than any human friend was real and companionship with the Father was the supreme joy of his life. From these hours of glorious friendship, Jesus earned the right to speak of the joy which he longed to share with his disciples.

Jesus went early and stayed late also because he needed God. he required insight and vision, faith and courage, hope and fortitude. Compassion brought upon his shoulders the burdens of the people, and love caused him to weep over the city. No man was ever so sensitive to pain in others, so responsive to another's sorrow, so grieved over human sinning.

But everywhere he found men encrusted in tradition, dominated by appetite and passion, separated from God and their fellows. Indifference and inertia and despair had settled as a pall of doom upon the people. How to awaken them, instruct them, nurture them, redeem them, how, how, how? So he sought companionship with his Father in order to be guided and empowered. Thus he arose early to pray, and sometimes he prayed all night.

Whooping Cough Increases But It's Mild Form

The number of whooping cough cases reported in Michigan shot up in 1954, but the state health department says many persons probably caught a milder form of the disease, which isn't prevented by immunization.

"The near doubling of cases with no rise in deaths points to the mild form of whooping cough," says Dr. F. S. Leeder, director of the health department's disease control division. "So whooping cough developing in immunized children last year doesn't necessarily mean that the vaccine failed. Many children undoubtedly caught the mild variety."

Michigan had 5,620 cases of whooping cough reported in 1954, against 2,932 in 1953. Deaths attributed to the disease remained at the same low in both years — 14 in 1954 and 13 in 1953.

"Remember, this mild variety visits only once in 20 years," Dr. Leeder cautions. "Bonafide whooping cough—and you can't tell them apart by symptoms—is always dangerous."

MSC Glee Club Will Sing Here

The Michigan State College Men's Glee Club of 55 voices will present a concert before a student assembly at Tecumseh High School Wednesday, March 23, at 2 p.m.

Men from every school in the college make up the glee club. It is a non-credit activity, the men participating for their own enjoyment and musical advancement.

Director is Edward Richmond.

Local MSC alumni will be hosts at a special dinner when the club sings here.

Wednesday night the glee club will present a concert in the First Baptist Church of Adrian at 8 p.m. Tickets for this concert will be available at Butler Motor Sales and from local MSC alumni.

Kroger Co. Names Three New Directors

Three new directors were elected today to the board of the Kroger Co. at the annual shareholders' meeting.

They are David L. Rike, president of the Rike-Kumler Co. of Dayton, O.; T. Spencer Shore, president of the Eagle-Picher Co. of Cincinnati; and Edward D. Smith, president of the First National Bank of Atlanta, Ga.

The Rike-Kumler Co., Dayton department store which Mr. Rike has headed since 1947, is one of the oldest retail businesses in the country still under the active management of the founding family. Mr. Shore has been president of the Eagle-Picher Co. since 1949. The company operates some 60 lead and zinc mines and 19 manufacturing plants in 11 states. Prior to being named president of the First National Bank of Atlanta a year ago, Mr. Smith was a partner in the law firm of Smith, Kilpatrick, Cody, Rogers and McClatchey.

The new directors succeed Walter A. Draper and Charles M. Robertson of Cincinnati and Donald M. Wood of Chicago, who were not nominees for re-election. Mr. Draper and Mr. Robertson will be directors emeritus, while Mr. Wood will remain a director of Manufacturers and Merchants Indemnity Company, a Kroger subsidiary.

Directors re-elected at the annual meeting were John C. Baker, William P. Carter, Jacob E. Davis, Charles W. Dupuis, Harry J. Gilligan, Joseph B. Hall, Carl M. Jacobs, A. T. Kearney, John M. Leckhart, and Stanley M. Rowe.

Mr. Hall, Kroger president, announced that the company's Nashville branch had won the president's trophy for outstanding performance during 1954. The award was accepted for the branch by Nelson Robinson, branch manager.

SPRING MIRACLE

It was flooded low-lands that brought so many unusual birds into the town during spring migration a few years ago. At least those people who always know the why of things said that was the reason for the miracle of that Sunday morning in May.

The sun was warm on the back yard and it was a flick of brilliant color among the new leaves that precipitated the dash out of doors. What was that bird! Once outside, the dash ended in awe-struck abruptness. There was not one bird, there were dozens. A soft, liquid twitter filled the air and sparks of color darted from shrub to tree. A flock of northbound warblers had stopped to rest and feed. It seemed that every jewel tone of their myriad variations was represented.

It was a devastating situation for an amateur bird watcher. There was riches beyond our comprehension. What to do!—Get the bird book?—Telephone some one who knew all the answers?—It seemed greedy not to share such a treat—but they might be gone at any moment—and after all, what did names matter?—it was like pinning a label on a sunbeam.

Probably there were Canadian warblers in that flock, and Redpolls and Magnolias and dozens of others well known to the experts. But we will never know and, after those first, frantic minutes, we did not care. The opportunity to flourish a triumphant list of "identified specimens" was lost forever. But nothing can ever erase the picture they left. They were such happy little birds and so utterly lovely in the spring sunshine. There were iridescent olive green ones, black splashed with red, blue on soft yellow and every possible combination of orange, gray and yellow. One moment the yard was vocal with their contented warble, then gradually, one by one they were gone and all at once the rim of the wheelbarrow was a very uncomfortable seat.

13 Graduate From MSC Short Courses

Thirteen Lenawee County men were among 230 graduates from the Michigan State College winter term short courses last week.

Louis G. Hall, County Agricultural Agent, points out that Harry Brooks, Rt. 1, Adrian completed the first term; Robert Bartholomew, Berkey, Ohio, Dean Gautz, Rt. 1, Adrian, Royal Griffin, Rt. 4, Adrian, Thomas Mallory, 5600 Carrol Rd., Blissfield, William Rambo, Palmyra, Melvin Schafer, 10700 Macon Hwy., Tecumseh, Percy Shaffer, Rt. 2, Adrian, and Eugene Withrow, Tipton, completed the second term; Arthur Henry, Rt. 2, Tecumseh, Arnold Klump, 112 W. Jefferson, Blissfield, and Roger Roback, Rt. 2, Adrian completed the fourth term; and Charles Helzer, Palmyra, completed a term in Dairy Manufacturing.

Charles Feenstra, state senator from Kent County and a graduate of the M.S.C. short course in 1914, was the speaker for the commencement program. Dean of Agriculture, T. K. Cowden, awarded the graduating certificates.

Cowden also presented citations from the M.S.C. short course department to Senator Feenstra and Garfield Farley, 1904 short course student.

The short course department has held classes in three terms of agricultural short courses this winter and three specializing courses—in agricultural engineering, fruit production and dairy, agent Hall adds.

First Grade—Central

Many of us are now reading in Our New Friends. The stories in this book are much longer than those in the other books we have read and we enjoy them very much. At the beginning of this year our book shelves were filled with books which we could not read; now we have either read the books or will begin reading them very soon.

In Science class we have been learning about plants. We find that plants must eat and drink and breathe and rest just the same as boys and girls must.

Steven brought his book about Bambi. We enjoyed this book so much that we have written our own stories about Bambi and drawn pictures to illustrate them.

Judy Wells is our new girl. We are happy to have Judy with us.

Mrs. Puffer's second grade let us have the four baby chickens which they had for a little while in our room. We all liked them, and to a few children seeing baby chickens was a new and thrilling experience.

Gary Hall is back from his vacation in Florida. Gary brought many interesting things to school to show us.

We have been enjoying poems about our "fur and feather" friends. We particularly like the one about the Woodpecker and Squirrel.

Grade One—Central
Mrs. VanValkenburg

We have been talking about some of "The Signs of Spring," then along came a snow storm. We wrote a story about the month of March. Dexter Bailey brought some forsythia for us to watch blossom out. Some pussy willows also came. We have been talking about our trip to a Sugar Bush some time next week, if the weather permits.

A short time ago Steven Hunt brought a birthday treat for all of us. Janet Southwell also had a birthday.

One class has finished reading and studying Fun with Dick and Jane, and has started to read Our New Friends. We all enjoyed taking home the book, Happy Days with Our Friends, which we have finished reading. We like to read stories to our parents and friends.

Grade One—West Branch
Miss Steinhoff

Spring is in the air. The marbles, jumping ropes and skates have all appeared at school and soon "Old Man Winter" will be gone for this year. All the boys and girls are looking forward to Easter.

This time, Readers, about half of us are enjoying reading Our New Friends.

In our number class we are working on groups of objects whose sum is eight.

During the last four weeks, Barbara Wood, Richard Brighton, Linda Brazee, David Phillips, Larry Koons and Marsha Curth celebrated their birthdays.

On February 21, Teresa Mann came to Tecumseh to be with us. Now we have 33 children in our room.

We had our P.T.A. meeting in the third grade room on February 28. Our room won a beautiful deep rose Azalea plant. We want to thank our parents who made this possible. There were 27 parents—even seven fathers, present. Thanks again.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mohr were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cottle and children of Bryan, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. George Ely of Montpelier, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Fackler and Lynford Mohr of Pioneer, Ohio. Tecumseh relatives joined them in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hamaker are in Pensacola, Fla. where they are visiting their son, Lt. Commander William Hamaker who is stationed at the Pensacola Naval Air Station. They left last Thursday and will probably be in Florida a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Matie Stull of Petersburg spent Sunday with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ehlinger. She was accompanied by her sister Mrs. Hattie Severin of Toledo and her daughter, Mrs. June England and family. Mrs. England's son, Hobart Hatcher, a member of the U. S. Air Force in Texas, was a surprise guest.

Dr. Arthur H. Brown, local dentist and anesthetist at Herrick Memorial hospital has been notified of his appointment to membership in the American Dental Society of Anesthesiology which is composed of dentists who are also anesthetists.

MICHIGAN LIFE LINES!

FROM THE VERY BEGINNING, roads have been built to further commerce and trade, and down through the centuries the first requirement whenever a new territory was to be settled has been to build roads.

Michigan has over 100,000 miles of roads and streets, most of which are surfaced and in good condition. These are Michigan's life lines, without which the State could not exist.

For over these highways farm produce goes to market, raw materials and parts get to factories, finished products reach the consumer. Over these highways trucks bring you everything you eat, wear, or use!

Mr. Henry McKenzie

Highland Parker says, "We didn't know how well off we were!"

"We didn't appreciate how much our Blue Cross - Blue Shield meant to us until we had to use it recently for the first time," says Mr. McKenzie, of Highland Park. "Out of a clear blue sky, I wound up in the hospital for over three weeks. We told them we had Blue Cross - Blue Shield . . . just showed our identification card . . . and everything was taken care of automatically! No bother at all. Our Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract covered $1000 worth of hospital services . . . and Blue Shield paid $261 for X-rays, surgical services and doctor fees. No one will ever talk us out of our Blue Cross - Blue Shield!"

Only Blue Cross - Blue Shield plans give you an A-1 credit rating at practically every general hospital in Michigan . . . and with almost every licensed physician! Only these non-profit, community-sponsored plans make possible so much protection at such low cost!

1 in 3 families face hospital bills every year! Find out how you can have low-cost group coverage for your family. A company with as few as 5 employees may qualify as a group. Today, call or write: Blue Cross - Blue Shield

Absent: Councilman Schwartz, Smith, Titley.

Meeting opened with the invocation by Councilman Bashore.

Minutes of the meeting held February 21, 1955 were read and approved.

Motion Moore and seconded Kelso the bills amounting to $9,207.64 be allowed and orders drawn up for same. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Kelso and seconded Bashore to approve temporary plat for "Addition to Goodacre Gardens". Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Kelso and seconded Bashore to approve plat of first addition to Sunset Mead and effective date Friday, March 11, 1955. Motion carried unanimously.

RESOLUTION

The following preamble and resolution was offered by Councilman Bashore and supported by Councilman Kelso:

WHEREAS it has come to the attention of this Council that the Policemen and Firemen Lobby is persisting in its attempt to force Municipalities to adopt 40-hour week for policemen and firemen; and also is attempting to enforce the recognition of an additional "Kelly Day;" and

WHEREAS such legislation is deemed a threat against the Municipal powers of all Michigan Municipalities and is a further symptom of the vicious centralization of power which has been attempted throughout the nation at large; and

WHEREAS the proponents of said legislation failed to point out that the duty hours covered by said legislation would include time spent eating and sleeping.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That this Municipality go upon record as being emphatically opposed to Senate Bill No. 1116 and to Senate Bill No. 1079 as being vicious in their objectives and an improper invasion of Municipal powers.

2. That the Clerk be instructed to forward a copy of this Resolution to Representative Rollo Conlin and to Senator Elmer Porter, Representatives of this County in the State Capital.

3. That Senator Lane of Flint be censored for introducing such legislation.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED.

Attest H. H. Hanna, Mayor
Attest Naomi Sallows, Clerk

Dated: 7 March 1955

Motion Bashore and seconded Kelso to adopt the preceding resolution. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Kelso and seconded Moore to accept the City Manager's report as read. Motion carried unanimously.

Make Plans For Your Stay In Hospital

So you are going to the hospital? Although "going to the hospital" is much more common than it used to be, many people still have a feeling of uneasiness about it.

When you know in advance you'll be a hospital patient, you can prepare for it. Jean McHarg of the nursing education staff at Michigan State College, advises you to prepare mentally and physically. Accept your doctor's advice and know that your decision to go to the hospital is for the best.

Don't be ashamed, if you feel uneasy or don't understand something, ask questions. Your nurse is prepared to give you information to put your mind at ease. If your questions pop up before your arrival at the hospital, call them for information.

To prepare yourself physically, be sure you have taken the prescribed medication while waiting to enter the hospital. Get a proper amount of rest and avoid people with colds. Miss McHarg also suggests you do what you can to give yourself a feeling of well-being. For example, if you are a man, have your hair trimmed; if you are a woman, have your hair shampooed and set.

Think carefully of the things you will want to pack to take to the hospital, Miss McHarg suggests. Storage space is usually limited at hospitals so pack systematically. It's a wise idea to make a list of all things you take.

Careful preparation to go to the hospital will make hospitalization much more comfortable and easier on all concerned.

Christian Science Services Listed

How spiritual understanding of God brings freedom and happiness will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter" will include the account of Moses' call from God to free the children of Israel from bondage.

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (209:4): "Moses advanced a nation to the worship of God in Spirit instead of matter, and illustrated the grand human capacities of being bestowed by immortal Mind."

The Golden Text is from John (6:63): "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing."

Auxiliary Gives $250 For Hospital Kitchen Items

An interesting and well attended meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary was held in Fellowship Center the evening of March 8. During the business meeting, conducted by the vice-president, Mrs. Robert Fuller, a number of reports were given.

Mrs. Edward Boss told of the plans of the scholarship committees and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw reported on the use that had been made of a $100 gift for small items of kitchen equipment. The list was so impressive that the auxiliary voted her committee $250 from its funds for the same purpose.

Mrs. Ralph Helzerman gave an optimistic summary of the results of the hospital cart project. As this is now established as a successful fixture of the institution, it was decided to purchase a new and more convenient cart to replace the make-shift one now in use.

Mrs. F. C. Dickinson told of the visit to Tecumseh of the group of graduate nurses from eight foreign countries, sponsored by the auxiliary. It was the opinion of the organization that the heartwarming response of the visitors had more than compensated for the effort involved.

A mystery card party for the benefit of the hospital was explained by Mrs. Ray Sluyter. A number of simultaneous parties are planned in homes of Tecumseh, Britton, Clinton and Springville connected only by telephone for the selection of prize winners. This will be held Thursday evening, March 31 and anyone wishing to entertain a group may still make arrangements by calling Mrs. Ben Gillies of Herrick Park.

The membership committee, headed by Mrs. Carlos Jones, reported that 43 new members had joined since the last meeting and Miss Gertrude Spaulding read an invitation from the South Michigan League for Nursing. In conjunction with the Washtenaw District Association, the League is sponsoring a program regarding the mental health resources of a community at the School of Public Health in Ann Arbor March 10 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Hilda Will was then introduced and in connection with pictures showing voice rehabilitation following throat surgery, told of methods used to restore speech to patients whose "voice box" had been destroyed. John Saling showed the film for Mrs. Will. As a demonstration of the possibilities of general rehabilitation, Miss Jean Crowley told of the progress she had made and showed her newly won ability to walk with braces and crutches.

A second speaker was Mrs. Raymond Platt from the County Probate Court office who gave a most interesting account of her work with the children and adults who are wards of the court.

Mrs. Ray Sluyter and her committee, Mrs. Luther Kempf, Mrs. Carlos Jones, Mrs. Charles Stevenson and Mrs. Charles Newell served refreshments to the group from a table decorated in St. Patrick's Day colors.

U.S.D.A. researchers have come up with a fat-free, pillow-shaped, puffed potato tidbit that can be flavored and has a crunchy texture and toasted color. It's good for out-of-hand eating, in soups and stuffings.

Hospital Auxiliary Plans Card Party

A benefit card party that is different is being planned by members of the Hospital Auxiliary. To take place the evening of Thursday, March 31, this affair will be made up of many parties linked only by telephone.

Mrs. B. F. Gillies is chairman of the event and the homes that have been scheduled to date are those of Mrs. Richard Eggleston, Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Philip Colgrove, Mrs. Ray Schlegel and Mrs. R. T. Hammel in Tecumseh and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt in Britton, Mrs. Lee Hubbard, Springville and Mrs. Ben Marhle Jr. in Clinton.

Tables will be arranged by each hostess for four different card games and at the close of play scores of each game will be called by telephone to Mrs. Gillies, 301-W. Prizes will then be awarded on an over all basis.

Should other auxiliary members desire to open their home for a group they may make arrangements by calling Mrs. Gillies.

---delivered and ready to roll

We keep coming across a good many people who still are surprised when they see the low delivered price of the Buick shown here.

They're surprised because they know that this price is just about what a lot of the smaller cars are asking—if not more.

But that's just the point.

What's making the 1955 Buick the hottest one in all Buick sales history is the simple fact that its low delivered price buys so much more automobile.

Much more automobile when it comes to the lift and life of great V8 power—Buick power in record might.

Much more automobile when it comes to style and size and room and ride steadiness—and the integrity of construction that comes of Buick building.

Much more, too, when it comes to matching your motoring needs to the simple practicality of your budget—because Buick offers you a stunning choice in just about every price class...

Like the rock-bottom-priced SPECIAL—the high-powered CENTURY—the extra-spacious SUPER—the magnificent and custom-built ROADMASTER. Each is a Buick through and through—and each is a big reason why Buick sales are soaring as never before.

Why not drop in on us this week and see how much your new-car dollars can really buy—in thrills and fun and comfort and deep satisfaction—when you buy Buick.

DID YOU KNOW—

☆ —that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below any other car of 188 horsepower and 122-inch wheelbase?

☆ —that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below some models of the three best-known smaller cars?

☆ —that the Buick SPECIAL gives you more pounds of automobile than any other car at its low price?

*Local delivered price of the 2-door, 4-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as: Heater & Defroster . . . $81.70; Radio & Antenna . . . $92.50.

COUNCIL CANDIDATES STATE THEIR VIEWS

The Questions

These five questions, prepared by the HERALD, were asked of the nine candidates seeking the five council posts open in the April 4 city election.

Each candidate also was asked to furnish background information in addition to these five questions, greatly condensed, that have been discussed by the city council at some time during the past year:

1. Do you favor having an outside source re-assess the city on a scientific basis so that assessments will be more equitable and to use this yardstick to put the city's valuation more in line with the county average as it relates to the state equalized valuation?
2. Do you favor a city-wide bond proposal to carry city water and sewer lines to parts of the city that presently do not have these services?
3. Do you think a one or two-mill tax levy would be advisable for current operating expenses of Herrick Memorial hospital?
4. Would you like to see a new civic auditorium included in the plans for a new city hall?
5. What community project or projects are the most important for the future growth and development of the City of Tecumseh?

LeRoy H. Titley

BACKGROUND

LeRoy H. Titley has been a Tecumseh resident 25 years. He is a property owner living at 409 west Chicago Blvd. Mr. Titley is married and he is the father of two sons and a daughter. He is 48.

He owns and operates a local insurance agency.

Mr. Titley is a member of the Rotary Club, the Masons, Knights of Pythias, and the Presbyterian Church.

He served as village treasurer for three years and as Tecumseh Township supervisor for 12 years. He also has been a member of the Lenawee County Board of Supervisors for 13 years. He is now serving as finance committee chairman for the board. He was chairman of the board in 1952. He has been a City of Tecumseh councilman since Jan., 1954.

He also is a member of the board of directors for the Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic.

COMMENT

1. Since I have not had a chance to see the latest assessments as set by the board of review I am sure I am not in a position to answer this question. At any rate I do not think the matter of assessments should be a political issue.

2. I think the city now has a very fine and equitable plan for supplying sewer and water to new areas.

3. Having just returned from a two-week stay at Herrick Memorial hospital I must say that this city is indeed fortunate in its hospital facilities and personnel.

I shall always be grateful for the courtesies extended me by the considerate staff at Herrick Memorial hospital.

If the hospital needs additional operating funds I am sure no one would be opposed.

4. A new city hall and civic auditorium would be an asset to the city if and when the funds are available.

Donald Purkey

BACKGROUND

Donald Purkey, 27, lives with his wife and two children on Occidental road. He has lived in Tecumseh almost 16 years. He is a property owner.

Employed as service manager at Schneider Brothers, Mr. Purkey is a volunteer fireman. He also is a member and a director of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

COMMENT

1. This question should not be considered political. But I think a fair and just equalized assessment is the only way every taxpayer can be sure that everybody is paying his full share of the expenses it takes to operate and maintain our city as it should be. In this way the community as a whole will benefit. This is, after all, what we all want.

2. When the people voted to become a city, this question should have been carefully thought and decided. Water and sewer lines are nothing more than normal conveniences that city residents expect and should have. This project would cost a lot of money but with a more equitable assessed valuation, we could provide this necessity at very little cost per property owner.

3. We are very fortunate in having such a fine hospital to use when the need arises. I am in favor of a tax levy to help in meeting expenses but as to how much would depend on inquiring into the situation and also on the ultimate outcome of our assessed valuation.

4. Who wouldn't like to see a new civic auditorium? If we think in terms of the future, yes, I am in favor of it.

5. One big project that is fast becoming a real problem is the lack of parking facilities within easy reach of the shopping district. A careful analysis of this problem and the answer would benefit both the merchants and the people merchants depend on for their living.

Arthur J. Schwartz

BACKGROUND

Arthur J. Schwartz, of 3051 Shady Lane, is 30. A property owner, he has lived in Tecumseh three and one-half years.

Mr. Schwartz is married and he is the father of a daughter. He works in the engineering laboratory at Tresco, Inc.

Mr. Schwartz is a member of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Presbyterian Church. He is a member of the city council, having served a year after being appointed by the council.

COMMENT

1. I feel that re-assessing for equalizing city taxes is only just. Trying to meet the state requirements is another problem, virtually impossible at the present time.

2. In order to keep the city solvent water and sewer should be extended to the areas lacking these facilities, with the major cost going to the areas that benefit directly. A portion of the cost should be borne by the city as a whole. The sooner — the better.

3. Perhaps a one-half or one-mill tax set aside in a sinking fund, administered by the council, should be set aside for hospital use. This would be cheap insurance to the city, for the hospital facilities available to the citizens.

4. No comment.

5. The most important city project is up to the citizens — "partiepate in the government of their city."

John Hamilton

BACKGROUND

John H. Hamilton, 29, of 413 east Shawnee, is owner and manager of John's Gulf Service. He is a property owner. A resident 26 years, he is the father of four children.

Mr. Hamilton is a member of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce, the VFW, the American Legion and he is a member of the volunteer fire department. Elder and church school superintendent of the First Presbyterian Church, he also is a counselor of the Teen Club.

COMMENT

1. Yes.

2. I feel that the city should pay the expense of taking water and sewer to subdivisions and property owners should pay expenses from this point.

3. Yes, but first pay off the school bond.

4. Yes. But there are many more important things to be taken care of before this should be considered.

5. I feel the re-assessing of the city is the most important project. By doing so we will better our schools and the city as a whole.

S. R. Illeck

BACKGROUND

S. R. Illeck, 43, of 307 west Bidwell street, has been a resident of Tecumseh three years. He is a property owner.

He and Mrs. Illeck have one child.

Mr. Illeck is credit manager at Tecumseh Products Company. He is a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Illeck served two years as township committeeman in a town of 8500 in New Jersey.

COMMENT

No comments on questions numbered one to five at this time. These are basic issues which can be decided only as information is available. These are of a political nature; and, since the council is non-partisan, I cannot see how any individual can determine at this time what is required. Our planning commission would have available the information which would qualify them to pilot Tecumseh through the problems arising from its rapid growth and to plan the best methods of meeting our future requirements.

William M. Powell

BACKGROUND

William M. Powell, 33, of 234 Park street, has lived in Tecumseh 30 years. He is a property owner.

He and Mrs. Powell have two children.

Mr. Powell is a salesman for the R. J. McCoy Real Estate Agency.

He is a member of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Exchange Club and the Methodist Church.

For the past year he has served on the city planning commission.

COMMENT

1. Yes.

2. I feel in any future subdivision the sub-divider should stand all expenses.

3. No, not until the school bond is paid off.

4. Yes, if it can be had with no expense to the taxpayer.

5. This is a large question. There are many things that could be done but it will take more than one person to answer it.

School Hires New Head Football Coach

Robert Breniff will be new head coach and director of football. He will be assisted by new assistant football coach Jack Trudeau. Both are Michigan State graduates.

SPEAKS MARCH 31 — Thomas M. Kavanagh, Democrat, former Detroit and Carson City attorney, who is serving his first term as attorney general for the State of Michigan, will be the principal speaker Saturday night, March 31, at a meeting sponsored by the Tecumseh Democrats in Tecumseh High School gym.

The attorney general, who served as Carson City attorney and clerk from 1943 to 1951, will discuss "the basic philosophies of the two major parties as exemplified by their programs on a national, state and local level."

Grenval Spangler, chairman of the meeting, also has contacted Ralph Goldberg, president of the University of Michigan Young Democrats, to speak.

William E. Baker, candidate for the state board of agriculture on the Democrat slate in the April 4 election, also will speak.

Mr. Baker formerly taught agriculture in Blissfield High School. He now is Supt. of the Mesick (Wexford County) Public Schools.

Neil Staebler, chairman of the state Democrat Central Committee, and Mrs. Staebler, also have been invited.

The program will begin at 8 p. m.

Coach Breniff succeeds Coach Lester Runk who will continue in the system as director of the elementary boys' physical education program.

Mr. Breniff is a graduate of Maumee, Ohio, High School and an outstanding football player, having been a member of the league champion team and chosen on the "All Great Northern Ohio Team."

He was in varsity football at Michigan State three years and made International News Service "All Mid-West" and honorable mention on Woodling's "All American."

He was a member of the "Rose Bowl" squad and has been assisting with the freshman squad at Michigan State College for two years. He comes highly recommended by "Biggie" Munn and the coaching staff at Michigan State.

Mr. Trudeau is a former football star at Grayling High School and following his graduation last year from Michigan State has been teaching at Romeo, Michigan.

Don Brazee will continue with the junior varsity under Mr. Breniff's direction and the four junior high coaches, Dave Dick, Doug Murdoch, Myles Runk and Vic Lawson will also work under the same general set-up.

Vic Lawson is athletic director in charge of scheduling, officials and general athletic supervisor.

Supt. McDowell said the board of education has contracts for all its present staff of 57 teachers except that of Mrs. Mary Vallie, a third grade teacher. She returned her contract unsigned.

Of the four additional teachers needed next year two men have been secured, leaving only two vacancies to be filled in addition to a replacement for Mrs Vallie.

Supt. McDowell said:

"The board of education has planned excellent personnel policies which have enabled Tecumseh Schools to keep outstanding teachers and secure additional ones when necessary. A nearly complete staff for 1955-56 at this time is indeed an accomplishment with teacher replacements at an all-time low in the state and nation."

CLUB INTERNATIONAL HAS 46 MEMBERS

The Dale Carnegie Club International, hereafter to be known as the Lenawee Pathfinders Club, met Monday evening at the high school. A very interesting program was prepared and presented by Orville Bishop. All members gave talks about civic matters in Lenawee County.

The club's charter membership was closed Monday evening with 46 members. All Dale Carnegie class graduates in Lenawee County are urged to become regular members.

C OF C TO SPONSOR LIST OF VOTERS

The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce has decided that to do its part in helping to get the vote out in the Spring election Monday, April 4, it will sponsor the publishing in the HERALD of all the names of citizens who vote.

Which issue of the paper to be used depends on how large a vote turns out and how soon the voting list can be compiled after the election.

Robert G. Fuller

BACKGROUND

Robert G. Fuller, 58, of 707 west Chicago Blvd., is a salesman for the Hanna Real Estate Agency, a subdivider and accountant. He has lived in the Tecumseh area 15 years. He is a property owner. Married, he has two children.

A Catholic, he has served as city auditor for a number of Detroit suburbs. His auditing experience totals 24 years.

COMMENT

1. Yes, this does not mean that all taxes in the city will be raised. Only those that are not paying on an equal level with the rest of the people will be raised. The only ones who are against this are those who feel they are not paying their fair share. I don't feel we need a millage increase at this time. We do need a fair and equal assessed valuation.

2. The expense of servicing existing homes is a problem that needs study. But I do feel that any future subdivisions should have all uilities put in at the expense of the subdivider.

3. I don't feel we should add any millage at this time. But when we get this 13-mill school bond paid off we could consider this.

4. Yes, if it could be had with no expense to the taxpayer. At a later date maybe a bond issue would cover this.

5. This is hard to answer. There are so many answers I could write a book on them.

VALUATION

The City of Tecumseh Board of Review—F. C. Dickinson, Ernie Campbell and Al Hammond—this week tentatively accepted an assessed valuation of $9,724,100 for the city.

Next Monday, March 28 "aggrieved taxpayers," if any, can meet with the board of review to recheck their individual assessments.

If the board doesn't change the assessed valuation as submitted by city assessor John Saling it will be increased $1,650,700 over the present $8,073,400.

Blair O. Bashore

Councilman Bashore, taken ill with a heart condition last Thursday, did not comment on the questions.

Smoking In Bed Doesn't Pay

Theodore Wells, 28, of Tecumseh, was arraigned before Justice L. J. Van Deusen Monday on a charge of carelessly setting fire to a bed in the Clinton hotel.

State Police said he admitted drinking in a Clinton tavern before going to his hotel room. He fell asleep and smoke awakened him about 4:30 a.m. Saturday. He left the hotel without giving any alarm.

Arrested by State Police and Tecumseh Police Monday, he pleaded guilty to the charge in justice court where he was sentenced to 30 days in jail and a fine and costs of $104.30. If the fine and costs are not paid he will spend 90 days in jail.

Bedding, a rug and walls of the hotel room were damaged to the extent of $4000.

Sentenced On Two Counts

Arrested Monday by Clinton State Police and Tecumseh Police, Charles A. Bumpus, 21, of Tecumseh, pleaded guilty to reckless driving and assault and battery before Justice L. J. Van Deusen of Clinton Monday.

State Police said Bumpus was arrested on the reckless driving charge Feb. 5 but he failed to appear in court. He was fined $25 and $4.40 costs and given 10 days in jail.

Jack Thompson of Addison filed the assault and battery complaint. He said Bumpus struck him while they were in a Cambridge Junction restaurant Saturday.

Bumpus was fined $15 on the assault and battery charge, plus $4.30 costs and sentenced to 10 days in jail.

Mulvaney Trial Began Tuesday

The trial of Maynard Mulvaney, charged with selling liquor to a minor, began Tuesday in circuit court.

Dale Daniels, 18, of Tecumseh, the first witness, told how he went to the hotel Jan. 7 to buy the whisky.

Asked how he ever got mixed up in the case, Dale told the HERALD Wednesday morning:

"High school students had been getting liquor at the hotel. I knew that something had to be done so I first went to the Rev. Walworth and talked to him.

"We then went to the Tecumseh police and told them that I would serve as the 'customer' to help get rid of the situation.

"Police first did not want to do the case this way but one day I went in the hotel anyway because I knew something had to be done and Chief George Kilbourn spotted me.

"No, I did not intend to drink the liquor. I do not drink."

Arrested at the time, Mulvaney pleaded guilty in justice court and was sentenced to serve 30 days in the jail and to pay a fine of $100.

He appealed to circuit court so he did not serve the sentence.

SPRING?

Spring arrived early Monday morning but you wouldn't know it.

Tuesday morning a deluge of rain, accompanied by winds up to 70 miles an hour, soaked the ground.

The rain turned to snow and about noon Tuesday the wind whipped the snow into a blizzard.

The temperature during the day dropped 30 degrees and roads became sheets of ice. Several minor accidents in the area were reported to police and sheriff deputies.

High winds smashed branches and limbs from trees and some television aerials were knocked flat.

The winds also smashed storm doors and ripped roofs off some houses and barns in the area.

Spring brought out insurance adjusters to check on the damages caused by the winds.

EASTER MUSIC WILL BE SUNG

The choir of the First Methodist church of Ann Arbor will present a public concert at the Tecumseh Methodist church, Sunday evening, March 27, at 7:30 p.m.

The varied program will consist of Easter music and those who have heard these outstanding musicians predict a treat for all those interested in good music.

Wants Refrigerator Parts Excise Tax Law Revised

Rep. George Meader of the Second District, in a statement before the House of Representatives last week, introduced Bill 4934 that would revise the excise tax law on the sale of refrigerator parts.

Patterned after the law on automobile parts, the new bill if passed, "would provide that in computing the excise tax on refrigerator components, the sale price shall not include the value of a similar component accepted in exchange."

Rep. Meader, introducing the bill, told members of the House:

"The tax loss from this change will not exceed $50,000, against which should be offset the cost of collection and the cost of accounting and bookkeeping incidental to the placing of a value on trade-in components. It is entirely possible there would be no net loss in revenue. Meanwhile, the administrative burden, both to the Bureau of Internal Revenue and the taxpayers would be greatly simplified if the tax were applied only to the cash received on the sale, and accounting for the trade-in component could be eliminated.

"The adoption of my bill would place the refrigerator industry on the same footing as the automotive industry with respect to the excise tax on replacement parts.

"My interest in this subject stems from the circumstance that one of the largest independent manufacturers of refrigerator components is located in my district. I refer to the Tecumseh Products Company of Tecumseh, Michigan, which employs some 4,000 of my constituents.

"My objective is to remove the inequity which exists under the present law. The used component, traded in for a new or rebuilt component, was already taxed when originally sold. Therefore, including the value of the traded-in, worn-out component in the sales price of the new or rebuilt component, for which it is exchanged, results in paying the excise tax on that value a second time. This is unjust double taxation."

Mothers Fete Junior Cagers

Thirty boys of the seventh and eighth grade basketball teams were feted by their mothers at a dinner in the Presbyterian Church Tuesday night.

Guests were coaches Carl Hale and Les Runk and the Rev. George Walworth.

Mrs. Ralph Helzerman made the table decorations of basketball players.

Serving on the committee were Mrs. Charles Stephenson, Mrs. Earl Kruger, Mrs. George Elliott and Mrs. Charles O'Neill.

Mothers of the boys contributed the food which was served by the Men's Club.

A movie of the famous Harlem Globtrotters basketball team was shown.

The eighth grade team won all its games played.

STUDENTS HEAR SIOUX INDIAN

Pupils of Central and Patterson schools were thrilled Tuesday afternoon by a visit from a real Sioux Indian and his wife.

Chief Iron Hail who "hails" from the Black Hills of South Dakota is 98 years old and he is traveling through Michigan as an emissary of the Black Hills and Bad Lands Association of South Dakota which is a tourist organization.

Chief Iron Hail and his squaw came to Tecumseh with Paul E. Besselievre, who is a brother of Mrs. Richard Dustin and who is an agent for the association.

C.A.P. CADETS TRAIN

Thursday evenings the upper floors of the Sage building take on a very military atmosphere. From 7 to 8 o'clock each week, Warrant Officer Milton Appel puts the cadets of the Civil Air Patrol through their drill. Then for the next hour Capt. James Record of the Air Force Reserves conducts a class in the theory of flight. Capt. Record, who comes from Romulus Air Force was a P-38 pilot in World War II. He also flew P-51s and he keeps the cadets on their toes.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Elects Officers

Mrs. Warren Filter presided at the regular meeting of the V.F.W. Auxiliary held last Wednesday evening at the post rooms.

Nomination and election of officers for the coming year resulted in the following: President, Mrs. Warren Filter; senior vice president, Mrs. Lloyd Stites; junior vice president, Mrs. Earl Kruger; secretary, Mrs. John Braden; treasurer, Mrs. Carson House; chaplain, Mrs. Harold Warren; conductress, Mrs. George Downard and guard, Mrs. Louis Richards. Mrs. Carl Kempf was named a three-year trustee.

The auxiliary will present two American flags to the Madison school at its regular P.T.A. meeting April 12.

Mrs. Hilda Will was then presented to the group and told of her work in rehabilitation.

Refreshments were served after the business meeting by Mrs. Grace Coffey, Mrs. Donald Clark and Mrs. Richard Eisenminger.

BISHOP DEDICATES PARISH HOUSE

The Rt. Rev. Richard Emrich, D. D. of Detroit, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, dedicated the recently completed Parish House of St. Peter's church Wednesday evening.

His address was preceded by a dinner served to the church membership by women of the parish. Reservations were made for 170.

Vestrymen and their wives acted as hosts and guests included clergy of the city and their wives; James Smith, designer of the building and contractor, M. H. Thielan and Mrs. Thielan.

Juniors To Give Three-Act Comedy

The Tecumseh High School junior class will present "Arsenic and Old Lace" in Central School auditorium Thursday and Friday nights, March 31 and April 1.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. on each night.

Miss Jacqueline Egan is director of the comedy that was a smash hit on Broadway years ago and which was an outstanding movie.

The cast for the three-act play is:

Amy Brewster, Betty Day; Rev. Harper, Ray Puffer; Teddy Brewster, John Cadmus; Officer Brophy, Al Geberowski; Officer Klein, Rodger Finnegan; Martha Brewster, Merene Boltz; Elaine Harper, Margaret Champanois; Mortimer Brewster, Ed Lewis; Mr. Gibbs, Larry Kohl; Jonathan Brewster, Hal Weakly; Dr. Einstein, Don Partridge; Officer O'Hara, Duncan Harris; Lieutenant Rooney, Walter Bally; and Mr. Witherspoon, Bill Browne.

Rotary Club Fetes Farmers

The Tecumseh Rotary Club Tuesday night held its annual "farmers' night" with area farmers as guests.

Prof. Paul Doneth of Michigan State College, scheduled speaker, called that he could not make it. He said he drove 11 miles in an hour and a half so he decided to "get off the road" because of icy conditions.

Fay Whelan, chairman of the meeting, presented a tape recording of a speech given by Arthur "Red" Motely, publisher of "Parade Magazine."

Sale Of Heart Stamps Helps Mentally Retarded

The Adrian Rotary Club has mailed out 20,000 letters requesting those receiving the letters to buy heart stamps to help the mentally retarded.

The funds will remain in the county. The letter states "parents of mentally retarded children not permitted to attend public schools should consult the Croswell School."

The Rotary Club reports:

"There are about 4,800,00 retarded children in the United States . . . three out of every hundred people in every community, who are afflicted with one of the most tragic yet least understood of all handicaps . . . mental retardation.

"At last, the veil of secrecy around them is lifting. Pearl S. Buck one of literature's great immortals recently said, "There is a great new dawn awaiting these youngsters . . . who are God's most innocent children."

"Today, spurred on by the hundreds of units for retarded children composed of parents, non-parents, physicians, teachers, social workers, are finding new ways to develop the retarded child to the best of his abilities.

"Today, scientists are being encouraged to renewed vigor in search for causes and prevention in babies yet unborn. Yes, with your help, a shining hope lies in the future for our children, and our children's children.

"Mental retardation leads all other afflictions in the following order: mental retardation; heart; deafness; tuberculosis; cerebral palsy; acute polio.

It is estimated that 300 retarded children will be born today and every day in the United States or 109,500 this year. It can happen in any family, rich or poor, regardless of social or educational background — no one is immune.

"Mental retardation presents a challenging personal problem to the parents. They must live with and love their child, so afflicted, in a world which puts emphasis on mental facility. The typical happiness of retarded people, their affection, their love of music, of beauty, their sociability, their faith in mankind, is often regarded as unimportant in our modern society.

"Understanding mental retardation starts more than reading books or listening to speeches. It means living with it and turning one's eyes to the retarded person himself and a true understanding of his problems, and accepting them, and informing others about mental retardation.

"The Lenawee Association for Retarded Children is an organization of parents and non parents whose aim is to help all retarded children either at home or in private or state schools. We cordially welcome anyone to attend our meetings, and we especially need your membership.

"Through the efforts of the Lenawee Association for Retarded Children, the "Croswell School Foundation" has been organized. This is a school for retarded children in the county. The school has been in operation about six months, being held in the basement of the First Presbyterian Church in Adrian. The teacher is Mrs. Edna Wilcox of Tecumseh and she is being assisted by Mrs. L. K. Cox who has been donating her time. For information regarding the school contact Mr. Fred Glick, 1414 Moore Road, Adrian, Mich. Contributions may be made directly to the Croswell School or to the Lenawee County Association for Retarded Children.

"To the parents of normal children, consider the parents of one who is mentally retarded, and say to yourself, 'There but the Grace of God, go I.' Then have compassion and understanding."

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Mrs. M. R. Blanden presided at the regular meeting of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church held in the Fellowship Center last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Walter Pfaus conducted devotions.

A panel composed of Mrs. John Lott, Mrs. Conrad Fosbender, Mrs. David Faling and Mrs. George Walworth discussed the topic, "Non-Christian Religions of the World."

Mrs. Cecil Williams and her committee were hostesses for the evening and served refreshments at the close of the program.

The next meeting of the association will be April 13 instead of April 20 because of the conflicting date with the Lansing Presbyterial.

HARMONY HOMEMAKERS

Mrs. Charles Allen and Mrs. Dena Wallace assisted Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett in entertaining the Harmony Homemakers at the Hewlett home Wednesday. There were 25 present at the 12:30 potluck dinner, of whom three were guests, Mrs. Warren Naugle, Mrs. Carlton Stretch and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins.

After a short business meeting the group was entertained by pictures shown by Mrs. Collins of scenes in northern Michigan, many of which were of autumn colors along the AuSable river.

The club will hold its April meeting at the home of Mrs. Kennard Wise with Mrs. Bert Bruder and Miss Edna Gamboe as co-hostesses.

Takes Part In Atomic Tests

CAMP DESERT ROCK, Nev. —Now at the Atomic Energy Commission Proving Grounds here for the latest series of atomic tests is Marine Sgt. James M. Kent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Kent of 310 S. Evans, Tecumseh, Mich., and husband of the former Miss Patricia A. Lickfelt of Tipton.

Before entering the service in Jan. 1951, he attended Cass Technical High School, Detroit.

While here he will participate in an air-ground exercise during which an atomic explosion will be employed against hypothetical enemy forces. The Marines will test assault tactics relating to atomic warfare, including the art of vertical envelopment by helicopter. Training in physical protection measures and indoctrination in the effects of atomic explosions on equipment are other important phases of the exercise.

He is a member of the 3rd Marine Corps Provisional Atomic Exercise Brigade which was flown to this desert site to participate in the atomic attack problems.

ON PLAN STAFF

FORT SAM HOUSTON, TEX. —Private Kenneth L. Maves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maves, Route 1, Tecumseh, Mich., recently was named to the planning staff for LOGEX-55, the Army's largest peacetime test of logistical support operations, to be held at Fort Lee, Va., May 2-7.

LOGEX-55 is designed to train student officers from the Army's technical and administrative schools in procedures required to keep fighting troops operating in combat.

Private Maves, whose wife, Janet, lives in San Antonio, Tex., entered the Army in June 1954.

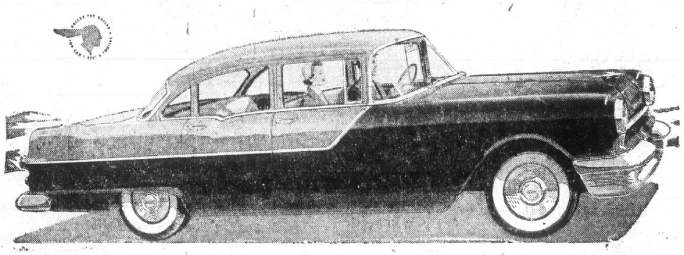
Most Powerful Car at its Price!



Come in and try the sensational performance of Pontiac's 200-HP Strato-Streak V-8!

If all the talk about horsepower has left you confused, let this one simple fact set you straight.

Model for model, the sensational new Pontiac Strato-Streak V-8 delivers more horsepower per dollar than any car in its field.

And that fact holds good whether you specify the four-barrel carburetor—a low-cost option that puts 200 eager horsepower under Pontiac's handsome hood—or the regular 180-horsepower Strato-Streak V-8.

The Strato-Streak V-8, part and parcel of every Pontiac, produces performance as fresh and distinctive as Pontiac's Twin-Streak styling and Vogue Two-Tone beauty—with traditional Pontiac dependability and the greatest economy in Pontiac history.

But Pontiac's extra value doesn't stop with power. Its Shock-Proof chassis, wide-stance rear springs, long 122" or 124" wheelbase, recirculating ball steering and bigger brakes provide fine-car comfort and handling.

Come in at your first opportunity and road-test Pontiac's spectacular Strato-Streak V-8 performance and you'll quickly see why sales are now at an all-time high!

You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and much less than stripped, economy models of higher-priced makes!

Look high and low . . . and you'll go Pontiac

Miss Egan Speaks To Monday Club

A trip through the gardens of Paris, Italy and England was given the members of the Tecumseh Monday Club this week through the pictures and narrative of Miss Jacquelyn Egan.

A member of the faculty of Tecumseh High School, Miss Egan spent last summer in Europe and she brought back many impressions and sidelights that were interesting to her audience. Before Miss Egan spoke, Mrs. William Hayden played a piano solo. Both were introduced by the leader of the afternoon, Mrs. LeRoy Titley.

Mrs. Thomas O'Hara, as part of the business meeting, reminded the members of the Adult Education program in Ann Arbor, May 11 and 12 and announced that the principal speaker would be Dr. Willard Olson.

A meeting Feb. 28 of the new and old officers with Mrs. Cole, president of the County Federation of Clubs, had resulted in the completion of plans for the golden anniversary of that organization. It will be held in the Baptist church April 20, with registration to begin at 8:45 a. m. There will be a 12:30 luncheon in the Youth House, reservations for which are to be made by April 15 with Mrs. George Green Sr.

The principal speaker for the occasion will be Lawrence Taylor, director of extended services of Hillsdale College. Tecumseh will present a skit depicting the first ten years of the Federation's activities and it was also announced that each club in the county will contribute a container of flowers in memory of their deceased members.

The club was also reminded of the Festival of Drama to be held March 25 in Adrian. This is a project of all the county clubs and will begin at 8 p. m. Another date to be remembered by members is the State Federation, March 30-31 and April 1, meeting at the Sheridan-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit. Mrs. Herbert Murphy and Mrs. Robert Bonner will be Monday Club delegates to this conference.

The April 11 meeting of the club will be the spring luncheon and will take place at the Parish House of St. Peter's Episcopal church. Miss Veva Conner and Mrs. Carlos Jones are in charge of tickets and reservations should be made by April 8.

Luther Woods Note 30th Anniversary

More than 100 relatives and close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wood of 202½ W. Pottawatamie street, gathered at the Pythian Hall Saturday evening as a surprise celebration of their 30th wedding anniversary. They came from Toledo, Adrian, Blissfield, Palmyra, Cadmus, Chelsea and Tecumseh for the reception which was given by the children of the honored couple, Erwin and Arlene Buss and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Wood and family.

The hall was decorated with bouquets of flowers and large wedding bells while the table with its white linen cloth was centered by a beautifully decorated wedding cake, flanked by other cakes and arrangements of red roses and white candles. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kempf assisted with the preparations.

The guests were entertained with piano solos played by Linda Johnson of Tecumseh and Sharon and Patricia Weeds of Adrian and by a recitation given by Barbara Wood. The first three are nieces of the Woods while Barbara is their granddaughter. Linda also played during the serving when Mrs. Fred Whelan and Mrs. Wood's sister, Mrs. Hartwell Randolph of Adrian poured and the cakes were cut and served by Mr. Wood's sister, Mrs. Jacob Kneirim of Adrian and Mrs. Carl Kempf.

Others who assisted in the serving were Carl Kempf, Mrs. Lillian Owen, Sharon Wood, Linda Burkart and Dee Dee Still. Mrs. Henry Kempf was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood had their second surprise of the evening when they were presented with a television set as a gift from the entire group. Cards were the entertainment for the remainder o fthe evening with music furnished by Linda Johnson at the piano, Rex Knisel playing the saxaphone and Robert Wood the clarinet.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood were married in Adrian, March 18, 1925, and have lived in Tecumseh and Adrian for most of their married life except for five years spent in Montague, Mich.

DORCAS CLASS

The Dorcas class of the Congregational Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Marie Priest last week for a potluck dinner at noon. Mrs. Mildred Wiggins, vice president, conducted the meeting and Mrs. Viva Brown had charge of the devotions and program. Newly elected officers are: President, Mrs. Effie Gibson; treasurer, Mrs. Dora Benedict; secretary, Mrs. Maud Schmid. Mrs. Isabelle Brandon of Lakeview was an out-of-town guest.

I.O.O.F. LODGE

Thirty members of the Britton I.O.O.F. Lodge went by chartered bus to Ypsilanti to attend a district meeting where the second degree was conferred on 36 new members from various lodges. The degree work was done by the Exeter Lodge of Canada. Some 400 members from area lodges attended.

Those attending the visitation of District 10, Rebekah Lodges in Dundee from Britton were Mrs. Ida Miller, Mrs. Anna McCarbery, Mrs. Delora Zarnow and Mr. and Mrs. William Cundiff.

A Boy Scout paper drive will be held in Britton and vicinity this week and next.

Ronald Croll, Larry Patterson, Harold Rhora and Kenneth Bortel spent the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson in Lansing and attended the state basketball tournament.

Pvt. Richard Croll is stationed at New Ulm, Germany. He is an instructor in the intelligence department and expects to be there for a year and a half.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dunbar and son Gregg were Monday evening visitors in Toledo of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Greunke and family, who are leaving Friday for California where they will make their home.

Weekend guests in the home of their aunt Miss Pearl Smith were Phyllis Brooks of Tecumseh and Sharon Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rupp of Mt. Pleasant were also recent visitors in the Smith home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kuster had as weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kuster and family of Valparaiso, Ind., and Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Coe C. Smith of Cadmus.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Weichner were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller of Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weichner visited relatives in Ft. Wayne, Ind. last week.

The Navy's first ship designed as an aircraft carrier was the USS Ranger.

FLORENCE WELD GUILD

Thirty members and guests of the Florence Weld Mission Guild of the Presbyterian church observed guest night at the home of Mrs. Mel Partridge Monday evening. Devotions were conducted by Miss Mary Whitelock and during the short business meeting, Mrs. F. C. Dickinson distributed the year books and explained the work planned for the year ahead.

It was the annual bazaar and auction sale and Mrs. Harold Wilson was the very fluent and witty auctioneer. She was so persuasive in fact that the baked goods and other articles donated by the members netted their treasury $40.

In April the Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Morris on W. Logan St.

BAPTISTS HAVE TALENT SHOW

As part of their program for the Lenten Season, the Tecumseh Baptist church held a Family night supper last Wednesday evening in the Youth House. It was followed by a talent show the program for which included the following: Monologue by Mrs. William Grigg, "Oh, How that Lena Could Eat!"; "Shine Song" by four of Mrs. Packard's class, Anne Surratt, Donna Grigg and the Tallman twins, accompanied by Mrs. Dow Bilby; recitation, Donna Grigg, "God Loves Me"; Virginia Reel by Sharon Fielder, Betty Bishop, Carol Bilby, David Grigg, James Bashore and John Cook; and a solo, "The House I Live In", sung by Mrs. Dow Bilby accompanied by Mrs. Grigg.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR AUXILIARY CARD PARTY

Mrs. Ray Sluyter will be in charge of the "traveling entertainment" which will add to the pleasure of the guests at the many card parties scheduled for the Hospital Auxiliary benefit March 31. She is part of the committee of arrangements which also includes Mrs. Richard Eggleston, Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Phillip Colgrove, Mrs. Wendell Scutt, Mrs. Ray Schlegel, Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt of Britton, Mrs. Leo Hubbard of Springville and Mrs. Ben Marble Jr. of Clinton. These ladies are not hostesses but will assist in linking together the various elements of this widely scattered entertainment.

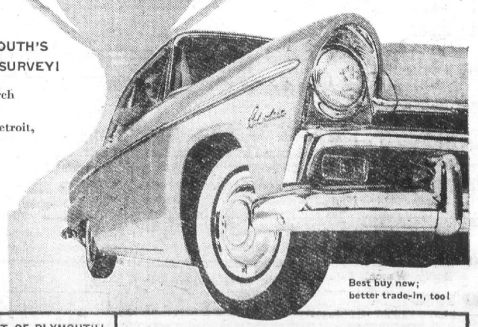
PLYMOUTH WINS
FOR 1955 STYLING
OVER "OTHER 2" LOW-PRICE CARS
BY VOTE OF ALMOST 4 TO 1

THOUSANDS PREFER PLYMOUTH'S STYLING IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

A well-known independent research organization asked thousands of people—in New York, Chicago, Detroit, Atlanta, Dallas, Los Angeles—to compare the appearance of '55 models of the three low-price cars. Opinions were received from men and women—from people of all ages—from owners of all the different makes of cars. The results are below.



Best buy now; better trade-in, too!

HERE'S WHAT OTHERS THOUGHT OF PLYMOUTH!

Compared with low-price car "A"		Compared with low-price car "B"
Plymouth is better looking	62%	Plymouth is better looking	66%
Car "A" is better looking	16%	Car "B" is better looking	17%
Almost 4 to 1 in Plymouth's favor!		Again, almost 4 to 1 for Plymouth!
(22% liked "both about the same")		(17% liked "both about the same")

HERE'S WHY YOU'LL PREFER PLYMOUTH, TOO!

Plymouth '55—with THE FORWARD LOOK—is the only low-price car to offer you honestly new styling, instead of a mere face-lifting. It's bigger than the "other 2" cars (longer than car "A" by 8.4 inches!). It's lower and sleeker, with a host of styling advances that wins the most applause in the lowest-price field. Mrs. Katherine Ramsey

Mother of five says, "Our hospital bills aren't the problem they could be!"

"A family the size of ours can't avoid hospital bills," says Mrs. Ramsey, of Berkley, Michigan. "That's the reason we wouldn't have anything but Blue Cross. I don't know of any other protection plan, so reasonably priced, that gives you all the basic hospital services you need—rather than fixed cash benefits, like you get with other plans. When my last baby was born, our Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract gave me hospital services worth almost $1,000—and our Blue Shield coverage for doctor bills paid my doctor $300. Sure, we had a little more to pay, but it was certainly small in contrast with the amount Blue Cross - Blue Shield covered for us."

Why take the 1 in 2 chance that your family will have a hospital and doctor bill within a year . . . when for reasonable cost, you can have the wonderful security of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, Michigan's only statewide, non-profit protection plans.

Find out how you can have low-cost group coverage. A company with as few as 5 employees may qualify as a group. Today, call or write: Blue Cross - Blue Shield

Howard Pennington is spending his semester vacation from Michigan State College with his parents here.

SARA REBECCA CIRCLE

The Sara Rebecca Circle, newest and youngest of the women's organizations of the Methodist church, held its March meeting at the home of Mrs. Albert Taylor.

"The Good Samaritan" was the theme used by Mrs. Yvonne Mellos for the period of devotions which she conducted. The program, in charge of Mrs. Howard Kronberg, was entitled, "There Is No Unanswered Prayer." It was followed by colored slides, shown by the hostess of scenes in Europe especially in the Mediterranean area. The pictures had been taken by Mr. Taylor, who is in service there at the present time.

The April 19 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Makos on Cairns Road.

Awards Presented To Cub Scout Packs

Cub Scout Pack 4 held its March meeting Monday evening at the Baptist Youth House.

The boys presented a fun packed minstrel show for their parents. Showing what good sports they are, all den mothers, assistants and committeemen blacked their faces right along with the boys.

Following the presentation of the flag Dixie was sung by the group. Den 9 then sang "Shortnin' Bread," told jokes and did a magic trick. Jimmie Griffin presented a lively tap dance.

Den 2 sang and acted out "O Suzanna," told jokes and did a magic trick.

Den 7 entertained with jokes and an accordion solo by Jimmy Wallace.

Den 5 pantomimed Al Jolson's "Hello Sunshine," told jokes and did a magic trick.

Den 4 sang "Old Folks at Home," told jokes and did a magic trick.

The minstrel show ended with the group singing "Old Black Joe." Linda Johnson was the accompanist.

Awards were presented by Cubmaster Walter Hizer and Mrs. Wayne Hebb to the following boys: Den 2, Mrs. Kenneth Rutherford, Den Mother, Michael Deaner, Bear badge; Jack Rutherford, Bear badge; Ronny Baxter, Silver arrow under Wolf.

Den 4, Mrs. Wayne Hebb, Den Mother, David Dustin, Gold and Silver arrow under Wolf; Joey Hanna, Gold arrow under Wolf, Paul Snyder, Gold arrow under Wolf; Jerry Hebb, Silver arrow under Wolf; Gary Tietsema, Wolf badge.

Den 9, Mrs. Charles Irelan, Den Mother, David Brock, Lion badge and graduation certificate; Bradley McCombs and Kent Lucas, two-year service stars.

Candy, pop, and popcorn were sold following the show.

Ernest Oliver was presented to the group as the new assistant Cubmaster.

Cub Scout Pack 73 held its regular meeting Monday at 7:30 in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian church. The theme of the month was "Knights of the Round Table."

The Cubs were arrayed in full armor including swords and shields and marched in to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," kneeling before the throne of King Arthur, who was Cubmaster Erwin Richardson all in costume. They were knighted and presented the following awards: Wolf badge, John McKenzie and James Graham; Wolf badge and gold arrow, John Oberlin; Bear badge and gold arrow, Stephen Freckleton; Bear badge and gold arrow, Charles Squires; Bear badge, Charles Saling; gold star, James Osburn.

The Cubs were then treated to movies by John Saling, while parents held a meeting upstairs. It was decided to continue a Cub bing program through the summer by means of regular softball games and picnics.

A hike is scheduled for Saturday, weather permitting, and all cubs wishing to go will meet at the Scout Cabin at 1 p.m. equipped with weiners and buns.

The Roundtable district meeting to be held Thursday, March 24 at the Madison school in Adrian, will be attended by Den 1 in charge of Mrs. Vern Manwaring. They will present the opening ceremony.

The Cub leaders "Pow Wow" which was held March 19 in Petersburg high school was attended by Mrs. Fred Dickinson, Mrs. Charles Stephenson, Mrs. Fred Oberlin, Mr. and Mrs. George Meads, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson. They received instruction in the different facets of Cub Scouting and were impressed with the program.

hickory AND horsehide

by DIZZY TROUT

The sleek, blue Cadillac glided to a halt in front of the hotel. A muscular young man, dressed in stylish casual clothing, alighted and moved to help his pretty wife from the car. As a porter hurried to remove the expensive luggage, another well-built young man, just leaving the hotel, spied the new arrival and rushed to greet him warmly.

A few minutes later another car came to a halt in front of the hotel, this one a battered, old jalopy, its occupants three youths with crew cuts and subdued manner. As the youths alighted from the vehicle, one stubbornly pulled back his cheap suitcase from the extended hand of the porter.

The scene was Lakeland, Florida, since 1924 spring training site of the Detroit Tigers. The hotel was the New Florida, Tiger headquarters during spring practice.

Pattern Repeated

The year—well, it could be this year, or last year or even next year. It really doesn't matter. The pattern of spring training is virtually always the same, be it the Tigers, Yankees or Indians.

The young man in the Cadillac and the one who greeted him are established major league players, poised and self-assured, men who have worked long and hard to achieve the status of baseball stars.

The three youths are rookies, getting their first tryout with a big league team. Nervous and uncertain, they are nonetheless determined to show that they have the stuff to make the grade.

They're after the jobs of the man in the Cadillac and his teammate. Perhaps some of them will succeed. Maybe they'll drive a big car themselves some day and, in turn, have their jobs the target of a new crop of rookies. Others, of course, will drift back to the relative obscurity of the minor leagues.

Curiously, on the practice field the stars will materially aid the rookies. They'll teach the newcomers things it took them years to learn, even though it may eventually cost them their jobs. That's one of the many reasons baseball is great. Unlike the dog-eat-dog personal competition of many fields, in baseball the good of the team is considered before the special interests of any individual.

Weekly Report

In this new weekly series on baseball—and my beloved Detroit Tigers, in particular— I plan to describe what goes on in the spring training camp, how it feels to be a player, what it's like in the major leagues. I'll take you behind the scenes, revealing the little things that contribute to making baseball the national pastime.

I'll draw on my 19 years in the game, 14 of them as a pitcher with the Tigers, to provide a graphic background of the daily events in baseball that you see over television or hear on radio.

Country School News

Centennial District No. 10
Kindergarten through Sixth
Mrs. Vaughn

We are very happy that The TECUMSEH HERALD has asked us to participate in the rural school news. We have been posting our school news on our bulletin board but feel that this will give our parents a chance to see what we are doing.

We made and wore paper hats for our St. Patrick's celebration. All of us wore something green to school.

The sixth grade has a grocery store unit. Last week they invited the fourth grade to be their customers. This week the fourth grade were the owners and the sixth grade the customers. We had real money and learned to make change.

The third grade are experimenting with the planting of seeds from pine cones.

The beginners read a story about a steam shovel. Mike Kossey brought his play steam shovel to school so everyone could see how it worked.

We are sorry to hear we are losing Jerry Palmer as he is moving over by Holloway.

The citizenship club is planning a roller skating party for this week.

Hicidro Martinez brought pieces of board for art. We have painted many nice pictures on them. We also wove some pretty place mats.

There have been many absent from school because of illness.

Onalee Cote is still out with the mumps. We are happy to have Janet Bachtal back in school. She has been absent with an ear infection. David Woods and Richard Teske have returned to school. Their colds are better.

Newburg School

The children of Newburg School celebrated Saint Patrick's Day by the "wearing of the green."

We made notebooks in which we wrote the story of St. Patrick. A few of the notebooks included newspaper clippings and pictures of him.

Nancy McKee, one of the first graders, was absent most of the week because of a cold. For English assignment Thursday afternoon all of the children wrote letters to her.

Two events that are coming up are the County Spelling Contest, and the County Music Festival. Robert Cubberly and Marlynn Halley are preparing for the Spelling Contest. All of the children are preparing for the Music Festival.

Tory Harriers Begin Practice

Eighteen Britton-Macon Tories are working out seeking spots on the school track team.

Coach John Swain reports he has six lettermen. They are Frank Stewart, Howard Haas, LeRoy Plank, Bob Faust, Dick Cox and Ed Faust.

The track schedule is not complete yet but the Tories will compete in the Little Six League meet at Adrian College in early May.

Tories Schedule 10 Baseball Games

Britton-Macon Tories, under the coaching of John Swain, will begin a 10-game baseball schedule Monday, April 4, when they face Milan there.

The Tories have 17 out for baseball. Ten are lettermen. They are Tom Bruce who last year swatted .435, John Korican, Jim Wood, Dick Halstead, Harold Rhora, Jerry Grady, Jack McClue, Bill Gorton, Dick Handley and Karl Kimerer.

Last year the Swain nine won five and lost four. They were tied for first place in the Little Six League until the last game which was lost. The Tories wound up in second place.

The remaining baseball schedule is as follows:

April 7 at Milan
April 12 at Cement City
April 15 at Waldron
April 22 at Deerfield*
April 26 Cement City at Home
April 29 Onsted* at Home
May 3 Ida* at Home
May 6 Sand Creek* at Home
May 13 at Catholic Central*

Presque Isle Lighthouse is the second oldest on the Great Lakes (1870). It has walls 12 feet thick at the base, and towers 120 feet above high water. Its predecessor, inactive and standing nearby, was built in 1819.

Want To Be A Caddy?

Caddying is a delightful, healthful and profitable avocation for teen age boys, reports Pro Leo Bishop.

The Country Club is now registering caddies for the 1955 golf season. We know you will enjoy caddying and partaking of the recreational facilities and privileges afforded our boys, Mr. Bishop said. If you wish to consider caddying at the Tecumseh Country Club see Leo Bishop at the Pro Shop Saturday, March 26 at 9 a.m.

The caddy committee is made up of Joe Horvath, Neville Hart, C. O. Butler.

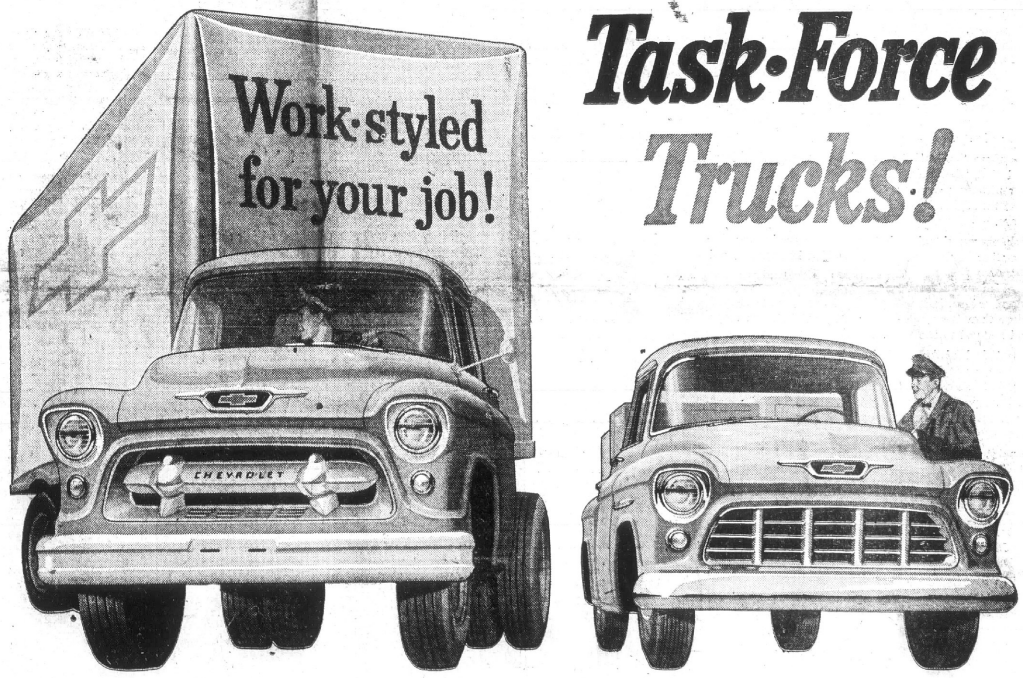
New Chevrolet Task-Force Trucks!



It's the largest and finest fleet of trucks ever built by the nation's No. 1 truck builder. Whatever your task or trade, there's a new Chevrolet truck to make or save you money on the job. Come and look 'em over!

Now Chevrolet introduces "Work Styling"—an exclusive development in truck design. Plus new engines—new capacities—new Overdrive and Power Steering—new features and advantages throughout!

Here's what happens when America's leading truck builder pulls out all the stops! Here are trucks that are new from the drawing board out!

New styling in trucks

Fleet, functional styling that fits your job! For the first time in any truck line, two distinctly different styling treatments are offered—one in light- and medium-duty models, another in heavy-duty. Your handsome new Chevrolet truck will be an advertisement-on-wheels for you and your business!

A new outlook for the driver

Truck driving was never like this! The new Flite-Ride cab is everything a driver could wish for, from its big Sweep-Sight windshield to its concealed Safety Step that keeps clear of mud or snow! The new instrument panel offers maximum convenience!

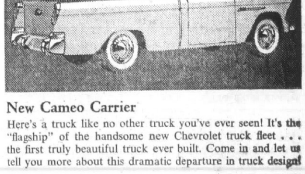
Six new "high-voltage" engines

With a new 12-volt electrical system for quicker, surer cold-weather starting and increased generator capacity! Plus more efficient cooling and lubrication systems, an improved fuel system, and completely redesigned engine mountings.

And much more that's new

Like the smoother, load-steady ride . . . new High-Level ventilation . . . tubeless tires, standard on ½-ton models . . . Power Brakes* for all models, standard in 2-ton models . . . new 18,000 lb. max. G.V.W. in 2-ton models. And there's a new choice of transmissions, including new Overdrive* and Hydra-Matic*. New Power Steering* for all models. Come in and see the newest things in trucks!

*Optional at extra cost. Overdrive available on ½-ton models, Hydra-Matic on ½-, ¾- and 1-ton models.



New Cameo Carrier

Here's a truck like no other truck you've ever seen! It's the "flagship" of the handsome new Chevrolet truck fleet . . . the first truly beautiful truck ever built. Come in and let us tell you more about this dramatic departure in truck design!

Why Save A Swamp?

The Tecumseh Conservation League, local sponsor of National Wildlife Week, asks us to consider the value of a swamp. This is not as quixotic a notion as, at first thought, it might seem.

The scientists who study the relationship of living things, including man, to each other and to their environment, tell us that in nature's design there is no such thing as "waste land." One of the things that makes America a rich and stimulating country, they suggest, is the variety of its land forms. Perhaps we need an Okefenokee and the Dakota potholes as well as the peach orchards and the wheat fields.

As a matter of fact, a swamp is one of nature's more productive kinds of land. The literature and history of America contain many references to the vegetative prolificacy and wildlife abundance of its swamps and marshes. Originally there were some 120 million acres of such "wetlands" in what is now the United States. Fewer than 30 million acres remain that are fit for a mallard to live in. The rest have been drained, poisoned by pollution, or otherwise destroyed by the manipulations of man.

From those "wetlands" came the once great flights of wild fowl that "darkened the sun" and inspired Audubon and other pioneer observers. From the "wetlands" that remain come the flights of wild ducks and geese of today, such as they are.

Marsh, swamp, slough and stream-course are havens also for many other kinds of wildlife. A federal biologist named Lee Yeager has figured out that 95 per cent of the annual fur harvest is trapped from the "wetlands." An acre of marsh in Maryland or Louisiana may yield $25 per year in muskrat pelts—more than the same acre might yield in farm crops if drained and put to the plow.

A great deal of America's best hunting and fishing is dependent on, or to be found in, the so-called "wetlands." It is difficult to tie a price tag on outdoor recreation in this day of indoor pressures but, for the record, the $9 billion per year spent by American sportsmen rings several cash registers.

The point being made by the Conservation League, the National Wildlife Federation and affiliated conservation groups this week is that all the swamps and marshes should not be drained because America needs to keep some of its "wetlands." Some drainage is necessary, the Federation concedes, but recalls some costly drainage mistakes—Mingo swamp in Missouri, Thief Lake in Minnesota and the Everglades in Florida, to name a few examples. In those places, and others, drainage was a failure; the land proved unproductive for farming. The ditches have been plugged and the natural swamps—teeming with wildlife—have been restored.

Yes, a swamp or marsh may have great value, extending its benefits through the north-south length of a waterfowl flyway. We think the conservationists have a point in their Wildlife Week theme. We question with them the wisdom of using taxpayers' money to subsidize new farm drainage in this period of perplexing crop surpluses. It is costing the taxpayers enough to store the surpluses. We recommend also that Congress look twice at every drainage project proposed by the Army engineers or reclamation planners. Let's make certain the public benefits will actually out-weigh the damages before sending more of our dwindling wetlands down the ditches!

Lack Positive Program

Frankly, we are disappointed in the program or lack of one of the state Republican Party in the Spring election April 4.

The program, or campaign, is geared against the United Auto Workers CIO and its political action committee, the PAC.

Using the tag line "Don't let the CIO take over our schools and courts," the Republican Party is particularly stressing the union's contribution to Democrat campaign expenses.

Republicans seem to think this is brand new and wicked; it is not new and whether it is wicked depends on which side you are on.

Did you ever wonder where the Republicans get the lion's share of campaign expenses? It's not from little fellows but from big business and big industry.

It seems the GOP of Michigan would realize this political fact—that both parties get contributions—and then proceed with a more positive campaign program that would do the state and its people a whale of a lot more good than pointing an accusing finger at the unions as a smoke screen.

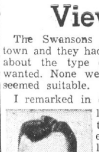
Realty Views

The Swansons were new in town and they had definite ideas about the type of home they wanted. None we had in stock seemed suitable.

I remarked in driving past a large home that we expected to receive a listing on it right away from an out-of-state owner.



"We wouldn't be interested," said Mr. Swanson.

Within a week, the signed listing arrived and I called Mrs. Swanson.

"I'll look at it," she said, "but I know we won't want it."

Mrs. Swanson looked it over. She liked it very much.

"Let me call my husband before someone else sees it," she said.

He gave his approval. They bought the home.

"I just wouldn't have believed this house would have so much room. And it's fixed up so nice inside," Mrs. Swanson remarked.

"You sure had a good hunch," Mr. Swanson said. "You've found the perfect home for us."

Let us put our "hunches" to work for you. If you want to buy a home, visit our office. You'll find our experience is a big help in house hunting!

Christian Science Services Listed

The essentially spiritual nature of all that is real and eternal will be emphasized at Christian Science services on Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Reality."

Among the selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (355:27-29): "Reality is spiritual, harmonious, immutable, immortal, divine, eternal. Nothing unspiritual can be real, harmonious or eternal."

The following passage will be read from the Bible (Psalms 33:4,5): "For the word of the Lord is right; and all his works are done in truth. He loveth right-ousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (119:12,13): "Blessed art thou, O Lord: teach me thy statutes . . . Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law."

Give To Goodwill

With the advent of longer and warmer days the average housewife's thoughts turn to Spring cleaning. The annual cleaning out of closets, attics and basements is very important to the physically handicapped men and women employed at Goodwill Industries. During the Spring months the Goodwill trucks collect over half the total volume of usable home discards contributed during the entire year. It is the only time Goodwill is able to build up a reserve stock of materials to provide employment during the slower collection periods.

Always needed at Goodwill Industries are usable, repairable articles of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, small appliances and furniture that is not of the overstuffed variety. Miscellaneous household articles are also collected by Goodwill trucks.

Newspapers and magazines are additional items that can be used at Goodwill Industries. Newspapers are sold for salvage income and magazines are sold in the Goodwill retail stores.

The Goodwill trucks will make their next visit to Tecumseh and Britton on Tuesday, March 29. You may arrange to have a truck stop at your home by calling one of the local Goodwill telephone representatives.

Britton residents may telephone William Kuster at 2121. Tecumseh residents may telephone Mrs. Carl Burch at Tecumseh 866.

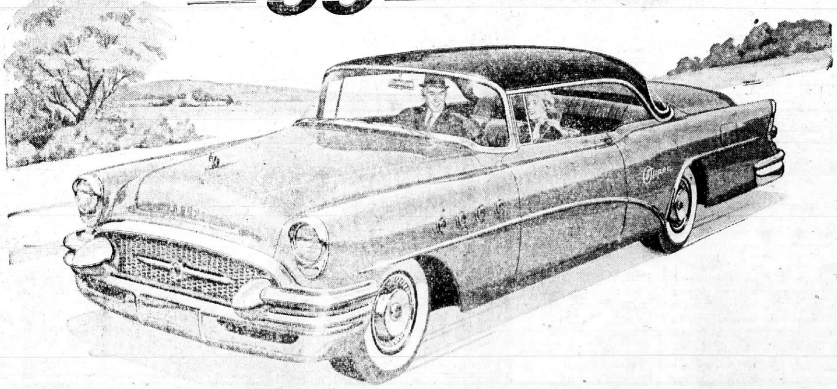
Looks like Buick's Biggest Year



It's been happening week after week.

More people coming in every day to see, sit in, sample and select the '55 Buick of their choice. More people than ever before in our history.

That's why you see so many new Buicks on the road today. And that's why—to meet this unprecedented popularity—Buick production has been boosted to the highest levels of all time.

Buick Sales Are Soaring

The simple measure of it all is this: Buick is so "hot" an automobile that it now outsells all other cars in the United States except two of the best-known smaller cars. And for reasons sound, substantial and thrilling.

Buick styling, you see, was never so crisp, clean, distinctive. Buick horsepower was never so high—Buick interiors never so rich—Buick's great ride never so satin-smooth and steady.

But there's something else, too—something vastly different and exciting.

*Never before was there any motoring thrill like the thrill you get from Buick's spectacular new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.

It lets you do what a pilot does—switch the pitch of your driving propellers—one way for gas saving in cruising—another way for instantaneous acceleration and getaway.

Your propellers are inside the Dynaflow unit, spinning in oil. You change their pitch merely by pressure on the gas pedal. You get action that was never in any earth-bound vehicle before.

No wonder we're writing up orders and selling Buicks at a rate that's making this the biggest year in Buick history.

And no wonder—when you see our price tags—that more and more people can afford the price of a new Buick.

For all the way up the line—from the budget-priced SPECIAL to the custom-built ROADMASTER—each Buick is a stand-out buy in its field.

Why not come in for a visit this week and get a down-to-earth look at the hottest Buick in history?

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Thrill of the year is Buick

By KIRBY PAGE

There are sounds which produce fear, and there are sounds which bring laughter. There are sounds which cause sadness, and there are sounds which release a surge of joy. Why?

What is it in man that makes him so sensitive to sound? And why does he respond in such multiple ways to sound?

Man is a mysterious creature. One moment he cries and the next one he rejoices. One hour he hates, and then he loves. One day he is cruel, and the next one he is gentle. One moment he behaves as a mere brute, and then he acts as a compassionate spirit.

The range of possibilities of human response is limitless. Man can climb high; he can plunge deep into the mire; he can drift along the drab level.

Stimuli determine response, comparitive impacts made from without and those which operate within. Appeals to the physical senses, and liberation of inner emotion decide how a man behaves.

There are sounds which set imagination soaring, which give wings to aspiration, which make real the invisible world of the spirit. Such is the sound of running water. Listen, with Clinton Scollard:

I so love water-laughter,
Its bubbling flecks and gleams,
I pray in the hereafter
There somewhere may be streams.

I'd have for my companon
In some celestial nook,
Beneath a spreading banyan,
The music of a brook.
Its measures would entice me,
Uncumbered by the clay,
Its melody would suffice me
Till dropped the heavenly day.
Then its all-liquid laughter
Would murmur through my dreams;

I pray in the hereafter
There somewhere may be streams.

In 1954 the International League of Red Cross Societies was enlarged to 73 members with the recognition of the National Red Crescent and Red Cross Societies of Afghanistan and the German Democratic Republic.

Of the 3,700 Red Cross chapters throughout the United States, one out of every three is staffed solely by volunteers.

League Sec. Hits Water Pollution Problem

A spokesman for the Tecumseh Conservation League today called water pollution "one of the destructive forces that are threatening to turn America into a semi-desert with inadequate resources to support a first-class standard of living."

Mr. Stanley Rentschler, club secretary, made this statement in connection with National Wildlife Week, a nationwide educational campaign stressing the problems of natural resource management. Local and state conservation groups have joined the National Wildlife Federation in sponsoring the annual observance, scheduled March 20-26.

Special attention is being given this year to water and "wetland" values. He listed the following six "objectives in water pollution control" which have been endorsed by the National Federation:

1. Promotion of adequate water pollution laws in every state. Some states have them, many do not.

2. Adequate appropriations for state pollution-control agencies. It is estimated that about five cents per person per year (based on total state population) is about right.

3. Adequate sewage treatment facilities in every community.

4. Adequate waste prevention or waste treatment by every industry; additional research where industrial waste problems have not been solved.

5. Prevention of silt pollution through soil conservation practices.

6. Adequate appropriations for the research and cooperative programs of the Water Pollution Control Division, U. S. Public Health Service, as authorized by the Taft-Barkley Act of 1948.

LIBRARIAN SPEAKS TO CHILD STUDY CLUB

Mrs. David Faling entertained the Child Study Club, Monday evening instead of Mrs. Richard Fielder as had been planned. She was assisted by Mrs. Stanley Kruse.

The discussion topic was reading matter that is offered to local children and Mrs. Keith Barron was leader. She introduced Mrs. Conrad Fosbender, Tecumseh librarian, who told of the magazines and books available at the Public Library, which include the better types of comic books. Her talk was of great value to the mothers as it dealt with general juvenile reading habits and their development.

Mrs. Barron reported that a check had been made of the comic books offered for sale in Tecumseh and nothing of an objectionable nature had been found.

It was announced that the club had been assigned Frontier Day as their part in the observation of Michigan Week in Tecumseh during the third week in May, and Mrs. Hugh DesErmia was appointed to meet with the committee on arrangements.

The president appointed Mrs. Ben Gillies, Mrs. Robert King and Mrs. Faling as a committee to investigate possible projects for club activities during the coming year.

Favors for the children were provided by Mrs. King and Mrs. Howard Truesdale.

In April the club will meet with Mrs. Owen Partridge, when the program leader will be Mrs. Gillies.

A million tourists yearly visit the Cascades in Sparks Foundation County Park, Jackson. The waterfalls extend 500 feet, and drop 64 feet in 11 falls. At night, over 1000 magical colored lights floodlight the falls and spouting fountains.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Finally Talked Herself Out

A certain talkative young lady almost spent a night locked in "Doc" White's drugstore.

She entered Doc's store about 11 PM, going directly to the pay phone. At eleven-thirty Doc went home—not having seen a customer for a half hour. Around midnight he got a call from the store . . . she had finally run out of conversation (and money) and found the front door locked tight.

Doc vowed he'd leave her there to teach her a lesson. But Mrs. W. spoke up: "Now you go turn her loose. It's hard to cut a good conversation short — something only a woman understands!"

From where I sit, however, plenty of men are as hard to pry away from a telephone as any female. Some people are just naturally long-winded, while others are the silent type—just as some of us like coffee and others prefer a glass of beer. The important thing is to be considerate... before friends start giving us the "busy signal."

Automatically your best buy!

Ford's five power assists combine to give you more added convenience and extra driving ease than you can get in any other car in Ford's field!

It's great fun to step into a Ford's rich, colorful Luxury Lounge interior . . . to touch your toe to the gas pedal and feel the masterful might of Trigger-Torque power responding instantly to your every wish. It's fun too, to bask in the admiration aroused everywhere by Ford's Thunderbird-inspired styling.

But, for the ultimate in driving fun and ease, you should try a Ford with Ford's optional power assists: new Speed-Trigger Fordomatic, power steering, brakes, windows and seat. Ford brings you the power assists that combine to do the most for you automatically . . . so you get the most out of your daily driving!

Automatic Driving at its Best

Speed-Trigger Fordomatic Drive has a new, automatic low gear which lets you start in low, shift to intermediate and then into high—all automatically—all while the selector lever is in drive position. It's the only "automatic" in its field that combines the smoothness of a fluid torque converter with the versatility of three automatic forward gears.

Power to Steer For You

Master-Guide Power Steering does up to 75% of the steering work for you on turns . . . yet you retain the natural feel of the wheel on straightaways. It's a great help when parking—makes all driving easier and more relaxing.

Power to Apply Your Brakes

Ford's Swift Sure Power Brakes do up to one-third of the stopping work for you. And there's built-in safety. With power off, you stop your car as easily as though your Ford were equipped with the standard braking system.

Power to Adjust Your Seat

Ford's 4-Way Power Seat is the only power seat in Ford's field that adjusts "up and down" as well as "forward and back" for most comfortable driving positions. A touch of the conveniently located single seat control does it!

Power to Lift Your Windows

With Ford Power Lift Windows you don't need to stop in order to open or close all side windows. Driver can operate all four windows from the master control. And each passenger has a separate control switch for his own window.

And there's Trigger-Torque power to give you more "Go"

"CELEBRATING OUR 25TH ANNIVERSARY"

Is That So!

By Clara Waldron

STREET SIGNS

"I'm a stranger here, myself," is the now-a-days reaction of many Tecumsehites when a newcomer asks directions. So many new subdivisions, with so many new streets, with so many new names!

If they are old timers they may orient themselves by recalling early locations—

"Oh yes, Murray Drive. That is in Tecumseh Acres and that is the old Sutton farm. Murray turns off of South Adrian street and the street parallel to it is Shady Lane. That is the old lane to the farmhouse and it really was shady —shady I mean. They are connected by a north and south street and that too has a ghost name—Orchard Lane."

Those streets on the west side of town that run north and south across the extension of West Pottawatsmie are Park and Maple. They are connected at the north end by Parkway, which curves out to Chicago Blvd. and whose western end connects with Sunset Drive and leads to Occidental Hwy. All this section is Beland's "Sunset Meadle's and is part of the old Cairns farm. In fact, the street connecting Sunset Drive with the highway is called "Cairns." A further extension of Pottawatomie, is planned for this summer and another north and south street will be named "Pine."

All a little confusing? Then try locating someone in that water-surrounded isthmus at the east end of Brown street that was once the John Temple farm and is now Herrick Park. Not but what the names are very logical. There is Outer Drive (on the outside) and Center Drive (through the middle) and Island Drive which cuts across from north to south. But there is also Inner Drive, which seems to just cut off a loop of Outer, and then there are courts — North, Center and Parkway. Even the natives must have to use both hands to direct strangers and we pity poor Cousin Elmer who arrives from Iowa on a dark and rainy night.

The newest development of all, River Acres, between the Red Pond and the Clinton road, has only two streets, called very aptly Red Mill Drive and River Acres Drive. They curve north from an entrance opposite Burt street and emerge on the highway at "Kissing Hollow."

Another very appropriately named new street, though not much longer than its title, is Evans Creek Drive, which with its bridge was built by the Laidlaws on the west side of the creek near Patterson school.

These newest streets have been named from the fertile imagination of their promoters—and so were our oldest. Musgrove Evans who surveyed those first 16 blocks in a neat, right-angled gridiron, wrote in the names Wyandotte, Miami, Oneida and Ottawa. The east and west ones he called Shawnee, Logan, Chicago, Pottawatamie and Kilbuck. Most of them were definitely Indian. Kilbuck is of doubtful origin, Logan may have been for the Indian scout of that name and of course Chicago was the obvious choice for this piece of the trail which led to that western outpost. Later Miami became Maumee just as the "Miami of the Lakes" became the Maumee River. The crossing of Maumee and Chicago was then the town's "Four Corners," with the first town pump and the first hotel. Two other names that were almost inevitable were Evans and Brown streets, a meager reminder of the men who made Tecumseh, General Joseph Brown and Musgrove Evans.

The street names in the period between the oldest and the newest seem to have been "Topsy names" that "just growed." Burt, Bidwell, James, Cummins, Patterson, Russell and Blood came from men who owned adjoining land. Little James burst into prominence with the high school and the pool and another short strip, that beside the Globe Pond linking the highway with the end of Logan, has been named Eastern.

There have been changes. At sometime there were Monroe and Russell streets but we do not know where any more than we know the why of "Maiden Lane." But we do know that "Sycamore," called that for the lovely trees that then grew along the creek at its northern end, was allowed to become an awkward "Democratic" through sheer carelessness and inertia. The first plat maps of Hoag's Addition show it marked Sycamore, early deeds and abstracts have that name and a county atlas printed as late as 1916 also says "Sycamore."

Because it was so unusual in being Republican Tecumseh of Civil War days to find a cluster of Democrats, the street on which they lived was rather derisively called "Democrat."

That reason is long gone now, as are those families, and many of the residents of "Sycamore Street" would like to see its correct name restored.

Widow grateful she doesn't have to lose home!

"I'd never have been able to keep my home and still pay for all the hospital and doctor care I've needed, too," says Mrs. Knickerbocker, of Highland Park, Mich. "That's why I thank my lucky stars I've got hospital bill protection that pays off in service . . . provides me with a hospital bed, for example, rather than a fixed amount of money to pay toward that bed, the way other plans give you. I like the service way . . . the Blue Cross way! Just recently, my Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract covered $624 worth of hospital services I needed, leaving only $5 that I had to pay out of my own pocket. And my Blue Shield protection paid all but $23 of my doctor bill!"

There's a 1 in 3 chance that your family will have an unexpected hospital bill within a year! Why risk your home, your life's savings . . . when for very little cost, you can have the wonderful protection that only Michigan's Blue Cross-Blue Shield Plans give you.

Detroit Girl Wins American Legion Statewide Oratorical Contest

Diane Dembinski, 17-year-old Pershing high school senior, Detroit, earned the judges' choice as Michigan's champion orator in the American Legion's 18th annual statewide oratorical contest at the finals held in St. Johns, Michigan, March 16.

Winning a close decision over runner-up Judy Bodykin, 15-year-old Eastern high school junior, Lansing, Diane is the second girl in 13 years to win top honors and a $300 scholarship award which she will use at Wayne University toward a law degree.

Miss Bodykin was awarded a $200 scholarship for second place while a third girl, Sharon Hackett, 16-year-old Watervliet high senior was nominated for third place and a $100 scholarship.

Thursday, March 17, at the afternoon session of the Michigan legislature, 32 Senators heard the Detroit youngster deliver her prize-winning speech in the Senate chambers at Lansing.

Diane's 12-minute talk on the power of American freedom was titled "The Spark, the Flame, and the Flood," and was recorded in the Legislative Journal of the day's events.

One other youth rounded out the four finalists who represented Michigan's school system following weeks of district and zone competition. He was Robert Bengry, Stambaugh High senior, zone champion from the Upper Peninsula, who spoke on the Constitution and the Government of Law.

Majoring in college preparatory, Miss Dembinski lives at 20255 Riopelle with her mother, Mary, father, Edmund, and 11-year-old brother David. Her father is an engineering inspector for the Chrysler Corporation at Highland Park. A Detroiter by birth, she will attend Wayne University where she will continue her speech studies and work toward a law degree.

The tall, poised Detroit student will represent Michigan in the American Legion's national oratorical regional competition at Louisville, Kentucky, March 30. If she succeeds there, she will go to Jefferson City, Mo., April 1 for sectional eliminations, and then to the finals at Blackwell, Oklahoma, April 5, where she hopes to be one of four contestants aiming for the national orator's crown and a $4,000 scholarship.

ALSO ASSISTED

Troop 7 of the Girl Scouts with Mrs. William Snook as leader and Mrs. Julius Vincze as assistant leader were also members of the choir which assisted Troop 5 in the candlelighting ceremony at their Vesper Service on Sunday, March 13. In error their troop number was given as five. Mrs. Victor Lawson is leader of Troop 5 and Mrs. LeRoy Titley leader of Troop 9. Troops 7 and 9 assisted Troop 5 in a very effective manner, thereby lending dignity to the service.

Grade School News

Grade Two—Central
Mrs. Callihan

"Oh, no, not snow again!" we said this week when a few flakes came down. But we are happy, because we just know spring will be here the 21st!

Our calendars for March are up on the board and each day we put down the kind of day it has been. We also have one bulletin board that is just for us. We can bring anything we want to, to put on it without asking if we may use it. We hope that will help us enjoy the papers and magazines more at home.

Our number work is coming along slowly but surely. Most of us are in or ready for our second reader for our grade. The books we used the first of the year seem so easy now.

LaVon Schoonover's, Linda Easton's, and Shirley Kemp's mothers have been our visitors. Carolyn Sebring and Marvin Garcia had birthdays. Carolyn surprised us with a treat with our milk.

We boys who are eight have been asked to join the Cub Scouts. We also discovered that we might have fun playing baseball as well as marbles and skipping rope. Perhaps if we play well we could have a game with another class.

We have learned to write our names and know about ten letters in cursive writing. Do you know we can spell many words from just a few letters?

The star fish Terry Sisty brought to school was interesting even if it did smell. We enjoyed the pussywillows of Dick Hadsells.

Fritzalynn VanNorman came to our room from Clinton Schools. We enjoy her very much. Now there are 36 boys and girls and we hope all the germs have gone so we can all stay in school.

It was a surprise to us when we looked out our window one afternoon and found a bus load of donkeys right there. We went around to see them, petted one and watched one do tricks. Many of us went to the basketball game at night. We wish they would come every year.

Grade Two—Central
Mrs. VanWinkle

Since you heard from us last, we have had several more interesting reports given. We have heard about kites, elephants, cows, octopus, railroads, racoons, skunks, hamsters, George Washington, cats, horses, lions, snakes, and moose. All the reports have been very interesting and well given. We have had fun preparing them, too.

Our bulletin board is full of pictures about Maple Sugar. We are studying all about where the sap comes from and how it is cooked and finally becomes Maple Syrup and Sugar.

We have had several kites and are now waiting for a warm, dry and windy day, so that we can go down to the Athletic field and fly them.

We have had several nice treats of cookies and cakes during the school year, and want to thank the mothers for all the nice things that they have prepared for us.

One of the reading groups is starting a new book this week. Another group started a new one last week. We are all reading well now and have lots of fun looking at the simple and easy books that we read when we first entered second grade.

Grade Two—West Branch
Miss LaPointe

The teachers of the West Branch were greatly pleased with the large attendance at the last P.T.A. meeting held in our building. Much credit is due our president, Mrs. Crawford for her interest and constant efforts in making this organization worth while. The mothers who served on the committees also worked most faithfully.

We were glad to receive a letter from Mary Peck, a former classmate, who now attends school in Windsor, Ont.

March is a birthday month for Larry Whelan, Joel Rutherford, Jo Ann Green, and Susan Hohenstein. Mrs. Whelan, Mrs. Rutherford, and Mrs. Green served refreshments on their children's birthdays.

We are learning to measure objects using rulers. In number classes, we are also learning about pints and quarts.

We have learned much about Holland from the story of the Dutch Twins. We were glad to see pictures of the former queen, Wilhelmina, and the present queen, Julianna.

On St. Patrick's Day Laura Seager entertained us with an Irish dance.

Our room decorations are predominantly Easter and Spring pictures, which have been made by the members of the class.

Grade Two—Patterson
Mrs. Garlick

Birthdays in our room were celebrated by Keith Kilbourn and Marie Kohler. We now have eight people who are eight years old.

We are watching for the signs of spring and writing stories about those which we see. We have made kites and children flying them, for our bulletin board. Pam Bryan brought us some pussywillows and we have two caterpillars which have come out of their cocoons.

Stanley Wise has a new baby sister. Her name is Leslie Kay.

Aprill Warren, Bob Meier, and Douglas Beasley are back in school after being absent for some time.

We are enjoying our new Social Studies book, "Someday Soon." For part of this work, we made a map of our section of Tecumseh and pinned drawings of our houses in the proper place to show where we live. This was our work for the display case.

We like the pictures of our room which were taken some time ago. They have just arrived and we were interested in seeing how we looked while we were doing our school work.

One of our reading groups will have another basic reader in a few days.

We are having many more spelling words this semester than we had last semester. They aren't real hard for most of us.

We took our Achievement Tests last week and now are going to try to strengthen the places where we seem to be weak.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. H. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. George Miller of Adrian were Ridgeway visitors Friday.

Milburn Baker was in Clinton on business Saturday.

Bernard Bishop visited in Ypsilanti, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Palmer are home from a winter's visit in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pate of Adrian spent Saturday with friends in Ridgeway.

Mrs. Hattie Wood has returned to her home after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Schiller of Albion.

Mrs. Gertrude Birdsall and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Exelby were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Sturtevant.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pocklington arrived home Friday night from spending the winter in Florida.

Mrs. Guy T. Pocklington and son Ronald were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gray and family of Ypsilanti at a birthday dinner honoring the Gray's son.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Ann Arbor visited Ridgeway friends Sunday.

Services Held For Mildred L. Boyce

Mildred Leone Boyce, a former resident and teacher of Tecumseh, died Friday afternoon in Bixby hospital in Adrian. She had been a patient since January, having transferred from St. Joseph hospital in Flint where she had undergone surgery in October.

The daughter of John T. and Eva Limbarker Boyce, she was born Jan. 6, 1890 in Macon township and attended the rural school and Tecumseh high school where she graduated in 1908. Since the death of her parents, she had made her home with her cousin, Mrs. Guy Nemire and the late Mr. Nemire in Tecumseh and later in Adrian.

Miss Boyce was a graduate of Michigan State Normal College with the class of 1911 and received her master's degree from the University of Michigan in 1925. Specializing in the field of English and dramatics, she taught in the high schools of Hubbardston, Tecumseh, Detroit, Lansing and Durand. As additional training for her work she spent two summers in Europe and many in advanced study, preparation which was reflected in the high standards of her teaching.

In 1953 she retired from teaching and entered Western State College at Kalamazoo, graduating in June of 195 as a librarian. Until her health failed she was with the Genesee County Library in Flint. She was a member of the Presbyterian church in that city, having transferred there from Tecumseh and was a Past Matron of the Tecumseh chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

Miss Boyce had no immediate family and is survived only by cousins. Besides Mrs. Nemire they are Wilbur Boyce, Tecumseh; Albert VanDoren, Toledo; Marjorie Boyce, St. Clair Shores; Mrs. Wallace Mannheim, San Francisco, Calif.; Mrs. O. W. Kay, Pleasant Ridge; Mrs. John Calhoun, Holloway; Wendell Cleveland, Lansing; Donna Cleveland, Dearborn; and Herbert Cleveland, Tecumseh. She also has two aunts by marriage, Mrs. S. W. Boyce and Mrs. Don Cleveland both of Tecumseh.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the Green Funeral Home by the Rev. Robert L. McCachran of the Adrian Presbyterian church. Past Matrons of Tecumseh O.E.S. attended in a body. Burial was in Brookside cemetery with Leslie Calhoun and Wilbur Boyce of Tecumseh, Curtis Ashley and William Maskrey of Adrian, Albert VanDoren of Toledo and Charles Benedict of Britton as bearers.

LEANNA CREGER BURIED TUESDAY

LeAnna Cheryl Creger, 16 months old daughter of Lavern and Arvilla Covell Creger died suddenly at Herrick Memorial hospital Saturday evening. Her death was unexpected although she had been frail from birth. She was born, Nov. 11, 1953 at Herrick Memorial.

Besides her parents she is survived by four sisters, Nancy, Lynn, Marie, Evelyn and Priscilla; two brothers, Roger and Keith, all at home and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Creger, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Clement Covell of Tecumseh.

The Rev. Edward Escolme conducted funeral services Tuesday afternoon at the Green Funeral Home and burial was in Brookside.

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

TWO TECUMSEH PLACES of business are observing birthdays this week. There are 24 years between them. The Lad & Lassie Shop is one year old and the F. C. Hanna Insurance Agency is 25. Congratulations!

IT COSTS MONEY these days to become a grandparent. Fay Whelan was soaked a buck at Rotary because his son Richard and his wife presented Fay with his first grandson. Fay says it's the best buck he ever spent.

HERB DILLON SPENT a peaceful time last Wednesday. His phone was out of order at the Railway Express Agency. "It was wonderful while it lasted," Herb said.

THEY BURIED SAM THURSDAY. A friend of my family for half a century, Sam was noted for his booming voice. When he called his cows of a clear cold morning you could hear him all over Hillsdale County. And when Sam talked to you he talked like he was still calling his cows. He had a big voice. He was a big man: big in heart and helpfulness all through the lean years. The man with the big voice was a fine neighbor.

RECEIVING HIGH SCHOLASTIC honors is nothing new to members of the Wilbur Boyce family. Last year Marie was co-salutatorian of the Tecumseh High School senior class. This year her sister Ruth is valedictorian and in 1932 the girls' mother was co-salutatorian of the local senior class.

INCIDENTALLY, ALL HONOR students of the Tecumseh High School and Britton-Macon Rural Agricultural School are to be congratulated for compiling their fine scholastic records.

ERNIE VAN VLEET, local delivery man who for years has frowned on motorized delivery because he is a lover of horses, says he hopes he and his team can go through 1956 before retiring. Ernie's team is now 24 years old. Ernie didn't say how old he is.

A NEIGHBOR EAST OF US has a wonderful sense of humor. W. A. Williams ran for village office. He was defeated. In last Thursday's Dundee Reporter he ran this ad. "I want to thank the voters that supported me at Monday's election and my wife wants to thank those who did not."

IT LOOKS LIKE IT'S getting contagious at WJR. Last week the Lining reported a boo-boo by Bill Sheehan then this week another fine announcer Charlie Park came up with this botched line: "It's a perfect day to start the way right".

SIGN PLACED OVER AN office drinking fountain; "Old Faceful."

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "Don't worry about the job you don't like — somebody else will soon have it."

WHAT A GOOD SALESMAN NEEDS:

Along with an ever-present smile and many other requisites a salesman to be successful, must be a contortionist. He must keep his ear to the ground, his back to the wall, his shoulder to the wheel his nose to the grindstone, his head level, his upper lip stiff, and his feet on the grond.
— Author Unknown

LUCK HAD NEARLY RUN out for the wet, cold, hungry, little, black pup that some one, calling himself a man, had dropped on the boulevard Sunday. Monday morning things were a little brighter when Mrs. George Foos brought it to the HERALD Office. Cuddled in a blanket, fed and very sleepy, it was looking for a home. If you know a home that needs a dog Mrs. Foos has one at 10 Mill street.

ONE HUNDRED FOURTH YEAR — NUMBER 26 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1955 | TEN CENTS A COPY

5 Council Posts Are Open In City Election Monday

City of Tecumseh voters Monday will go to the polls to vote for five of nine council candidates and to vote for the uncontested office of justice of the peace.

They also will vote for two justices of the supreme court, two regents of the University of Michigan, a Superintendent of Public Instruction, a member of the State Board of Education and for two members of the State Board of Agriculture, the governing body of Michigan State College.

Voters also will vote on three amendments to the state constitution.

Council candidates are Stephan J. Illeck, the Rev. B. O. Bashore, Mrs. Edith B. Smith, LeRoy H. Titley, William M. Powell, Arthur J. Schwartz, Robert G. Fuller, Donald Purkey and John H. Hamilton.

Councilmen Bashore, Smith, Titley and Schwartz are incumbents.

The fifth spot on the council was vacated by Hal Kelso who decided not to run again. Hold-over councilmen are Mayor H. H. Hanna and Mayor Protem B. H. Moore.

The three candidates with the highest number of votes will receive two-year terms and the two with the next highest number of votes will receive one-year terms.

Robert L. French, incumbent, is unopposed for the justice of the peace post.

It is expected that both sides will use time-honored methods of getting their voters out to the polls. They probably will use the phone method, personal contact and offers of rides to the polls.

So far there has been little public campaigning on either side, although both sides may do more as election day draws near.

Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk, reports the city has 2921 registered voters eligible to vote. If half of those registered vote, officials will be "mighty" surprised." Chances are better that the vote will be under 1000. But the state biennial election coming on the same day as the city election might help in getting the vote out.

Mrs. Sallows appealed to voters to vote early to avoid the possibilty of standing in line when men get out of work.

Another aspect that might help, its backers say, is the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce's sponsorship of publishing after the election a list of voters. The chamber is doing this "to help get out the vote which is a right and duty of every citizen."

City voters again will vote in two separate polls. Precinct one voters will vote in the fire barn. This precinct includes those who live east of the railroad tracks.

Precinct two voters will vote in Butler's Motor Sales. This precinct includes those who live west of the railroad tracks.

In addition to state officers and state amendments, Tecumseh Township voters will vote for a whole slate of officers. None of the incumbents running for office have opposition. They are:

Supervisor, Wilfred Waldron
Clerk, A. W. Merz
Treasurer, Arthur Eaton
Trustee, Wilbur Boyce
Trustee, Ernest Harris
Board of Review, Leo Robison
Board of Review, Nobel Gregg
Justice of the Peace, Faye VanValkenburg
Justice of the Peace, Herbert Long

The township formerly had only one justice but two will be elected this year, one for the west side and one for the east side of the township.

Mr. VanValkenburg, on the west side, is the incumbent of the two.

This is the first time the township slate has been up for election. Members of the board were appointed when Tecumseh became a city.

Polls will be open Monday from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Voters may call the chamber of commerce at 259 for a ride to the polls. Car dealers are furnishing transportation.

Pictures of six of the council candidates are on this page. Pictures of candidates Bashore, Smith and Fuller were not available for publication.

JUNIOR PLAY — "Arsenic and Old Lace," the popular three-act comedy, will be presented by juniors of Tecumseh High School tonight (Thursday) and Friday night at 8 p.m. in Central School. In the mayhem shown are Hal Weakly, Ed Lewis and Don Partridge. Other members of the cast are Betty Day, Ray Fuller, John Cadarus, Al Geesnowski, Rodger Finnegan, Meryne Boltz, Margaret Champanois, Larry Kohl, Duncan Harris, Walter Baily and Bill Browne.

Mulvaney Is Guilty In Liquor Case

A circuit court jury has found Maynard Mulvaney of the Chieftain Hotel guilty of selling liquor to a minor.

Deliberating three and one-half hours, the jury announced its findings Wednesday, March 23.

They found that he sold a pint of whisky to Dale Daniels, 18, of Tecumseh.

Daniels told the jury he bought the whisky "as a public service" to stop the hotel from selling liquor to minors.

When he bought the liquor Jan. 7 he was seen by Chief George Kilbourn of the Tecumseh Police Department and Mulvaney was arrested.

He pleaded guilty in justice court and was sentenced to serve 30 days and to pay a $100 fine. He appealed the sentence to circuit court so he did not serve the time nor pay the fine.

Mulvaney is free on bond. After the probation officer's investigation, he will be sentenced by Circuit Judge Rex Martin.

Members of the jury who heard the trial were Perry Bogert, Route 4, Adrian, foreman; and Bernice Hibbard of Route 2, Adrian; Eldred Herriman of Jasper; Mrs. Paul Amo of Adrian; Earl Abbott of Morenci; Mrs. Francis Eldridge of Medina township; Elmer Pocklington of Ridgeway Township; Fern Bruce of Route 2, Blissfield; Frank Gillman of Route 1, Clinton; Walter Hutchins of Hudson; John Measures of Route 1, Adrian; and Mary Webber of Clayton.

The wide range between local assessed valuation and state equalized valuation jeopardizes the educational facility in Tecumseh at present because of the formula used by the state in apportioning state aid, states Supt. James McDowell.

In Tecumseh Public Schools last year, he said, the local school taxes paid 19 per cent of the cost of operation and the state 72 per cent. All other sources such as book rentals, etc., paid the remaining 9 per cent. An average community in Michigan last year paid 35 to 40 per cent in local taxes and received 50 to 55 per cent in State Aid.

VALUATION?

Asked what the board of review accepted as the final figure on the assessed valuation of the City of Tecumseh John Saling, city assessor, said "I don't know what the final figure will be. I haven't had a chance to run a tape on it yet."

He did say, however, that the board, after talking to "aggrieved taxpayers" Monday, increased the valuation he submitted to it. Asked whether the $9,724,100 figure he submitted reached $10,000,000 by board action he said "no." He thought the increase "was about one per cent."

A one per cent increase would mean the assessed valuation was upped to $9,821,341 by board action. But this is only a guess.

One of the means by which the state controls to some extent these inequalities is by what is known as deductible millage. From each maximum dollar of state aid to local schools two mills of the state equalized valuation of the local district is deducted.

Where the range is great, as in Tecumseh, the net gain between local tax proceeds and the amount withheld from state aid due to the deductible millage is small, even though total taxes collected locally may be considerably more each year, he explanied.

There's One Contest In Twp. Election

Ridgeway Township is the only township in the Tecumseh area that has a contest in Monday's election.

This is the line-up for the township posts there:

Supervisor—Willis Spohr (R) and Benjamin Beasley (D)

Clerk—Viva Brown (R) and Clare Griffin (D)

Treasurer — Charles Fairbanks (R) and Charles Benedict (D)

Trustees—Lester Edelbrock (R) and Frank Kniffin (R), Everett Exelby (D) and Jennings Frayer (D)

Justice of peace (full term) — William Kuster (R) and Merle Spence (D)

Justice of peace (to fill vacancy)—Alex Gibson (R) and Earl Griffin (D)

Board of review—Royal McElroy (R) and Wilmer Lorenz (D)

Highway commissioner — Earl Pennington (R) and Thomas Korican (D)

Constables — Richard Vallie, Ernest Wright, Charles Anspach and Willard Exelby, all Republicans, and Warren Lewis, George Brablec, Lee Taylor and Oliver Mueller, all Democrats.

There are no contests in Macon and Franklin Townships.

This is the Macon slate: supervisor, Mills Swick; clerk, Herbert Gilmore; treasurer, Mrs. Myrtlene Craig; highway commissioner Charles Hindes; justice of peace (full term) Floyd Barrett and Fred Truefel; board of review, Carl Hintz; and constable, Hamilton Moore, Jr.

This is the Franklin slate: supervisor, Herman Titley; clerk, Maurice Evans, and treasurer, Merrick Dibble.

DEMS MEET TONIGHT

Attorney General Thomas M. Kavanagh will be the principal speaker tonight (Thursday) at 8 p. m. when Tecumseh Democrats meet at the high school.

Dr. R. J. Murray Named President Of Local Jaycees

Dr. Robert J. Murray is the new president of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce. Elected last Thursday night, he succeeds Jack Osburn.

After he was elected, Dr. Murray said: "I personally want to thank Jack for his fine work during the past year and I will work to make the next one a memorable one for the club. Thank you for electing me your second president. With your help we can have another wonderful year."

Other officers elected were Don Purkey, first vice-president; Preston Caswell, second vice-president; Del King, secretary; and Dick Beemer, treasurer.

New directors, elected to two-year terms, are Jack Osburn, Doug Murdoch and Art Schwartz. Hold-over directors who have another year to serve are Karl Schneider, John Hamilton and Bill Powell.

Past president Osburn was given a standing ovation.

J. C. Satterthwaite Goes To Burma

Recent Washington State Department news is of personal interest to Tecumseh residents. President Eisenhower has appointed Joseph C. Satterthwaite as United States ambassador to Burma.

Mr. Satterthwaite, who has been serving as our Minister to Morocco is a specialist in the affairs of the Near and Middle East having been ambassador to Ceylon and our representative in Iraq and Turkey.

He is in Washington at present on business for the State Department and was joined there last weekend by his brother, Perry Satterthwaite.

LEGION HELPS KOREAN VETERANS

More than 100 veterans of the Korean War were given assistance in making out their bonus applications at the Legion Home of Underwood-Orr Post No. 34 last Saturday afternoon. A typist helped fill out their blanks and they were notarized on the spot.

Saturday, April 2, another staff of Legionnaires, notary and typists will be at the home from 2 to 4 p.m. to assist other veterans. Those wishing to help should bring their report of separation and a photostatic copy of the same to be sent with the application.

In the Clouds Ike Writes Den 10 Cubs

Cub Scouts of Den No. 10, Pack No. 73 of Tecumseh and their leaders were up in the clouds this week—and justifiably so.

Their den mother Mrs. Dorothy M. Squires received a letter from President Eisenhower thanking her and the boys in the den for sending him a picture.

Last Nov. at the monthly pack meeting the Cubs of Den No. 10 presented a skit in which they re-enacted the flag raising on Iwo Jima in the form of a tableau.

The boys were Steve Freckelton, Charles Saling, John McKenzie, Charles (Corky) Squires, Jim Osburn, Greg Smith and Tommy Tressler, den chief.

The skit was considered the best one of the year for Pack No. 73 and it was re-enacted again for the county Cub show where it won a blue ribbon for the pack.

When it was presented Jim Freckelton took a colored picture and an enlargement was made and presented to Mrs. Squires as a gift.

During the time the skit was presented, Iwo Jima was making news elsewhere—the erection of the Iwo Jima monument in Washington, the death of one of the heroes who raised the flag during World War II on Iwo Jima and the tenth anniversary of the capture of the Island.

Because of these events and because of the favorable comment on the local skit, Mrs. Squires thought the president would like to see the picture of the skit.

In turn he wrote her the following letter:

"The White House
Washington
March 25, 1955

Dear Mrs. Squires:

I am grateful to you and to the boys in Den No. 10, Pack No. 73 of Tecumseh, Michigan, for sending me such a nice picture taken at your commemorative exercises held in November.

Please extend my greetings and best wishes to each member of the den.

Sincerely,
Dwight D. Eisenhower

Mrs. Dorothy M. Squires
Tecumseh, Michigan"

Mrs. Squires said this about Ike's letter:

"With the world situation as it is today and realizing the heavy problems our President is faced with it creates a warm feeling to

C of C Sponsors Contest "What My Mother Means To Me"

NEW GROUP ELECTS HART SEC.-TREAS.

The Lenawee County Secondary Schools Principals' Association held their first meeting Monday in Adrian.

The group has been formed to discuss mutual problems, to exchange ideas and to work out general practices in education.

Officers elected Monday are Elvin Duvall of Addison High School, president; J. C. Pace of Madison Junior High School, vice-president; and Neville Hart, principal of Tecumseh High School, secretary and treasurer.

The next meeting of the group will be held Monday, April 18, at 12:15 p.m. in the Lenawee Hotel.

The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a contest for public and parochial school student writers on "What My Mother Means To Me."

Three prizes of $15, $10 and $5 will be offered and winning letters will be published in the HERALD.

These are the rules:

The letter must contain a minimum of 200 words; it must be composed and written by the student entry (no letters are to be typed); the contest runs from April 4 through April 30.

Judges who will be selected will judge the letters on neatness, spelling, originality, penmanship and content.

The writer's name, address, grade and age must be submitted with the entry.

WEST BRANCH P.-T.A. PLANS DANCE

A committee from the Parent-Teachers Association of the West Branch School met Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dickinson to plan fund raising activities for the organization.

In addition to Mrs. Dickinson the committee consists of Mrs. Raymond Kempf, Keith Barron and Harold Koons and it was decided to hold a benefit dance the evening of Saturday, April 9.

They are calling the event a "Bunny Hop" and it will be staged at the Central School gymnasium with music provided by the Products Orchestra. Dancing is from 9 to 12:30.

Good Friday

Good Friday services, April 8, this year will be held at St. Peter's Episcopal Church from 12 noon to 3 p.m.

Keep Pencils, Paper, Pins In Handy Spots

Pin and needles, and paper and pencils are the little things that make running a household easier.

And running a home can be easier if these small pieces of equipment are placed at strategic spots in the house, says Esther Everett, assistant professor of home management and child development at Michigan State College.

Extra brooms and dustpans, for instance, can save steps if kept in several places where they will be used—front hall, basement and back door.

Spare needles, thimbles, scissors and thread for light mending can be kept at the ironing board as well as at the sewing machine, Miss Everett says. If you clip magazines or newspaper articles and recipes, another pair of scissors can be kept near where you read the material.

Miss Everett also suggests keeping postcards and a pen near the radio or television set for making requests by mail. Pencils and note pads are handy for taking telephone messages and making kitchen shopping lists.

The word "crimp-set" on a nylon sweater label means the fibers, which are normally straight, have been permanently crimped. This makes them less shiny and more soft and springy with a wool-like feel.

Stamp News

By Greg Mason

This year is the 15th anniversary of the famous "Great Stone Face," a rock formation in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. According to Associated Press dispatch there will be a commemorative to commemorate this event; but there has been no formal announcement to this effect.

It will likely be released this summer when thousands of tourists will visit the "Great Stone Face."

As soon as information is received as to the date and place of issue it will be published in this column.

Plan New Certified Mail Service

A new service has been announced by the Postmaster General. It is a "certified mail" service. A "certified mail" service will be just about the same as registered mail only about 15c cheaper. A new 15c "certified mail" stamp will be produced and will have a first day of issue.

The date and place will be announced later (watch this column for further details). The size will be standard 0.05 by 1.44 arranged vertically. The color has not been announced. The design will be a mailman smiling and carrying a sack of mail over his left shoulder. "Certified Mail" will appear at the top in white gothic letters. U. S. Postage and 15c will appear at the bottom. This is not a commemorative and will be used for quite some time. You will have to use a 3c stamp with the certified mail stamp.

A commemorative for the 100th anniversary of the Soo Locks has been promised. No word has been received as to color, size or date of issue. The first day city will likely be Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. They will finish the new postage series this year.

Jersey Cattle Club To Meet Today

The annual meeting of the Lenawee County Jersey Cattle Club will be held today (Thursday, March 31), at 3:30 p.m. at the United Church in Addison, according to an announcement by Bernard Bowman, President of the Club.

Directors will be elected to fill the expired terms of Kenneth Blumerick, Ridgeway, Frank Sumner, Addison, and C. M. Brown, of Tecumseh.

The Jersey dairymen will hear an address by Victor Peterson, National Fieldman and view a movie of the International Dairy show of 1954.

The Addison Community schools boys' choir will sing several selections for the club. Don Wright of Addison will be toastmaster. The business meeting will be in charge of Bernard Bowman.

Master Mix May Be Good Cook's Secret

Many women who are masters at mixing up cakes, muffins and biscuits in a jiffy have a secret for their success. They use a master mix.

It's a mix that can be used for everything, explains Margaret MacDougall of the foods and nutrition department at Michigan State College. It includes waffles, gingerbread, coffee cake and many kinds of cookies, cakes, muffins and biscuits.

The recipe for this unique time-saver lists the following ingredients: 9 cups sifted all purpose flour or 10 cups sifted cake flour, 1/3 cup double acting baking powder, 1 tablespoon salt, 2 teaspoons cream of tartar, 1/4 cup sugar and 2 cups shortening. Stir the baking powder, salt, cream of tartar and sugar into the flour and sift them three times together. Cut in the fat until the mix is the consistency of cornmeal. Store the master mix in a covered container at room temperature.

To measure the master mix for use, Miss MacDougall suggests piling it lightly into a measuring cup and leveling it with a spatula. She also recommends using cake flour and an emulsified fat if you use the mix for cake baking. Read the labels on the shortening cans to be sure it is emulsified. Cake flour and this type of fat are musts when baking cakes.

Many of the recent commercial cook books give directions for variations of commercial or home-made mixes, says Miss MacDougall.

Exam Announced For Rural Carrier At Britton

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to fill the position of Rural Carrier for the Post Office at Britton, Michigan.

Applicants for this examination must actually reside within the delivery of the above-mentioned post office and must have so resided for one year next preceding the closing date for receipt of applications. Age limits, waived for persons entitled to veteran preference, are from 18 to 50.

Full information and application forms may be obtained at the above mentioned post office or from the Commission's Washington office. Applications must be filed with the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C., and must be received or postmarked not later than April 19, 1955.

"Reservations so far have been excellent," Ray declared. "From 41 clubs throughout the State, 340 reservations have been made." Mr. and Mrs. Russell Garno of Tecumseh will make the trip.

Ardyth Eaton Weds Franklin Schroeder

Ardyth Joe Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eaton and Franklin Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schroeder of Britton, are announcing their marriage, which was performed by the Rev. Hap of the Methodist church in Angola, Ind., Saturday, March 26.

They were attended by Miss Mary Lou Aldredyce of Tecumseh and Donald Schroeder of Britton, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Schroeder attended nurses training school at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Detroit and the Jackson Business University. Mr. Schroeder is employed by the Lenawee County Road Commission and also farms. They are living on the Schroeder farm north of Britton.

NAZARENE CONVENTION WILL BE IN RIDGEWAY

The Ridgeway church of the Nazarene will be the scene of the convention of the Ann Arbor zone of the Foreign Missions Friday evening, April 1.

The pastor, the Rev. C. A. Bearinger announces that the general president of the Nazarene Society, Mrs. Louise Chapman, the East Michigan district president, Mrs. W. M. McGuire and the district superintendent will be the principal speakers. A delegation from the 12 churches of the Ann Arbor zone will be present.

Mrs. Chapman has spent 20 years as a missionary in Africa before being elected the general N.F.M.S. president and the Rev. Bearinger is sure the public will find her message a stirring one.

MAKES TOP 10

The names of Michigan State students whose academic averages place them in the top 10 of their class in their respective schools of study have been announced by the registrar's office at M.S.C.

The rankings are based on cumulative academic averages through the fall term of 1954 for students enrolled in the winter term of 1955.

Miss Marion Elizabeth Titley, Route 1, Tecumseh, made the top 10 of her class.

Howie Moore Writes from Formosa

(The following letter was recently received by county treasurer Willis Moore and family from his son, Howard William, who is currently doing missionary work on the Island of Formosa. Howard William is a former Lenawee county 4-H member and belonged to what is now the Birdsall Boosters 4-H club from 1938 through 1942. Willis Moore was the leader of the Birdsall club at that time. Previous to leaving the United States last Sept. Howard William was pastor of the Friends church at Beloit, Ohio.)

Dear Dad, Tom, Beryl, and Tommy,

Has your Winter broken up there now? Here, we have had no damp cold spells for awhile now, guess they are over. Several days have been quite warm, and it gradually will get warmer, as the Spring and Summer are long.

The main difficulty is that it is very dry, a revelation to us, after hearing of all the moisture here on the Island. They tell us the last couple of years have been unusually dry. This year there has been almost no rain since we have come, that is soaking rain. Of course, things do not look as bad as they do at home — we still have a lot of green vegetation — in a serious dry spell, probably because this is tropical climate, and there still is a lot of humidity. But, the paper reports some crop damage already. And, the large Sun Moon Lake that provides our electric power source is very low, so they are announcing a rotation blackout out over the island to begin soon, if rains do not start. The usual order of weather is: little rain during the winter months, then a season of rain in the spring for two or three months. So, we hope rain begins soon.

I believe Mary Evelyn wrote about our trip to Taipei for Darlene's glasses and for dental work. That night while we were waiting for the train in the Chiayi station we noticed another American man waiting with some Chinese men. Mr. Mutti spoke to him first, and I heard him mention 4-H work here on Taiwan, so when they were through talking, I went to inquire more about it, and found that he is Mr. A. J. Brundage, with title of "Rural Youth Specialist", working under the Joint Commission on Rural Reconstruction of Mutual Security Agency's Mission to China. This means he is in charge of 4-H Club work all over the island. It was a real opportunity to me, for I had read of the some 10,000 4-Hers here, and had been hoping for a chance to talk with someone who knew how it worked. He was state 4-H Club leader in Connecticut for 34 years and is a very close friend of A. G. Kettunen (my face is red; have not seen his name written in so long I forget the spelling), and I believe he said he would have been at the National 4-H Congress the years I was there, and Mr. Kettunen was in charge of the Michigan delegation. Is Mr. Kettunen still Michigan State club leader? I thought Louis Hall would be interested in this, so after we got to Taipei that night in our station it was so late, and everyone was tired, so did not take much of his time), I phoned him at his home and asked him for some comment on the results of the 4-H work here that would help interpret it to rural lay people back home.

In reply, he said that 4-H is now well organized over the Island, and in a democratic matter from the county, down through the towns and villages, which are divided into counties, I would judge in looking at the map, similar in size to our counties though more irregular, and if I counted right there are 15.) Further, he said that in these new democracies, where of necessity, new ideas are being superimposed, the people with their great respect for ancestors and deep rootage in traditions of the past, still tend to look back to see how the new idea fits their tradition. For instance, they want to see what Confucius said about a subject before they determine their action now.

4-H is one of the best tools Free China has to work with her rural youth in showing the benefits of freedom. Formerly, youth have been just "tools" of their elders. This is giving them a "new look" at life, a kind of life where they can achieve on their own. A good example of what this is doing is seen in rice yield: The youths had a 25 per cent greater yield per unit this past year than their father and neighbors. This is giving the youth a new importance, a new initiative. He said the youth are anxious to learn new methods, and one thing about these people, when they want something, they are willing to pay their share of the cost to get it. He believes 4-H is one of our better foreign aid avenues. The Minister of Education for Free China has this to say, "4-H Club work is the lifeline of Free China."

One more point he said could be carried back home, that is that the youth here are no dumbells. We also had observed this — they have a very strict educational routine and on a competitive basis. There are so many children that all cannot have education opportunity as at home, so they really have to compete to make it. We see many fine, well-dressed, cultured people, and many high-caliber business people. Even people with push-carts on the street have an "eye for business".

Back to the agriculture, Mr. Brundage gave me the name of the agricultural agent for Chiayi (I suppose for Chiayi County), located at an agricultural school here, so I hope to look him up one of these times and get a closer view of the farm program. As you can see, quite a bit is being done for rural people which is very vital to the nation.

Have been having some opportunity of contact with U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group and Air Force personnel here.

Have spoken three times at MAAG Chapel services—another missionary near our age here in Chiayi is MAAG auxiliary chaplain. Have had one fellow who likes to straighten up come to the house several times to counsel and pray. Many of these fellows surely are messed up, some are in so deep that humanly they can see no way to get out. The Orient gives them no help morally. At the time of the Tachen evacuation, the 18th Fighter Wing was divided among three bases, and the largest of the three divisions was based here at the Chiayi Air Base. So we had several hundred G.I.s around. That outfit has gone, and two more have come in at different times. They all are movable units and they bring them in for training. The senior officer of the Chiayi MAAG group, who just retired, told me at the time of the Tachen excitement, that it was blown up too much by the press. He said that militarily, there had been no major change in the situation.

We took up the film you sent for Christmas, dad, and had it mailed to you from Hong Kong. Afraid I wasted some of it in getting the outside family pictures. Was using cable release with our timer, and the cable release on that camera is a little too long, so trips it when trying to place it in the timer. Hope we got some good ones.

The one of Mary Evelyn's new slip you sent provokes the title "Reader's Digest section, "Pardon Me, Your Slip is Showing". You should have them within two or three weeks. It takes longer than at home.

Hope you folks are o.k. We appreciate hearing how you are getting along. If you want to send along some family slides now and then, we will be glad to have them. Probably should send duplicates for sake of saving take two of the view, so you will have an original there.

With love from all of us,
Howard, Mary Evelyn,
Darlene and Wesley

SCHOOLS

Classrooms, he said, are already overcrowded due to lack of floor space in some classrooms and lack of sufficient operational funds to supply additional teachers. Twenty-five to 30 pupils are considered an average teaching load for optimum learning. Many elementary classes in Tecumseh are nearing 40 and in the high school some classes are over 50.

More classrooms and more teachers are needed to serve Tecumseh. Unless additional funds are raised locally this need cannot be eliminated as not enough more state aid is available. In fact, Tecumseh and Lenawee County has been cited by the Governor as an example both of low assessments and below average local taxation for school operational funds, the superintendent pointed out.

He also explained: Tecumseh schools have been increasing at the rate of 125 to 150 pupils per year and an advance check-up shows that next year will be no exception. Four additional teachers are necessary if the system is to hold to even the present large classes, let alone reduce class sizes to give better service.

"Of the four additional teachers needed, two have already been selected, Bob Brenlff who will teach social studies and coach varsity football and baseball and Jack Trudeau who will teach junior high mathematics and science and assist Mr. Brenlff in football. All teachers in Tecumseh Public Schools teach a full day, regardless of extra-curricular activities.

A replacement for Mrs. Vallie in the third grade and an additional fourth grade teacher have not been secured.

Miss Carol Sheffer, a graduate of Bowling Green and at present girls' physical education director at Dundee will assume the same position in Tecumseh next fall as Mrs. Sisson, who formerly was girls' physical education director, has chosen to teach science and social studies in junior high.

There are now 1571 pupils in Tecumseh Schools and with the normal increase for 1955-56 will approximate 1700.

The board of education is planning to use every available room large enough for classes in the present school buildings in attempting to postpone any new building until the present bond issue is retired.

Additional classrooms will be absolutely necessary by 1957-58 school year, but the bond issue is expected to be retired by Christmas of 1958, even at the present assessed evaluation. Both the high school and Patterson school have been so designed that rooms may be added very reasonably, since the boilers will carry additional loads of twice the present number of classrooms.

With the retirement of the Bond Issue of 1952 requiring 13 mills of debt service, only a small millage should be required in the near future for debt service under normal growth conditions.

Jehovah's Witnesses Announce Plans For World Message

A spokesman for Jehovah's witnesses announced plans today for delivering a special message to the world, Kenneth Ball, local presiding minister of the Tecumseh congregation, revealed some of the details of this special campaign, which includes sponsoring the public lecture entitled "Christendom or Christianity — Which One Is 'the Light of the World'?"

All congregations of Jehovah's witnesses throughout the world (there are approximately 14,000 in 159 lands) will participate, Mr. Ball will deliver this discourse locally, to which the public is cordially invited. It will be delivered at Central School Auditorium at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, April 3.

After the discourse a new 32-page booklet containing extraordinary information will be given free to each person in attendance." Some 600,000 of Jehovah's witnesses will then begin distribution of millions of copies of this special message in many languages throughout the world. It is the desire of Jehovah's witnesses to place a copy in every home.

Red Cross Wants Members

There is still time to become a member of the 1955 Red Cross. Tecumseh's official quota was supplied through contributions to the Community Fund but many citizens like to be a personal part of this organization.

The many flood and windstorm disasters of this winter and spring have made a heavy drain on Red Cross funds and within our own county there are constant and often expensive services rendered by the home service department of the local chapter to servicemen and their families.

Mrs. James Winzeler found the Red Cross of Springfield, Missouri, a friend indeed when fire destroyed her car while she was enroute to Texas to join her serviceman husband.

Mrs. L. W. Larsen, Tecumseh chairman, suggests that individuals or organizations wishing to make contributions send them to her or to the Lenawee County Chapter in Adrian.

Seniors Take Lansing Trip

Seventy seniors of Tecumseh High School, accompanied by their teacher Donald Brazee, and his father Alvin Brazee, took a field trip to Lansing last Thursday. The purpose of the trip was to tour the state capitol building and observe the state legislature in action.

Seniors were conducted through the building by Grover Crumm who explained how business was conducted in the legislature as well as interesting facts concerning Michigan history and the Capitol building. They proceeded through the Governor's office and the students had an opportunity to sit in the Governor's chair. Unfortunately, the Governor was not "in."

The senate convened at 11 a.m. for a short session before adjourning for a trip to Battle Creek where they participated in a conference on Civil Defense.

At 1:30 p.m. Seniors were back from lunch in time for the afternoon session of the House of Representatives. Representative Rollo Conlin of Tipton, introduced the Tecumseh students to the house after which the legislative activities were conducted. Special school tax bills and a bill to fix requirements for law clerks in Michigan were debated and passed during the stay.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Albert F. Oliver, 43, of Tecumseh, was arrested by city police Saturday afternoon on the charge of driving a car while under the influence of liquor.

Arraigned before Justice French Monday, he pleaded not guilty and he was released on a $100 bond to await a hearing.

Business Women Display Antiques

It was "Antique Night" at the March meeting of the Business and Professional Woman's Club Monday evening.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Cecile Smith assisted by Miss Ethel Keyser and Mrs. Nyra Parrott, members and guests displayed many devoted cherished articles of glass, china, silk and lace, with outmoded pieces of household equipment, books, silver and jewelry. There was a hand spun and woven coverlet, a hand coffee mill, a buggy robe or "duster" and even one of Henry Ford's hats.

Mrs. Edward Escolme, a guest of the evening, had the most extensive display which included a collection of "coronation mugs" and cups from the jubilee celebration of Queen Victoria through the succeeding English monarchs to the coronation of Queen Elizabeth.

The display was preceded by three of the songs of Stephen Foster sung by Miss Marcelle Gillespie, who was accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Schwartz. Miss Gillespie chose three selections that represented different periods of Foster's career, "Laura Lee", "Beautiful Dreamer" and "Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair", songs in perfect keeping with the theme of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Escolme conducted an impressive devotional period before the dinner which was served at tables gay with spring flowers and Easter napkins. Hostesses were Miss Margaret Lowry, Mrs. Hilda Will and Mrs. William Britton.

Seven guests were introduced during the business meeting when it was reported that $5 had been realized this month from the traveling basket, and that the music student to be sponsored by the club is Interlochen this summer would be Lee Vescellus.

Mrs. Cecile Smith and Mrs. Naomi Sallows had been appointed by the president, Mrs. Homer Colson, to represent the club at the planning meetings preliminary to Michigan Week activities in Tecumseh, and Mrs. Smith reported on some of the tentative arrangements that had been made. The B. and P. W. Club is to assist with Hospitality Day which is Tuesday of the week of May 15 to 28.

Mrs. James Aitman and Mrs. Mel Partridge were appointed as delegates to the 50th anniversary celebration of the County Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in Tecumseh April 20 at the Baptist church and announcement was again made of the 12:30 luncheon.

An invitation was read from Mrs. R. J. Tressler of the Girl Scout Association asking club members to attend the annual court of awards to be held April 29 at the Union Hall.

Mrs. Colson appointed Mrs. Hilda Will, Mrs. Purnell Osburn and Mrs. Lewis Schultz as a nominating committee to report at the next meeting, April 25, when the hostesses will be Mrs. Duane Service, Mrs. Alice Randall and Mrs. Harry Stanifer.

SKATING PARTY SAT.

Brownies and Girl Scouts, their leaders, assistant leaders and committee-women will be guests of the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association at a roller skating party in the Skate-Arena Saturday afternoon, from four until six o'clock. The association will pay the admission fee only. Every girl must have a signed permission slip to present to her leader before leaving Tecumseh. The leaders and committee-women will arrange the transportation for their troops. Mrs. Gerald Griffin is chairman of the skating party which is now an annual affair.

SCOUT ASSOC. TO MEET

The Tecumseh Girl Scout Association will meet in the Scout cabin Wednesday morning, April 6 from 9:15 until 11 o'clock. This will be an important meeting and all leaders, assistant leaders, committee-women and officers are asked to be present as an election of officers will take place. Mrs. Victor Lawsen, Mrs. Victor Peterson and Mrs. Junior Fouts are members of the nominating committee. The president, Mrs. Truman Rentschler, will preside.

General Phone Supervisors Hold Meeting In Coldwater

The General Telephone Company of Michigan held its third annual meeting for supervisors of the Southern Division at the Arlington Hotel, Coldwater, Michigan March 16, 1955. The annual meetings are held in order that all Supervisors of the company may receive directly from the president and other top officials reports on progress for the past year and may be informed of plans for the future.

Mr. T. G. Sowers, division manager, informed the 42 supervisors in attendance that the company was entering the second phase of their expansion and rehabilitation program. In 1955 the emphasis will be transferred from outside plant expansion to central office equipment and toll line facilities. Efforts in the day-to-day opedation will be centered toward streamlining the various departmental functions and further improving services to the customers.

The principal discussion was conducted by the president, L. H. Meyer. He reviewed the annual report for 1954 and pointed out that during that year the General Telephone Company of Michigan became the twelfth independent company in the United States to serve more than 100,000 telephones. He stated that the telephone plant in service at the end of the year reported an investment of $25,571,496. He also announced that the gross additions in 1954 were $3,397,554 and that planned additions for 1955 are in excess of three and one-quarter million dollars. Mr. Meyer announced that the company plans to continue expansion at this figure for several years if the rate of return can be maintained to attract sufficient capital. He reviewed each department's operation to show the possible savings in operating costs to obtain this objective.

At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Meyer showed a comparison between operating expenses for 1954 and the budgeted expenditures for 1955. He stated that for the first two months of 1955 all departments are operating within their respective budgets.

Mr. K. W. Benckert, vice-president, Mr. Robert J. White, secretary-treasurer, Mr. H. H. Randall, general commercial manager, Mr. J. L. Read, general traffic manager, Mr. W. W. Gordinier, industrial relations director, Mr. S. W. Ratajack, general plant manager, and Mr. H. R. Baldwin, assistant to the controller, also spoke to the group assembled. Each executive presented educational and factual information regarding operations of their office or department.

Mr. Meyer stated in closing the conference that he was pleased with the progress to date, but that it would be necessary for everyone in the company to bend every effort if the objectives of expansion and improvement in service are to be met.

Supervisors from the Tecumseh area attending the conference were:

R. E. Kinsman, district manager, Tecumseh; Miss Hillaine Bondy, cashier-chief operator, Dundee; Mrs. Nina Evans, cashier-chief operator, Erie; Mrs. Winifred Gall, cashier, Saline; Mrs. Kathryn Heft, chief operator, Saline; Mrs. Kathleen Kelch, contractor, Holloway; Mrs. Ruth Cole, cashier, Tecumseh; Mrs. Ush Mead, chief operator, Tecumseh; Miss Mildred Plotter, cashier-chief operator, Blissfield; G. L. Smith, crew foreman, Tecumseh; and Mrs. Marguerite Haise, cashier-chief operator, Temperance.

BIRTHDAY HONORED

Jim Purkey had a very happy seventeenth birthday anniversary Saturday evening and so did the 38 young people who surprised him on that occasion. All were classmates or friends and the party had been planned by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Purkey assisted by Beverly McClain. Most of the festivities were held in the downstairs "family room" of the Purkey's new home on N. Occidental where the guests enjoyed dancing, games and eats.

Living With Peace Of Mind

By KIRBY PAGE

A sparrow was used by Jecsus to illustrate the worth of a person in the sight of God. Across the earth there are myriads of sparrows but not one of them can fail to the earth without attracting God's attention. The Creative Spirit brings forth countless varieties of birds from the tiniest of hummingbirds to the giant Condor. He must consider every creature of precious value because of the endowment he bestows upon it.

Concerning the substance of a bird, John Ruskin wrote: "It is little more than the drift of the air brought into form by plumes; the air is in all its quills, it breathes through its whole frame and flesh, and glows with air in its flying, like blown flame. Also into the throat of the bird is given the voice of the air . . . rippling through the clear heaven in its gladness, interpreting all intense passion through the soft spring nights, bursting into acclaim and rapture of choir at daybreak, or lisping and twittering among the boughs and hedges through the heat of the day, like little winds that only make the cowslip bells shake, and ruffle the petals of the wild rose. Also upon the plumes of the bird are put the colors of the air: on these the gold of the cloud that cannot be gathered by any covetousness: the rubies of the clouds—the vermillion of the cloud-bar, and the flame of the cloud-crest—and the snow of the cloud, and its shadow, and melted blue of the deep wells of the sky." Yes, consider the birds of the heaven and reflect with William Alexander Percy:

I heard a bird at the break of day
Sing from the autumn trees
A song so mystical and calm
So full of certainties,
No man, I think, could listen long
Except upon his knees.
Yet this was but a simple bird,
Alone, among the trees.

Mayor, Manager Attend Regional Meeting Of MML

Mayor H. H. Hanna and City Manager E. J. Nelson were among 59 municipal officials representing 20 cities and villages at the regional meeting of the Michigan Municipal League's Region II in Milan Wednesday, March 23.

Officials at the one-day meeting selected the following as their regional officers for 1955-56: regional chairman, Maxwell G. Sweet, village president, Chelsea; vice-chairman, councilman Charles Manning, Dundee; regional secretary, village president Robert Gren, Parma.

J. Dean Stanley, former consultant to the Municipal Finance Commission, spoke on municipal bonding during the first part of the afternoon. The second part of the afternoon session was devoted to a general discussion among the municipal officials present. Subjects ranged from control of subdivision development and zoning problems, to sewerage rates and municipal charter revision.

Guests and speakers included J. G. Schaub, special assignment engineer of the Michigan State Highway Department, D. L. Kelley and Ray Kutchins of the highway department.

Region II of the Michigan Municipal League consists of the counties of Hillsdale, Ingham, Jackson, Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe and Washtenaw.

The Michigan Municipal League is an organization of cities and villages of the state with headquarters in Ann Arbor. It is devoted to the advancement of home rule and the improvement of municipal government in Michigan.

Christian Science Services Listed

How spiritual understanding of God brings freedom from the futility of materialism will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Unreality" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Selections to be read from the King James Version of the Bible will include the following from Jeremiah (2:5): "Thus saith the Lord, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?"

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be among those read: "The perfect Mind sends forth perfection, for God in Mind. Imperfect mortal mind sends forth its own resemblances, of which the wise man said, 'All is vanity'" (239:29).

The Golden Text is also from Jeremiah (4:14): "O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?"

U. S. Rubber Co. Colors Tires

The first successful production of tires in a variety of colors — a goal sought by the rubber industry for 40 years — was recently announced by the United States Rubber Company.

According to Ken Heflin, Tecumseh Tire Service, local U. S. Royal Tires distributor, the U. S. Royal Master will be available in three colors — blue, green and brown. The color extends from the outer edge of the white sidewall to the top edge of the tread. The tread itself is still black to maintain its wearing quality. The color accents the white sidewall and blends with the two-tone color styling of 1955 automobiles.

"Production of colored tires has started at the company's huge Detroit tire plant," Heflin added, "and the tires will be available to the nation's motorists through a nationwide network of distributors starting in April."

With major emphasis being placed on styling and color by automotive manufacturers, the tire industry has become far more style-conscious than ever before. Narrower white sidewalls, the new 'curb guards' and straight, smooth, simple lines without 'gingerbread' has reflected the trend.

"I believe," continued Heflin, "that motorists, the automotive industry and the tire industry are all ready for color. It will enhance the beauty of automobile design and blend with the color styling of new cars. Blue, green and brown hues were selected because they blend with most present cars. Actually there are no limitations on the variety of colors which can be produced."

The first auto tires produced in this country in 1894 were white because zinc oxide was the only reinforcing agent used by the rubber industry at that time. Carbon black with its tremendous advantages for increased mileage and toughness, transformed white to black in 1915. Tires have been black ever since; that is, until now — the first successful departure from black in the ensuing 40 years.

ELECT OFFICERS

At their regular March meeting at the Grange Hall last Thursday evening, the Macon 4-H Rangers elected officers for the coming year. Those chosen were: President, Kenny Barrett; vice president, Carl Kimerer; treasurer, Frank Prochaskia; secretary, Lois Wilt; and reporter, Lois Neitlinger.

Jack Barrett is leader of this 4-H group and he will be assisted this year by Charles Bishop. There are about 30 boys and girls in the Rangers who meet the third Thursday of each month at the Grange Hall. Last week they signed up for their years' projects, most of which are in livestock.

Speaks to Methodist Men

Dr. Alfred P. Haake, author, lecturer and consultant of General Motors will speak to fifteen hundred Methodist Men at their Annual Training Conference at the Michigan State College auditorium, April 16 at 1:30 P.M. He is a resident of Park Ridge, Illinois where he served as mayor for eight years. The Right Rev. Marshall R. Reed of Detroit, Bishop of Michigan Methodism will bring the annual devotional address at 9:15 A.M.

Local Topics

Mr. and Mrs. Vearl Osburn received word last week that their daughter, Mrs. James Winzeler encountered bad luck on her drive to Fort Bliss, Texas to join her husband who is stationed there. At Springfield, Mo. her car caught fire and was completely destroyed. Mrs. Winzeler was accompanied by her little daughter and by Mrs. Robert Mason of Port Huron and they lost a large part of their luggage. They continued the trip by air.

Miss Ethelyn Garlinghouse has been a patient at Herrick Memorial hospital since Saturday morning, following a sudden and serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. David Williams and children David, Dianna and Deborah, who have been occupying the Robert Laidlaw home on Brown street will move the first of the week to Danville, Ill., where they have purchased a new home. Dr. and Mrs. Laidlaw are expected soon after the first of April.

Twelve members of the Fiddlesticks Club were in Ann Arbor Sunday afternoon to hear the University of Michigan symphony orchestra at Hill Auditorium. Accompanying the group were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kruse, Mrs. George McCombs and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Day. The next meeting of the Fiddleesticks Club will be April 19 at the home of Gerald Kruse.

Mrs. Eldon Sherman and children, Janet and Lynn are spending two weeks as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Williams.

World's first State Police radio system was established in Michigan in 1929. Now State Police Planes, Patrol Cars, 8 District Headquarters and 45 Posts are coordinated by two-way radio.

BIGGEST CAR

of the low-price 3 is Plymouth

MORE LUXURY OUTSIDE

You'll be understandably proud of the long, low, flowing lines of your new Plymouth. Its 17 feet of shining steel make it the biggest car of the low-price 3 (8.4 inches longer than one car, 5.3 inches ahead of the other). And its glamorous new Full-View windshield, with swept-back corner posts, gives you wider, safer visibility than either of the "other 2" low-price cars.

MORE COMFORT INSIDE

Plymouth's greater over-all dimensions also mean more interior roominess. You get the widest front seat (by up to 2 inches), the greatest front and rear leg room (by up to 3.7 inches). Plymouth's door openings are higher and wider, too, permitting the easiest possible entry and exit. What's more, Plymouth's new trunk is mammoth—with far greater capacity than the "other 2."

SMOOTHER BIG-CAR RIDE

Only a truly big car like Plymouth can give you the luxury of a big-car ride. Plymouth's longer and stronger frame, wider rear springs and Oriflow shock absorbers provide the smoothest ride in the lowest-price field. And Plymouth's great new 6-cylinder PowerFlow 117 gives you the smoothest, thriftiest performance. Another top engine: Plymouth's new 167-hp Hy-Fire V-8.

Auto Owners Do It Again

Male Drivers Under The Age of 25

Take Notice

Last Year — 1954 — Auto Owners pioneered a constructive change. They took the girl driver out of the high rated class.

Today other companies are following our lead.

This Year — 1955 — We still face the facts and act. Automobile accidents are still too frequent and too costly, but the records reveal that some drivers are entitled to a better deal.

Effective April 1, 1955, and thereafter the Auto Owners Insurance Company of Lansing, Michigan, has completely revised their classification of drivers' risks.

EXTENSION CLUB

The Ridgeway Extension club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chet Godsma. Mrs. Wynne Matteson conducted the business meeting in the absence of the chairman. Plans were completed for the group's trip to Northland shopping center in Detroit to attend the color clinic. Mrs. Leslie Marks and Mrs. Nelwin Bishop will make identification tags for Achievement Day. Plans were also completed for the program April 19. The mystery gift was won by Mrs. Henry Fliter. Mrs. Robert Rice gave an interesting lesson on curtains and draperies with each member presenting pictures and swatches.

UNITED WORKERS

Mrs. Curtis Beach entertained the United Workers at her home for the March meeting assisted by Mrs. William Burnor as co-hostess. During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Edith Southard, plans were made for helping with serving meals at the Meadowridge sale April 16. Mrs. Sarah Fletcher presented the program assisted by Mrs. Marjorie Niblack and Mrs. Nina Sturtevant. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Several members of the Ridgeway-Britton Youth Fellowship left Friday for a youth rally at Taylor University, Upland, Ind.

Overnight guests recently of Mrs. Hattie Wood were her grandchildren, Alice, Russell and Jimmy Wood.

Dad-Son Banquet Attended By 150

One hundred and fifty fathers and sons of the Baptist church gathered in the Youth House Monday evening for their annual banquet. An orchestra composed of Mrs. Harley McConnell, George Green Jr. and Harold Harper entertained until all had been seated, when the Rev. B. O. Bashore gave the invocation.

Harold Kelso was master of ceremonies for the program which followed the dinner and he introduced J. D. Cook, who toasted the sons and was followed by a toast to the fathers by his son, Johnny Cook. R. H. Moore led the assembly in group singing with Ted McConnell at the piano.

Recognition was given to Arthur Harding as the oldest man present and to Fred Sheldon as the oldest father, while John Surratt and his three sons, Phil, Paul and George, were honored as the largest father and son group.

The speaker of the evening was John Winge, who as director of education at the federal institution at Milan brought his audience much that was informative and inspirational. A lighter side was added to the program by Carlos Jones, whose magic efforts were very clever and entertaining.

The table decorations were colorful articles of ceramic art made by Mrs. Hal Kelso and Mrs. Vern Manwaring. They included flower containers in the form of logs which were filled with sweet peas and were flanked by pixies and miniature animals, birds and frogs. Mrs. Charles Stevenson had charge of the dining room with Mrs. Floyd Barrett, Mrs. Milis Swick, Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett and Mrs. Dow Bilby at the head of the kitchen staff.

The women of the church have chosen May 13 as the date for their mother daughter banquet.

Local Topics

Mrs. Jessie Daugherty returned to her home near Marion, Ohio after spending some time with her granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Prettyman and family. Bobby Prettyman went to Marion Saturday to spend until Easter with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Lyon.

Joyce Harper entertained her canasta club Thursday and prizes were won by Carol Langham and Doris Skinner.

Mrs. Robert Loucks and daughter of Toledo were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Velandra and family.

Dr. and Mrs. Truman Rentschler returned Sunday night from a week's vacation in the east. They visited their daughter, Sally, who is attending the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. Other points of interest on their trip were Atlantic City, Baltimore, Annapolis, Harper's Ferry, and the Battlefields of Antietam. Although spring was evident around Annapolis with tulip trees and oriental cherry trees in full bloom, the Rentschlers were detained for three hours in Fostoria, Ohio, on their return because the roads were blocked with snow and ice.

The first railroad to be built in the United States west of the Alleghenies was located in Michigan. In 1936 the Erie and Kalamazoo Railroad completed a 35-mile line between Toledo—then a Michigan city—and Adrian.

MSC TRAMPOLINE ACE

Phys Ed Class Started Bob Marsh Toward Top

From phys ed class tumbler to top gymnastics team trampolinist is the success story of Bob Marsh at Michigan State College. The former Tecumseh football, basketball and track star, according to the Michigan State News, today is rated one of the better tramp men in the Big 10.

Son of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. B. Marsh, Bob went to MSC in the summer of 1952. The following fall he began to experiment on the tramp and he enrolled in a tumbling class.

This is the way the Michigan State News reports it:

"It wasn't long before gym coach Szypula caught sight of Marsh and the versatile gymnast was on his way to fame.

"Now a junior, Marsh is Szypula's top tramp man.

"In 1954 he placed 11th in Big 10 competition and this year he has looked good in his dual meet appearances.

"In last week's loss to Illinois, Marsh put on one of his best performances to place second to Big 10 runner-up Jeff Austin.

"But he rates as his biggest thrill the first place finish at Ohio State early in the season.

"Performing against the Buckeyes, he did several new stunts and pulled them all off to win the event."

The MSC paper said this about Bob in the Ohio meet:

"Bob Marsh became the first Spartan trampolinist to carry off a first in the event this season. In his best show to date Bob edged Ohio's ace Fletcher Gilders by one point."

MSC won 54-42 and the Spartan paper labeled the gymnasts "the team to beat." But Illinois beat the Spartans in the Big 10.

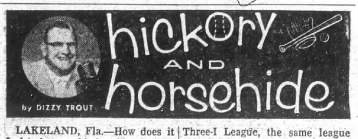
State copped second place.

Bob Marsh was one of four Spartans chosen to represent Michigan State in the NCAA gymnastic finals at UCLA last week.

The Spartan paper said this about Marsh: "Marsh is a rapidly-developing trampolinist who led the squad in that department . . ."

"A hard worker, Marsh is devotee of the 'practice, practice and more practice' school. 'You can't get enough work on the tramp', he says.

"A friend once counted 55 consecutive tricks by Marsh in a practice session."



LAKELAND, Fla.—How does it feel to be a rookie breaking in with a major league ball club? Well, it depends upon the individual. Our new first baseman, the veteran Ferris Fain, for example, did not experience the usual thrill of most young rookies.

After playing in the Pacific Coast League four years and competing against many big league stars on a service team during World War II, he broke in with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1947. Inasmuch as there was no one else to play first base, Ferris knew he had the job cinched from the start, so he did not feel any particular excitement.

$50,000 Rookie

Just the opposite is J. W. Porter, the good-looking prospect recently released from service for whom Tiger boss Spike Briggs turned down a $100,000 offer by the White Sox.

Porter, who later was traded by the Sox to St. Louis and then to us, was a $50,000 bonus rookie when he trained with Chicago in 1951. Only 17 and just out of high school, he was thrilled with everything and awed even of the batboy.

A catcher then, Porter thought he might make the team his very first year when he batted .385 in spring training, highest of any White Soxer. But Manager Paul Richards thought he first should have some seasoning (the bonus rule wasn't in effect then) and sent him down to Waterloo of the Three-I League, the same league 'Ol Diz started in.

Porter's biggest thrill during that first spring was hitting a triple, double and single off Ned Garver, then with the Browns. Now the two players are teammates, of course, and I'm sure Tiger fans will be glad of that fact when they see Porter in our outfield. He's a nice kid, with an even disposition, but he sure is mean with that bat.

Outfielder Kaline

Outfielder Al Kaline, like Porter, is a bonus player but he differs in that when he signed with Detroit the bonus rule had been changed to require players getting more than a $4,000 bonus to remain with the parent club.

This didn't matter to Al, for he proved he had major league ability from the outset by playing regularly the entire season with the Tigers.

Of course, when he came to Lakeland last year, fresh from a high school in Baltimore, he was plenty nervous, as well as thrilled.

But Manager Fred Hutchinson took him in hand, talking to him privately and easing his tension.

His biggest thrill was against the Philadelphia Phils, when he clobbered a homer and triple off their ace, Robin Roberts. This happy event no doubt helped Al land a regular berth with the Tigers, the youngster batting .276 in his first season and sparkling defensively.

Atom Tests and Weather

Ever since the atomic age began scientists and weather men have been denying that nuclear explosions have anything but local effects on weather.

But a lot of persons don't listen to or don't believe these denials. They believe that atomic explosions have fouled up the weather.

And they point to the strange and unusual tornadoes, windstorms, torrential rains, lightning and hail storms and dust storms that struck in late winter and during the first week of spring.

The Atomic Energy Commisison and the Weather Bureau keep denying that nuclear tests have any bearing on the freak and unseasonable weather. But what about the worst dust storms in 18 years that hit parts of Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri and Texas during the second week in March? Or what about the tornadoes that ravaged Indiana and Virginia or the winds of hurricane force that lashed Pennsylvania and torrential rains that drenched flooded Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia? Or, bringing it closer to home, what about the freak electric storm that hit Tecumseh about the same time or the rain and blizzard last week? Remember, it was still winter when most of this unleased havoc was going on. But the scientists say the tests have only local effects.

Recently two Weather Bureau scientists, L. Machta and D. L. Harris, issued a report written after a long and exhaustive investigation. It was entitled "Effects of Atomic Explosions on Weather."

Their conclusion, after examination of all possible angles was that atomic explosions don't have any effect whatever on the weather except, maybe, for strictly local showers and such.

But scientists never state anything that flatly. You probably couldn't get a genuine scientist to assert, without a few qualifying remarks, that summer will come this year. Anyway, being scientists, this is what Machta and Harris said:

"Although it is not possible to prove that atomic explosions have or have not influenced the weather, it is believed that this study has shown that such an effect is unlikely."

We still wonder, however, if the weather is effected by atomic tests and we don't mean near the tests, but all over. During the freak storms, the atomic test was made in Nevada, by 13 other states were lashed by a nature gone berserk.

And these storms some times makes us wonder if man learned something when he unlocked the secret of the atom that he was never supposed to know.

A Way To Save Lives

State traffic deaths could be reduced 200 to 300 a year if driver education in the high schools is expanded to reach 100,000 teen agers annually, reports Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of public instruction.

Dr. Taylor proposes that such a program be financed by increasing the fee of a three-year driver's license from $1.50 to $2.50.

If the proposed increase becomes a law $1,500,000 a year would be produced. This fund would be divided among schools having driver education courses.

Most police believe that driver education courses offer the surest way to reduce car accident rates.

Dr. Taylor also says parents of young drivers would save several times the cost of the expended program in automobile insurance.

Driver education, Dr. Taylor said, currently is offered in some high schools, but is only available to a minority of 16-year-olds who become eligible for regular driver licenses.

Under his proposal an expanded driver education program would cost drivers 33 cents more a year which is a cheap price to pay in helping to reduce the slaughter on our highways.

"Take this," Mrs. Martin said, as she handed me a For Sale sign that had been in the front window of their home. "I'm tired of being bothered by strangers. Let them talk with you now instead."

Mr. Martin nodded. "The other evening a young fellow was here. He liked the house. He said he worked and couldn't get away. He added that if I would arrange an 80 per cent loan he would buy it."

Mr. Martin continued, "Mister, I told him, I'm just as busy as you are. If you want this house, you do your own arranging."

"So you see," Mr. Martin said, "why we're listing our place with you. We don't know the ropes when it comes to selling real estate. And we don't evan care to learn them. You handle it for us."

This true incident illustrates an important point—the day is past when people will buy a property at the first sight of a "For Sale" sign. Nowadays a seller has to work actively at it—and give real service.

That's where we shine. Let us be the SELLING SERVICE for your property!

Letter To Editor

Dear Editor:

I wish to publicly thank and congratulate Dale Daniels for doing what no other citizen in Tecumseh has had the nerve, or stamina, or aggressiveness or public spiritedness—call it what you will, to do.

A good many people have heard that this condition existed in town, namely that anyone could go into the Hotel at any time and buy liquor, and no questions asked. But we all sat and shook our heads.

I only hope that a lot of people who read the accounts in the papers realize what embarrassment Dale has suffered to do this thing he considered a duty.

It is my feeling that if Mr. Mulvaney's powers of perception were so poor, he had no business in such a job. And I fail to see on what grounds he could appeal his sentence when he was caught red handed. I sincerely hope the liquor license of that establishment will be revoked.

Surely if one of our teen agers, who had bought liquor from that place went out and had an automobile accident, resulting in someone's death, the teen-ager would not get off easily. Teen agers in general would receive the usual condemnation and stiff sentence.

But who would be the guilty one? The liquor store or we who let such a place continue to do business?

Sincerely,
Gene Barton

J. Wayne Green, eminent Trichologist demonstrates causes of baldness and how it can be prevented.

How To Have Hair For A Lifetime To Be Demonstrated Here By Famous Trichologist

Offers Written Guarantee

An Exclusive Interview by Steven Bright

WICHITA, (Special)—J. Wayne Green, Director of Rogers, Inc., Hair and Scalp Specialists, exploded the "myth of baldness" today in an exclusive interview.

"Baldness is unnecessary, costly, and a plague to mankind," says Green. "No man need be bald. No man need suffer the stigma of premature old age that is forced upon him because he is losing his hair. The Rogers method of hair and scalp treatment can prevent baldness — can turn colorless fuzz into healthy, growing hair — can make you look youthful again."

Demonstration To eB Held In Tecumseh, Michigan

This revolutionary method of home treatment for the hair and scalp will be demonstrated in Tecumseh, Michigan, Wednesday ONLY, April 6 at the Chieftain Hotel. Trichologist C. T. Matlock will conduct the private individual interviews from 12 noon until 9:00 p.m. on Wednesday ONLY. There is no cost or obligation and you need no appointment.

Reason for Baldness

"There is always a reason for baldness," continued this nationally known authority. "Hair cannot grow through a scalp that is ingfected with dandruff, excessive oiliness, or extreme dryness. A scalp that has never been exercised cannot be expected to produce healthy hair." Men, and yes, women too, walk the streets today, completely devoid of nature's greatest ornament — hair. Simply because they were not taught the basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene while they were growing up. The simple answer," emphasized this expert,—"is that children should be taught the same simple basic rules of hair and scalp hygiene that they are taught for the proper care of their teeth. If this were the case, baldness would be a rarity today!"

Heredity Not Involved

Trichologist Green dodged no issues. He quickly took up the most widely spread theory of baldness — heredity. "Mankind's unrealistic belief that baldness is hereditary stems from a misinterpretation of the theory of genetics. Theory does not state that any person must be bald because baldness exists in the family. What it does say, is that in some families, a tendency exists towards an undernourished scalp." The purpose of the Rogers Hair and Scalp Clinic is to teach the methods of strengthening the weak scalp and nourishing it to a healthy, vigorous condition. "A healthy scalp will grow hair if it is not already completely bald," assures Green.

Is There Help for the Completely Bald?

In his travels throughout the United States and Canada, Green has collected hundreds of testimonials of his ability to develop weak fuzz into healthy, mature hair. All of his clients have started with a private examination of hair and scalp analysis, and a diagnosis of the disorder. Green is quick, however, to tell a hopeless case that he cannot be helped. "We strongly advise," says Green, "that no person who is completely bald hold any hope whatsoever of regrowing hair. If there is any fuzz at all, we can restore a healthy scalp condition and the hair will grow normally again as nature intended."

Offers a Guarantee

"Rogers, Inc., America's Foremost Hair and Scalp Specialists, offer a guarantee to any client who enrolls for treatment. If he or she is not completely delighted with results at the end of 30 days, the money invested will be graciously refunded," pledged Green. "We must regrow hair. After all, it is our best advertisement."

Is Your Hair Healthy?

If you have a scalp disorder, or if you are worried about your hair, call Trichologist C. T. Matlock at the Chieftain Hotel in Tecumseh, Michigan, Wednesday ONLY, from 12 noon to 9:00 p.m. The public is invited. The examinations are private and open to man and women. You do not need an appointment, and you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way.

M.S.C. Has Grown With America

As America has grown, so has Michigan State College.

Reflected in M.S.C.'s 100-year history are America's change from an agricultural to a diversified economy, and Michigan State's foresight in keeping step with the changing times.

Michigan State was created as the Michigan Agricultural College, with a curriculum of agricultural courses and related subjects. This was at a time—100 years ago—when 85 per cent of the people were engaged in farming.

Today, more than half of the American people are producing goods and services unknown to the citizens of the last century. This diversified economy in America today is reflected at Michigan State where 126 courses of study are taught in nine schools—Agriculture, Education, Engineering, Science and Arts, Business and Public Service, Basic College, Home Economics, Veterinary Medicine, and Graduate Studies.

NOW RANKS EIGHTH

Thus, Michigan State has grown from a small college, primarily devoted to agriculture, into America's eighth largest university serving the needs of students and people in many occupations and professions.

In its belief that knowledge should be put to work for the people, Michigan State has pioneered in many areas of importance to the citizens of the state. The curriculum in police administration, for example, was established at M.S.C. in 1935, opening a new era in police training in Michigan.

Since this course of study began, its graduates have gone into important police positions in Michigan, as well as into such groups as the F.B.I., U. S. Secret Service and military police. A current enrollment of more than 275 in police administration includes 34 coeds enrolled in a special course for women, first offered in 1950.

Michigan State's hotel training program—second oldest in the nation—will begin its 28th year next fall. Graduates of the division of hotel, restaurant and general institutional management hold positions as managers of hotels, hospitals, restaurants, industrial food services, and military post exchanges.

SERVES AS LAB

The modern Kellogg Center on the M.S.C. campus serves as a "laboratory" for hotel, restaurant and general institutional management students. The program has won the praises of industry and attracts students from 34 states as well as foreign countries.

The Basic College, begun in 1944, is an educational innovation which has served as the model for a number of colleges and universities in other states. Required of all undergraduate students, the Basic College helps the student to learn to live more intelligently in a free society.

Four "core courses" in the Basic College are: Communication Skills, Natural Science, Social Science and Humanities. In addition to providing a basic program of educational experience for all students, the Basic College helps students acquire better study and learning skills; develop more effective personal traits; and become more able in personal, social, civic, family and leisure time activities.

EDUCATION IS NEW

The "newest" of M.S.C.'s nine schools is the School of Education, established as a separate school in 1952. Geared to the important task of educating teachers, this modern school believes in "the quality of the educational system. The better its operation, the wiser the citizens and greater are the possibilities for youth."

The School of Education maintains close contact with parents, students and school administrators. Among its important services are parent education, child development data, and assistance in planning school systems, buildings and outdoor education.

Graduate work — advanced study toward master and doctoral degrees—was recognized under a separate dean at Michigan State in 1930. Today, there are 1,760 students in graduate work at M.S.C., representing approximately 70 different areas of study.

Warns Of Tree Quacks

Local homeowners were warned today by Mrs. Earl Pennington, secretary of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, to watch out for the tree quacks who soon may be soliciting business in this area.

"Although tree surgery is a science when engaged in by trained and skilled technicians, it may be an outright fraud," Mrs. Pennington cautioned, "in the hands of the incompetent or the unscrupulous." In furtherance of its community protection program, the local chamber cautioned all residents of this area to protect their trees by taking sensible precautions in dealing with tree surgeons of unknown reliability. The text of Mrs. Pennington's statement follows:

"Untold damage is done annually to trees throughout the nation by unqualified and unscrupulous men posing as tree experts. Although tree surgery is a science when engaged in by trained and skilled technicians, it may be an outright fraud in the hands of the incompetent or the unscrupulous. Since the fraud may not be evident to the homeowner until after a tree dies, it is essential that homeowners protect themselves against this racket by becoming familiar with the tricks of the tree phonies, and how to avoid them. This is particularly applicable to the fly-by-nights in this business, because they may not only damage trees and fleece homeowners, but, if uninsured, hold the homeowner liable for personal injury, as well.

"In a recent article on this subject the American Home Magazine suggested the following precautions:

"1. Be wary of unknown solicitors.

2. Before employing any tree man, check carefully with your County Agent, your local Chamber of Commerce, or with the well known nurseries or horticulturists in your area.

3. Insist on references — and check them.

4. Don't rush!! You can save your tree just as well tomorrow as today.

5. Be wary of guarantees. A reputable tree surgeon can not guarantee to cure a sick tree any more than a doctor can guarantee to cure a sick patient.'

"In most states anyone can work as a tree surgeon. All that is needed is a truck, a few tools and a smattering of knowledge about trees and their care. In a few states such as Connecticut and Louisiana, for example, tree surgeons are required to pass a licensing examination. In most other areas, homeowners must protect themselves from falling into the hands of quacks by investigating the reliability of those to whom they entrust their trees, before they allow them to work upon them. To quote the advice of the National Better Business Bureau with which this chamber is affiliated through membership—'Before You Invest — Investigate.' "

FFA Begins Chain Pig Project Here

The Tecumseh chapter of the Future Farmers of America bought three, grade Spotted Poland China feeder pigs.

Bill Every will take care of the pigs until ready for market. Bill will furnish the bedding and labor and will receive points from our point system for his labor. The chapter will furnish the feed and manage the project. The ag classes will figure out the rations for the pigs and mix the feed in the ag lab.

The pigs will be raised to a weight of 220 lbs. then sold with whatever profit going to the chapter. The object of the project is to give the boy experience in raising pigs and for all boys taking agriculture to learn how to mix rations and learn latest approved practices.

The chapter also has a pig chain in which a student is given a registered gilt. The student must raise the gilt, have her bred to a registered boar and after the little pigs have been weaned he must give back to the chapter one gilt and one boar.

The gilt is given to another boy and the same cycle is repeated. Future plans are to have three gilts so that we will be getting back three boars, which will be used for feeder pigs, and three gilts, to be given out again. Boys now having the gilts are Melvin Scheffler and Charles Hendershot.

By getting to keep the sow and the rest of the pigs the pig chain helps to get a boy started in the registered hog raising business.

At present the boys are planning out their crop rotations and method of working their 40 acres of land.

Kroger Employees Save Through Profits

Employees of the Kroger Co. now have a total of more than $14,749,840 to their credit under the Kroger Employees' Savings and Profit Sharing Plan, Mr. Carl Fuller, Toledo branch manager for the retail food firm, announced today. The plan was begun in July, 1951.

Under the plan a part of company profits is credited to the accounts of employee in proportion to the amount each has saved during the year.

During 1954 alone, a total of $1,347,604 from company profits, plus credits of $490,709 given up by members who have left the plan, was credited to employees' accounts, Fuller pointed out. This is equal to 57 cents on each dollar saved by employees. Their savings totaled $3,190,875 during the past year. An additional $714,747 was credited during 1954 to employees' accounts representing earnings and increases in value of the funds during the year.

More than $42,000 of the company's contribution will be credited to accounts of employees in the Toledo branch area. This includes employees of the branch's 49 retail stores as well as the Egg Exchange in Hudson, Michigan, the branch office and warehouse in Toledo.

Funds contributed to the plan from company profits have been invested in 24,100 shares of Kroger stock, the trustees' report to members said, as well as in the stocks and bonds of 62 other companies. In addition, the fund also now owns three Kroger stores, which are leased to the company.

Employees have saved $8,553,-835 since the plan began and have received credits totaling $6,195,-960 from company profits.

Number of employees in the plan has increased steadily, Fuller said, with the total rising from 16,995 at the end of 1953 to 18,-631 in 1954. About 96 per cent of eligible employees are now participating in the plan. All regular Kroger employees, 21 years of age or older, who have had two or more years of continuous service with the company, may participate.

Retailing Class Sees Northland

A journey to Northland, J. L. Hudson Co.'s $25,000,000 shopping center, thrilled 12 retailing students accompanied by their instructor, Mr. Delmar Crisp, and three chaperones last Wednesday.

On arrival each student was handed two comparison shopping items to test in at least three different stores as to price, quality, and manufacturer. Items under consideration were sheets and pillowcases, handbags, hide-a-bed davenports, barcalounger and stratolounger chairs, silverware, steam irons, automatic percolators, luggage, fishing rods and reels, glassware, blankets, draperies, and rugs. A second project for each pupil was to buy at cording to class standards, three sales clerks in the shopping center.

A conducted tour behind-scenes in J. L. Hudson's included the non-profit cafeteria for employees; the receiving, checking, and marking department; the spotlessly clean and very modern and well-equipped hospital maintained for the benefit of employees and customers; the men's and women's alteration department operated on the assembly line basis; the endless conveyor system for package pickup and delivery service; and the students were shown the unloading docks where huge semi-trucks come down into the very heart of the great Northland by an underpass especially designed so that no passenger vehicles would interfere.

At the end of the tour, the class was taken to J. L. Hudson's training rooms to see where the company trains 200 sales clerks per week. The first day the new sales clerk is given seven hours of comprehensive training on cash register operation and sales slip writing, after which he is placed on the particular job with four hours training per day for the balance of the week in which he is taught merchandising.

Later, the students shopped and had dinner at Stouffers before returning to Tecumseh.

Goodwill Makes Its Annual Report

"The 107 Goodwill Industries throughout the United States gave training and employment to 23,500 handicapped men and women during 1954," Harold H. McKinnon, executive secretary of Detroit Goodwill Industries, said today.

"Goodwill Industries, a non-profit organization, was the biggest business in the field of private agencies serving handicapped people last year," McKinnon said.

Total income of the Industries exceeded $21,000,000, of which about $18,800,000 was earned income. "Less than $1,000,000 was donated income from community chests and public support, and the balance was service income. Detroit Goodwill, self supporting, receives no aid from the Torch Drive or any other agency.

Earned income, along with all other totals, was highest in the 52-year history of the Goodwill Industries movement and was $1,200,000 greater than in 1953, McKinnon revealed.

Principal source of earned income was sales of reconditioned articles in Goodwill stores, while contract jobs are a growing source of income.

Goodwill Industries paid nearly $14,000,000 in wages, of which about $12,000,000 was paid to handicapped and disabled people. The handicapped workers paid $1,600,000 in federal income and social security taxes alone, instead of being dependent upon tax funds. Wages paid were over a million dollars more than in the previous year.

More than 3,000,000 households donated over 3,500,000 Goodwill bags filled with discarded clothing, over 1,600,000 pieces of furniture and nearly 2,000,000 units of such other items as housewares, toys, appliances, etc., according to the national report.

The donations of materials, plus assembling, sorting, packaging and other industrial jobs contracted with local industries, made possible about 17,000,000 hours of employment for the handicapped workers.

Forty-seven per cent of the Goodwill Industries employees [illegible] of general handicaps, 16 per cent had mental, emotional and social handicaps, 13 per cent were handicapped by age or infirmity, and 13 per cent were non-handicapped truck drivers and helpers.

Grade School News

Grade Three—Patterson
Miss Baker

We are having a baseball spelling game. Our room is divided into four teams. At the end of each six weeks, Miss Baker gives us our scores. Team 3 is ahead right now by 41 points. The team having the highest score at the end of the semester wins.

In science class we have been studying different birds. We colored pictures and wrote a story about birds. We are now learning about land and water.

Arithmetic is a little difficult for some of us now. We are carrying in addition and borrowing in subtraction.

In our social studies, we were reading about building a new school for Centerville. We pretended we were reading about how our own school, Patterson was built.

Barry Siedel had a birthday this month. He had a treat for us.

Sue Fuller has goen to Florida for a few weeks. We hope she has a good time.

We are constructing a spring scene on our front bulletin board. Our figures for it are made of spoons and pipe cleaners. We dressed our figures using construction paper.

Miss Baker brought a bulb to school called a Sacred Lily of India. We are watching it grow and waiting for the blossom. It grows very fast.

Terry Beland moved to Clinton and is now going to the Clinton school.

One of our cocoons hatched. We have a small white moth with black dots on its wings. It is now laying eggs.

We will again visit you next month. We hope you will have a happy Easter!

Grade Four—Patterson
Mrs. Colson

This week it was our turn again to put a display in the case. We chose Transportation for our theme. We made some built-up posters for the background, and on the shelves we have toys showing many kinds of transportation. Many of the planes and ships were built by the boys in our room.

Our cake believe trip to China has been fun. We have many pictures from our school picture file, and are drawing some ourselves. Our posters of Chinese lanterns, kites, and boats, make our bulletin board very colorful.

Ann Metcalf is spending two weeks in Florida. We are expecting that she will have many things to tell us when she comes back.

Tom Dickinson has been absent, because of illness. We hope he will soon be well enough to be in school again.

We are all waiting eagerly for Spring. Aren't you?

Grade Three—West Branch
Mrs. Laskey

Last Thursday, Mrs. Westdyke let us paint. Most of our pictures made everyone know that Easter is coming and that spring should be bringing green grass and flowers again. She showed us how to weave paper mats so we made woven paper Easter baskets to help trim our room.

In arithmetic we have learned to borrow from hundred's place when we subtract; to carry numbers when we add; and now we are learning a sign new to us. It is X for times, which tells us to multiply.

We wrote real letters to real people and mailed them for language last week.

Our teacher is reading a chapter a day from a book called Kit Carson.

We like our new reader called Tall Tales. One story was about a cow named Lacy May, who wanted to learn how to give orange juice instead of milk.

We all are learning how to use a dictionary. Almost all of us have new ones of our own. We are keeping them nice so we can use them many years.

Grade Three—Central
Mrs. Illeck

We are planning Easter decorations to make our room attractive. We are making an Easter mural.

We are learning to multiply in arithmetic. Learning to multiply is easier for some of us than borrowing in subtraction.

On Monday we saw a film entitled "How to Catch a Cold." It was a Walt Disney production which we used as a culmination activity for a health unit on "Colds." It was very intertaining as well as educational.

Tuesday provided another thrill. The Sioux Indian Chief and his wife. We could hardly believe that Chief Dewey Beard was 99 years old.

Jean Preston is vacationing in Florida. How we envy her! We shall be glad to have her return.

Several children have celebrated birthdays this month. Mrs. Wilson came to help us celebrate Tommy's birthday. She also brought a birthday treat which we enjoyed very much.

Our "Book Tree" is blossoming with more and more leaves as the children report on books they have read for pleasure.

Mrs. Illeck is reading "Heidi" by Joanne Spyri. It is very interesting.

Happy Easter Everybody!

Grade Three—Central
Mrs. Vallie

We have been very busy in our room. The group that is reading More Streets and Roads has just finished an animal unit. They made booklets containing a page of information about each animal and a picture of that animal. Now the children are making a large sumary chart of what they learned about all of the animals. This same group will now begin a unit about Colonial Days.

The Streets and Roads group has finished reading some make-believe stories. Those were a lot of fun to read. They too are going to begin an animal unit.

In arithmetic we have just learned how to borrow in subtraction. Most of us are doing very well.

Our class has been very fortunate lately. Mrs. Oberlin brought some decilious cookies for us last Wednesday. Michael Wilson had a birthday this Wednesday and his mother treated us to some beautiful cupcakes.

Grade Four—Central
Mrs. Whiting

We have five people who have birthdays in March. They are David Blanden, David Langham, Roger Mikesell, Phillip Radant, and Karen Robinette.

We have gained a new boy for our room and lost another. Daniel Carpenter, who came here from Clinton, is our new boy and Raymond Decker, who has only been with us about six weeks, has moved up north. Roger Mikesell has to miss a few days of school because of a knee injury but everyone else is in school and working hard. With only about 10 more weeks of school we have a lot to accomplish.

Some of the boys and girls have been making murals for our room from the stories we have been reading in our supplementary reading book, Today and Tomorrow. Now we are making Easter posters.

We also have some posters that come with our checkaways. We think they are very funny. They are about "Simple Sim, the Scoffer, Buttina Butt-in, Too-Too Touchy, and Shove Away the Smart Alleck." There are people none of us want to be like!

Our citizen for the month of March is Carol Bassett.

Grade Four—Central
Mrs. Baily

We are busy decorating our room for Easter. The pupils on the committee are Janice Hall, Hilda Dotson, David McDonald, Diane Mitzner, Michael Bartenslager, Barbara Gray, and Fannie King. Diane brought a large white rabbit made of wire and face tissues.

We have two birthdays in March—Janice Hall and Ronald Baxter.

A new pupil came to our room on the fourteenth. She is Joann Cameron and she moved here from Detroit.

Janice Hall spent the last week in February and the first week in March on a trip to Florida with her family. She brought back some interesting shells and other things to show us.

We had almost a perfect attendance last week. One child was absent for one half of a day.

Taylor University Choir Will Sing At Britton

The Taylor University A Cappella choir will present a concert of sacred music at the Methodist Church of Britton, Michigan on Thursday, April 7. The choir is under the direction of Howard Skinner, Chairman of the Division of Fine Arts at Taylors.

Music of the choir is taken from masterpieces of the 16th and 17th centuries and includes numbers by famous composers such as Gallus, Vittoria, Schutz and Palestrina. A number of modern sacred numbers are also included in the repertoire of the 45 voice choir. The choir sings sacred music only, and has been appraised as one of the outstanding small college musical groups in Indiana for its rendition of these numbers.

Skinner is in his first year as director of the choir and head of the music department at Taylor. Before joining the staff at Taylor, he taught and studied at MacPhail College of Music in Minneapolis. Skinner has conducted a number of outstanding musical groups in the Twin City area and appeared as soloist with the Collegium Musicum Orchestra and the Minneapolis Civic Opera.

Members of the choir are selected to sing with the group by auditions held during the first week of the fall semester. The choir meets for practice one hour each day. The Taylor choir is noted for the devotion the students give to the great music of the Christian faith in their desire to impart a rich spiritual and cultural experience to the listener. The choir appears at churches in the Indiana area during the school year and makes an annual tour during the Spring vacation.

Taylor, a four year Christian liberal arts college located at Upland, Indiana, offers fully accredited training in both theoretical and applied music. Students may prepare for teaching or a professional career in music. Much of the emphasis of the department is in the field of sacred music to prepare students to serve in church music programs.

The public is invited to attend the concert. There is no admission charge.

The descent of a coin can be watched for forty feet to the bottom of Big Spring near Kitchikipppi. Rafts provide observation platforms at this Crystal clean Upper Peninsula attraction.

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

MISS BERTHA LAPOINTE, second grade teacher at West Branch School, has a little dog named Timi that is special with the second graders. Some of them who do not have pets at home vie for the honors of putting Timi's leash on to take him out to play at recess. Timi, well trained, sleeps in the hall at school until recess. Children bring him special dog tidbits like steak bones from home and Timi received three valentines and a number of Christmas presents, too. When he was ill recently Miss LaPointe had to issue a daily bulletin on his condition.

A WAG WHO AGREES that changing the name of Michigan State College to university will be confusing says the change might lead to calling the two Michigan educational centers East Arbor and Ann Lansing.

LAST THURSDAY AFTER the paper was printed the gang here had cokes. But our authoress of that fine column "Is That So!" refused to drink from a bottle. She argued that she was up front where her friends passing by on the street could look in the window and see her guzzling. She thought this utter lack of privacy "would plummet her reputation" so she drank her coke from a tea cup as she worked.

AN OAKLAND COUNTY MINISTER friend wishes members of his congregation a "Merry Christmas" on Easter Sunday because, he tells them, "I don't expect to see you again before Christmas." He also could wish members a "Happy Easter" at the Christmas services.

JESSIE SLUYTER THINKS that folks could be a little more considerate. She saw several cars passing up kids on their way to school last week. The kids were soaked by a deluge of rain but the cars went zooming past, oblivious to the situation. Jessie wonders if we in our haste forget sometimes to lend a helping hand.

A FAT YOUNG ROBIN trying to get fatter is using the public bird feeding station in front of the house. And to think that I almost took it down Saturday!

"WHAT'S DOING IN WINTER HAVEN" is the title of a booklet received last week from Mrs. Orville Dewey, who was basking in the sunshine of that city. It is published, for free, by the Winter Haven Herald (with scads of ads) and brought us pictures of surf riders and shuffle board players the day that March blizzard was whistling about our ears. It was addressed to our city editor and had a blow by blow calendar of club doings which made her feel right at home.

DESCRIBING A GNU A writer said "The gnu is part onkey, part buffalo, part horse and part antelope." Apparently there is nothing new about a gnu.

A KINDLY GENTLEMAN OF advanced years encountered a four-year old standing on the street corner in deep perplexity.

"I want to run away," confided the tot.

"Oh," said the gentleman understandingly, "why don't you?"

"Well," said the perplexed youngster, "I'm not allowed to cross the street!"

PERSONS RESPONSIBLE FOR putting out a Michigan Water Wonderland map doily should be sued. They had a number of smaller towns on their map but they left off the "greatest little town on earth," Tecumseh, Michigan.

NEIL DE PUY, ROUTE 1, Tecumseh, says he has an elm tree and potato plant that are arguing for survival. The potato plant has grown so large, he says, that it is pushing the elm tree out and he now is wondering which will give the most shade. He's thinking of cutting the tree because the potato plant will give both shade and spuds. Of course, Neil must have known what tomorrow is. If you don't, check your calendar.

Bennie Ball of Britton Makes State Farmer

Bennie Ball of the Britton Future Farmer Chapter was recommended by the State Executive Committee of the Michigan Association of Future Farmers of America for the State Farmer Degree as a part of the 27th State Future Farmer convention held at Michigan State College last week.

Richard Palmer tried out for music and stunts parts on the program held during the convention.

Jim Arft and Bob Faust were the official delegates representing the Britton-Deerfield chapter at the convention.

A pageant dramatizing the Future Farmer Creed was given Friday, March 25. National figures on the program were Dr. A. W. Tenney, Executive Secretary, National Future Farmers of America organization of Washington, D. C. and David Boyne, former National President of the Future Farmers of America of Mackinette, Michigan.

Dr. Clair L. Taylor, Superintendent of Public Instruction, talked on the White House Education Conference to meet American Farmers and Star State Farmers, at the electric association banquet.

Mr. Jack Yaeger, Executive Secretary of the Michigan Farm Bureau addressed the delegates for the Honorary State Farmer Degree group.

Russ Spalding, teacher of vocational agriculture is the advisor of the Britton Chapter and Richard Bruce, is president; Kenneth Bortel, vice-president; Dave Squires, secretary; Larry Patterson, treasurer; Don Moore, reporter; and Ronald Croll, sentinel.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Prong of East Michigan Ave., Clinton have announced the engagement of their daughter Elizabeth Jean to Robert H. Schuch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schuch of Tecumseh. No wedding date has been set.

Mrs. James Miller Died Saturday

Mrs. James Miller, the former Mae Upell of Dundee, died Saturday morning in Herrick Memorial hospital where she had been a patient for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Miller was born Sept. 8, 1887 in Dundee, the daughter of John and Agnes Burnor Upell and after her marriage to Mr. Miller lived there until 1946. They then moved to 419 West Cummins street in Tecumseh which has since been her home. Mr. Miller died in July, 1953.

She is survived by one son, Francis James Miller of Wichita Falls, Texas, and two grandchildren James Wiley and Sandra Kay. Besides her husband she was preceded in death by her parents, a sister, Mrs. Ollie Brosamer and a brother, Leo.

Funeral services for Mrs. Miller were conducted Monday morning at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church with the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins singing the Requiem High Mass. The Rosary was recited Sunday evening at Green Funeral Home. Burial was in Brookside cemetery, the bearers being Jack Miller of Monroe, William and Irving Miller of Luna Pier, Ohio, Robert Miller of Toledo and Bernard and Donald Brosamer of Holloway.

Couple Observes 20th Anniversary

Twenty-two neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Boyce gave them a most pleasant surprise Sunday evening on the occasion of their 20th wedding anniversary.

The celebration was arranged by their daughters, who served refreshments to the guests. The bride's and groom's cakes were cut and served by Ruth Boyce and the ice cream by her sister, Julia. Coffee was poured by Mrs. S. W. Boyce, mother of the bridegroom, from a table decorated with yellow roses. Mrs. Boyce's mother, Mrs. George Kidman, assisted her granddaughters.

The honored couple was presented with a gift from the group.

Wilbur Boyce and Elizabeth Kidman were married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kidman in West Adrian, March 27, 1945, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. George Prentice of Adrian. Since their marriage they have lived on the family farm on Bittner Road. They have four children.
